DER CROWN PRINCE WRITES TO HIS DADDY

Somewhere in Germany..

Dear Papa:—

I am writing on the run, as the brave and glorious soldiers under my command have not seen the Rhine for so long that they have started that way, and of course, I am going mit dem. Oh, pap, dere has been some offal dings happened here in France. First I started in my big offensive, which was to crush the fool Americans, but dey know so little military tactics dat dey will not be smashed just like I want 'em. I sent my men in der fight in big waves, and when dey got to de Americans dey all said "Boo!!," as loud as dey could holler. Vell, according to what you haf always told me, der Americans should have turned and run like blazes. But what you tink? Dem fool Americans don't know anything about war, and instead of running de odder vey, dey come right toward us. Some of dem was singing something about "Vee von't come back till it's over, over there," or some odder foolish song, and some of dem laughing like fools. Dey are so ignorant.

But dey are offal reckless wit dere guns and ven dey come toward us it was den dat my men took a notion dey wanted to go back to de dear old Rhine. Vee don't like de little old dirty Marne river anyhow. And ch. Pau, dem Americans use such offal language. Dey know nothing of kultur, and say such offal ding right before us. And dey talk blasphemy. Vat you tink dey say right in front my face? One big husky from a place dey call Missouri, he said—Oh, Papa, I hate to tell you vat offal ding he said—but I can't help it. He said: "To hell mit der kaizer."

I didn't tink anybody would say such an offal thing. It made me so mad I wouldn't stand and hear such an offal ding, so I turned right round and run mit de odder boys. Vas I right? And, Papa, you know dem breast plates vot you sent us, can you send some to put on our backs? You know we are going de o' way now, and breast plates are no good, for the cowardly Americans are shooting us right in de back. Some of our boys took off der breast plates and put 'em behind, but de fool Americans are playing "De Star Spangled Banner" mit machine guns on dem plates. Can't you help us? You remember in your speech you said nothing could stand before the brave German soldiers. Oh, Papa, I don't believe dese ignorant Americans ever read your speech, for dey run after us just like ve vas a lot of rabbits. Vot you tink of dot? Can't you move my army back to Belgium vere we von all our glory? My men can vip all de vimmen and children vot de Belgians bring up. But dese Americans are so rough and ignorant. Vee can't make 'em understand dat ve are de greatest soldiers on earth, and ven ve try to sing "Deutschland Uber Alles" dey laugh like a lot of monkeys. But we are getting de best of de Americans. Vee can out run dem. Papa, if ve are not de best fighters on earth ve are sure de best runners. Nobody can keep up mit us ven we tink so much of dot dear old river. Let me know right away what to do by return postoffice.

Crown Prince Willie.
