TITLE GRABBERS NOT SATISFIED

Oregon's Experience in Liberty Loan Drive is Wholesome Lesson

A striking illustration of the value of publicity has come to light within the past three weeks. The illustration bears a moral which should be of interest to every voter.

The State Liberty Loan sent out pledge cards broadcast over the state to notify patriotic citizens to come in and voluntarily purchase Liberty Bonds during "Honor Week", preceding the efficient campaign.

Did the voters respond? They did not.

In fact no attention was paid to the cards by 90 per cent of the people. The situation became desperate when, on the evening before September 28th the state was short about five million dollars in bonds.

Then a new plan was tried. The loan organizations sent "personal notices" out through the newspapers, by publishing the names of a few Portland slackers and some others over the state.

Within three days Portland and the state at large slid over the top. The result was a highly agreeable surprise.

Mall notice, it can be seen, is not always effective.

The Portland Journal's campaign to eliminate the publication of the delinquent tax lists is not meeting with the approval of the taxpayers of Oregon. In the first place it is a campaign of malice, of spitework, against the press of the state. In the second place the existing tax publication law of Oregon is fashioned to serve the taxpayer and not the title grabber. The present law provides publication, but only after mail notices have been sent out and have failed to notify. Publication is not for those who pay but for those who have failed to receive proper notice. Could any fairer scheme be devised?

Let the present law alone. It works to your advantage even if it does not please the title grabber.
