GLEN

Such wonderful weather!

Alva Moore has been working in Toledo during the week past.

Mrs. S. J. Stewart and children have been visiting the J. W. Davenport family for several days.

The neighbors have been making early gardens and discussing the goat shearing problem. The big boys gone to join the Colors and work in the camps cuts the labor supply short—it looks as though the girls would be "powerful handy" this season—and girls are very scarce here too.

Mr. Damon of Eddyville was here trying to buy cattle the first of the week.

Louis Brown went to Harlan to the coyote round up last week.

The Brown family received a card from their son, Asa, announcing his safe arrival in France, and a letter from Everett stating he was again in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davenport are much pleased with the arrival of a new little son the 24th.

What is that new religion they said they were having over on Flegles Creek? We had mislaid our dictionary, but it sounded good to us. Wish we had more of it here and in other neighborhoods also.

The school children gathered a nice box of wood lilies to send their former teacher, Miss Ramona Lundy, in California. Miss Lundy taught us an excellent school and is kindly remembered here.

William Sharp has been moving the Williams families household goods. It is reported the Aplet boys of Salado have purchased the Williams property here.

John Folmsbee of Salado who has been visiting relatives and boyhood friends in different parts of the East and California, returned home Thursday.

GAS SCHOONER "E. L. SMITH" WRECKED

TOW LINE BREAKS WHILE CROSSING SILETZ BAR—REPORTED TOTAL LOSS

Thursday morning last the gas schooner E. L. Smith was wrecked at the mouth of the Siletz river and is reported a total loss.

The E. L. Smith was a new vessel, built on the Siletz river by the Parker brother, and had been in service only a short time. She entered the Siletz about four weeks ago while enroute from Portland to Yaquina Bay with a cargo of coal and merchandise. While at the Siletz her machinery broke down and it was found impossible to repair it until the vessel could be towed to this place. After a long delay on account of not having a tow line, an old one, good only for junk, was sent down from Portland, and taken up by the gas schooner Roamer, Capt. Snyder, and Thursday morning the Roamer taking the Smith in tow started for this port with her. While crossing the Siletz bar, however, the strain was too much for the old tow line and it parted. It was picked up and made fast again but broke almost with the first strain and within a few moments the vessel drifted into the breakers and went ashore on the north of the entrance to the river and is close inshore.

It was thought at first that she might be hauled off the beach but according to later reports she is badly stove in and settling in the sand.

Vessel May Be Saved

Wednesday reports from the Roamer which returned this morning from the Siletz say that the E. L. Smith is not much damaged and is lying in an easy position well up on the beach almost inside the entrance to the Siletz river, and that there is a good prospect for saving the vessel if the present fine weather continues.—Newport News.

POMONA GRANGE (By S. T. Loudon)

A very successful Pomona Grange meeting was held with Toledo Grange Wednesday March 27th. Meeting was called to order at ten o'clock by Master S. T. Loudon and general business was done. At noon adjourned for dinner which the ladies of Toledo had prepared—no one knows with out experience what a feast it was and there is no use trying to tell just what that was. Too many good things, that's all. At two o'clock the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Swearingen as Lecturer and a fine program was given. The program follows:

America, Grange; Violin Solo, Mr. Olson; Birds on the Farm, Mr. Magee; Remarks by Mr. Goin; Violin Solo by Mr. McCluskey; How the County Agent May Help the Grange and the Grange Help the County Agent, by Mr. Ashahr; Trombone Solo, Mr. Thomas; Talk, Mr. Miller; Furnishing and Decorating the Rural Home, Mrs. Swearingen; Vocal Solo, Mrs. Thomas; For the Good of the Order by Mr. Loudon; Turkey Tail Fan, Mrs. McBride.

After the reading of some very good resolutions and referring them to the Resolution Committee, adjourned until eight o'clock, when the fifth degree was given to a large class of candidates. This over a business meeting was held at which it was decided to meet with Lincoln Grange at Ona the fourth Wednesday in June, the 26th. Mr. Archie Miller, State Deputy of Albany, attended the meeting and gave a talk on what the State Grange can do for subordinate granges. This talk was well received. Toledo, Elk City, Siletz Valley, Lincoln and Eddyville granges were represented. Take it all in all this was a very profitable meeting. Remember the next meeting at Ona, June 26.
