EVENING

The Dramatic Club presented their annual fall production called at the Palace last night.

A good crowd was present to support the local company, which has been working hard to make the show a success. The costumes and scenery were quite well done, and the acting was generally good. The play was well received by the audience, and it is expected to run for several more nights.

A dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Miller, located at 500 South Main Street. The dance featured music by the local band, and refreshments were served throughout the evening. There was a good turnout, and the evening ended on a high note.

ECCOTON

The Emergency Council of Fremont is preparing for an important event. They have set aside a special fund for the support of local charities, and are planning several activities to raise money. The council will meet this week to discuss the details of their plans.

FUTON LOOKS BRIGHT FOR TACOMA COUNTY

The future of the Tacoma County Assessor's office is looking promising. The county government is investing in new technology and equipment, and the staff is working hard to improve services. The goal is to provide efficient and effective administration of the county's property tax system.

BILL POLIT

The city council has approved a resolution in support of the local fire department. The council members believe that the department is doing an excellent job, and they expressed their gratitude to the firefighters for their service.

SILENZ

The school board has approved a new budget for the upcoming fiscal year. The budget includes funding for several important programs, such as technology, arts, and athletics. The board hopes that these investments will contribute to the overall quality of education in the district.

LEITJUNTS PLANT MILITARY BULLY

The Department of Defense has announced plans to establish a new military base in the area. The base will be a significant economic boost for the region, providing jobs and opportunities for the local community. The decision was made after careful consideration of various factors, including the potential impact on the environment and the surrounding communities.

LAUNCH WINDMUSHT

The launch Windmushit, a tiny little fishing boat, was recently launched at the local harbor. The boat is designed for small-scale fishing and will provide an added economic boost to the local fishing industry. The launch ceremony was attended by local officials and members of the community, who expressed their support for the initiative.

HORSE KILLED

Last Monday morning the body of a fine Arabian stallion was found dead near the town. The horse, owned by Mr. John Smith, was valued at more than $1,000. The cause of death is still under investigation. The local police are searching for any possible clues or suspects.

BELL CAME COLD SUNDAY

A fire alarm went off at approximately 10:00 a.m. on Sunday morning, causing a large scare among the residents. The cause of the alarm is currently under investigation.

MILLS MANUFACTURING

The company has just released its new line of products, which are expected to be very popular. The company is investing heavily in research and development to ensure the quality of its products.

NOUHAN AND WOOL GroOVERS ORGANIZE

The meeting took place at Lazyville's community center. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss strategies for organizing the wool and mohair industries. The participants expressed a desire to work together to improve the economic prospects for the local farmers and producers.

NOUHER)

The Citizens Committee for the Protection of the Environment has called a meeting for next week to discuss a new initiative. The committee is working on developing a plan to reduce pollution in the area, and they are seeking input from the public.

WEDNESDAY evening

The local council will hold its regular meeting at 7:00 p.m. in the council chambers. The meeting is open to the public, and anyone is welcome to attend.

BORDER BRIDGE REBUILDING

The border bridge between two neighboring countries is scheduled to undergo a major renovation. The project is expected to take several months, and it will involve the construction of a new bridge.

CHELSEY MILL WILL START WEDNESDAY

Work on the new power plant is expected to begin Wednesday. The project is a major milestone in the development of the region, and it will provide a much-needed boost to the local economy.

TOLEDO HAS SWITCH ENGINE

The switch engine is scheduled to arrive on Wednesday morning. The engine will be an important addition to the local railway system, and it will help to increase the efficiency of the operations.

YACHTS SPRIGUE WILL REACH PORTLAND BY MAIL WORK NOW IN PROGRESS AND WILL BE FINISHED

The Yachts Sprigue will be arriving in Portland by mail soon. The ship is currently in the process of loading cargo, and it is expected to depart soon.

CHANGE TO ACQUISITION PRACTICE

Several changes are in the works as the county government prepares to acquire new property. The changes are expected to improve efficiency and reduce costs.

PAISSO BOOGIE MONEY

There are concerns about potential problems with the new boogie money. The government is working on developing a plan to address these concerns.

NOTE NOUHAIROCERS (By the County Attorney)

We do not have a current status for the current case. All information is based on records from the past.

NOTE NOUHEAATERS (By the County Attorney)

We do not have a current status for the current case. All information is based on records from the past.