P. FrederickSHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of an execution and order of sale, to me directed, issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln County in the suit of East Land & Timber Company, a corporation, plaintiff, vs. Thomas Fred Smith, M. S. Cadonau, A. P. Casey, May Casey, his wife and S. K. Buyers, defendants, a mortgage foreclosure, I will on the eight day of September, 1917 at the hour of ONE o'clock P. M. at the front door of the court house in the City of Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the following described real property:

Section Twenty five (25) in Township Eleven (11) South of Range Eight (8) West of the Willamette Meridian in Lincoln County, Oregon, containing 640 acres, more or less, the same being registered land.

Said sale will be made to satisfy the judgment and decree in said suit, to-wit: A judgment for plaintiff for the sum of $5726.50 with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from August 4th, 1917 and the further sum of $128.90 with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from March 20th, 1917 and the further sum of $400.00 attorney's fees and the costs and disbursements herein taxed at $31.25, and accruing costs.

Bert Geer, Sheriff
of Lincoln County, Oregon.

Was Condition of Indiana Lady Before Beginning to Take Card-u-i, the Woman's Tonic.

Kokomo, Ind.—Mrs. H. Hankemeier, of this town, says: "I look so well, and am so well, that it does not seem as if I ever needed Cardui. But I was not always this way. I think I have taken a dozen bottles before my little girl came.

I was feeling dreadfully bad, had headache, backache, sick at my stomach, no energy. I was very irritable, too, and nervous.

I began taking Cardui about 6 months before my baby came. As a result all those bad feelings left me, and I just felt grand, just as if nothing at all was the matter, and when the end came I was hardly sick at all.

Since that I have never taken Cardui at all. It has done me good, and I know it will help others, if they will only try it.

Many women have written grateful letters like the above, telling of the good that Cardui has done them. Why should it not help you, too? If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, and feel the need of a safe, reliable, strengthening tonic, we urge you to begin today and give Cardui a fair trial.

Lincoln County LeaderMAKES CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT WITH*THE OREGON FARMEROffers Unusual Opportunity To Its Readers*

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber of THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
