OYSTER CITY

Mrs. Peter Shermer gave a birthday dinner, at her son, Joe's house, where she is staying, last Monday, she being 69 years old on that day. She certainly is spry for a lady that age. We wish her many more birthdays. She had a delicious dinner to which all did justice. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shermer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Shermer and children, Mrs. L. D. Emerson, John, Joe, Simon, and Cedric Shermer. All her children were present, with the exception of Leo, who is with the American forces in France.

Charlie Wooding and Mr. Eclough and son were Oyster City visitors Monday.

Miss Mary Huntsucker has been working for her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Lewis, the past two weeks.

Gordon, Jene, and Lorenzo Emerson went to work at Al-tree's camp near Mill Four Monday.

The dance at the cannery Saturday night was well attended and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

John Shermer and son, Cedric, moved to Newport last Monday. They will occupy their residence near Ollsonville.

The spur being built at Oyster City is looking up and things are beginning to look business-like. The rock for the jetty will be unloaded here and it will employ 10 or 12 men.

We had quite a nice rain Sunday night, which benefited the war gardens at Oyster City.

Mike Shermer received a letter from his brother, Leo, who is in with the American Forces "Somewhere in Europe." He writes he is well and has plenty to eat and likes the place fine, but he never forgets to ask how everything is on the good old Yaquina Bay. He sent his picture in his uniform and he certainly looks well fed and well cared for.

Mrs. Peter Shirmer had the misfortune to lose a fine horse by drowning, on her place up Poole slough.

PEAK ITEMS

G. O. Adams of Upper Big Elk hauled a load of potatoes out for Lloyd Lillard. Mr. Lillard sold the potatoes and donated the proceeds to the Red Cross. Mr. Adams also gave the services of himself and team free.

Geo. Ridenour is hauling ship knees from his ranch to Blodgett. Geo. is sure some hustler, again proving the old saying, good goods sometimes comes in small packages. Mr. Ridenour, in addition to working a 200 acre ranch, has made over $400 worth of ship knees since last winter.

Miss Lillian Adams is still visiting relatives and friends in Portland. She expects to start home June 16th.

Our old veteran, Major T. J. Buford, is completing three miles of wagon road, from the Big Elk country road to his ranch, and has done it with a grubbing hoe, at that. Although past 72 years of age he could not wait until his friends got thru their spring work to help him. He not only did the work all alone but had to cook his own meals, as well as plow and plant for his summer hay and garden. Mr. Adams took his team over to do the plowing, but T. J. took the team and plow away from him, and showed Mr. Adams how to do some real plowing. Those old fellows that crossed the plains in the 60s, sure have grit and muscle.

Mr. Boystead of Salem has bought the Gates ranch, formerly the McClellan ranch, on Upper Big Elk.

For the convenience of ranchers, etc., in this section, G. O. Adams applied for and received a commission as a Notary Public from Governor Withycombe.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Elmore Scoville, Plaintiff.

W. H. Foster, Elizabeth Ladd, Annie Stevens, Rosie Martin, Elvira Knott and the unknown heirs of Joseph Knott, deceased; Also "all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein." Defendants.

To W. H. Foster, Elizabeth Ladd, Annie Stevens, Rosie Martin, Elvira Knott and the unknown heirs of Joseph Knott, deceased; also "all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein," the above named defendants:

In the Name of the State of Oregon You and each of you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled suit now on file with the clerk of the above entitled Court, on or before the date of the last publication of this summons, to-wit: on or before the 14th day of June, 1918, and you and each of you are hereby notified that if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint as herein required, for want thereof, plaintiff will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief demanded in plaintiff's complaint, namely: for a decree that the plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of the following described land, situated in Lincoln County, Oregon, to-wit:

Lots Three (3), four (4), eight (8)

He Will Welcome a pouch of Real GRAVELLY Chewing Plug

Any gift from the folks back home means a lot to the boy.

When you send him tobacco, let it be good tobacco—tobacco worth sending all that long way—the flat, compressed plug of Real Gravelly.

Give any man a chew of Real Gravelly Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best!

Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravelly, because a small chew of it lasts a long while.

If you smoke a pipe, slice Gravelly with your knife and add a little to your smoking tobacco. It will give flavor—improve your smoke.

SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELLY

Dealers all around here carry it in 10c pouches. A 3c stamp will put it into his hands in any Training Camp or Hospital of the U. S. A. Even "over there" a 3c stamp will take it to him.
