G. R. Weydemeyer of Fortine, Mont., arrived Saturday evening for a visit with his brother three miles northeast of town.

J. H. Lewis and family recently moved to Toledo from Nashville. They have taken up their residence in one of the Thiel houses.

H. M. Henry of Chitwood was transacting business in the city Wednesday. He called in and subscribed for the Leader while in town.

Miss M. L. Hampton arrived down from Portland Tuesday evening. Miss Hampton has been engaged to teach the Upper Siletz school.

W. E. Simpson and R. A. Abbey motored down from Elk City Tuesday. They report that the roads are not as dusty as they were a while back.

Mrs. G. W. Cruson and daughter-in-law, returned to their homes at Lebanon Wednesday after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Cruson in this city.

Leslie Vernon Stitt and Miss Doris Ialeen Wilcox were married in Corvallis Nov. 13, 1918. This young couple were well known throughout Lincoln and Benton counties. Mr. Stitt is a soldier from Pa.

Lester Waugh and D. L. Peterson shipped a car of fat stock to the Portland markets the first of the week. Mr. Peterson accompanied the shipment, and will visit his ranch in Eastern Oregon before returning.

Mrs. G. R. Schenck informs us that she has extra labels to put on Xmas boxes to send to the boys in the trenches, so if those who have sons "over across" fail to get their label, they can secure them from Mrs. Schenck, up to the 30th of this month, upon making proper representation.

STOLEN FROM THE PEAKEY

Following are some items taken from the Soldiers' paper, The Peakey.

Toledo Camp Personals

The "Farewell Dance" of the Season will be held at the Fair Building this Saturday Night and a full house is anticipated. Private "Jazz" Froom and 14 (fourteen—count them) peppy musicians will furnish the Jazz Music for the occasion. As usual this will be a Band Benefit and all should help to make it the big dance of 1918.

The Officers of the Fourth Provisional Regiment held a most successful dance at Toledo last Saturday evening. The "Dances of Toledo" were in attendance and the affair was full of "pep" due to the fact that the celebrated "Jazz Orchestra" was on the job.

Pvt. Froom, Apollo, Brown and others will journey to "Frisco" in company with Pvt. L. B. Gross as soon as discharged. Some fellows don't care who they travel with. The celebrated duo, Froom and Apollo, will tour the Pantages Circuit under the personal direction of Pvt. Gross, presenting everything from "Ragtime" to "Grand Opera."

Gross may put the act on the turn by springing some of his good camp talks.

The Y. M. C. A. now have a first class "Movie" machine at the "Y" Hut and will present three shows a week from now on. More power to the Y.

Pvt. Dana of the 101st Squadron now passes his time away in Headquarters Office pounding the keys on a Remington.

Corp. Herb Cohen of the 101st received a letter from his brother Captain Cohen of the Quartermaster Corps who was just about ready to sail across to France when the war was called off. Captain writes that he was already aboard ship when the news of the signing of the Armistice arrived and he was ordered ashore.

Ask Sergeant Higgins if he enjoyed the dance last Saturday night?

Fred Roth of the 109th should keep an eye on McGrogan, and he would never be late for mess.

Charles Woods, of the 94th, lost his political job of acting Sergeant on his return from Miller's Camp, but was promoted to Commander Chief of an Irish Buggy. Why not wheel it upside down, Charlie, so that they can't put anything in it?

Who said the age of miracles was past? Joe Crofts is ready to take oath that he actually saw Tabor M. Edmonds, the spendthrift, walking in the direction of the Exchange. The statement was later verified by Phil Leavick, who saw Tabor buy a postage stamp.

Oh Joy! The married men whose wives are in Toledo are free once more. Sergeant Macey was seen crossing the bridge last Sunday, wheeling in front of him a little buggy which seemed to have something in it that was very much alive. Not only was he wheeling the buggy, but the smile on the Sergeant's face was one as he has not shown for at least six weeks: the smile that will not wear off.

THE TAIL OF A COW

"What happened to the cow?" "Was the cow hurt?" "Did they send the cow to the hospital?" and numerous other questions along the same line have repeatedly been asked of Captain Lum and Lieutenant Baker.

These questions are all on account of an accident which happened to a Southern Pacific Speeder and Privates R. W. Washburn and H. H. LeMunyan of the 94th and Raphael Rosenstein and G. H. Belisle of the 101st.

According to Private Washburn's account of the accident, the four of them were going down the S. P. track on the speeder, between Toledo and Yaguina, at what he termed a fair speed, and when Private Washburn says a fair speed it would naturally mean an extra good speed. In some way or another, (none of them seem to know exactly how it all happened) a cow got on the track in front of them and did not remove herself therefrom until the speeder and our four friends hit her. Private Rosenstein immediately picked himself up, and not stopping to consider as to whether he was hurt, started toward Toledo at a forty-mile gait to get help. He managed to secure the Warren Spruce Engine, which, accompanied by a flat car, immediately proceeded to the rescue at a somewhat slower rate of speed than Rosenstein had made.

These four men are now in the hospital at South Beach, and will probably remain there until their recovery is complete. Rosenstein is suffering from a broken arm; Washburn and Belisle from broken backs, and LeMunyan from a broken head.

Oh, the Cow? Well, Private Washburn says she crawled out from among the wreckage on her hands and knees, got up to her feet, and calmly surveyed her new found friends for a minute as the wondering if they had meant to be mean to her or were merely playing a little rough. Then she said "Mamma!" and started off down the track at about the same speed Rosenstein had made, only in the opposite direction.

CAMP 3-A

Serg't. Mortinson, Alias Society Slim has purchased him a new suit and he looks like a gold dined dude.

In a recent issue of the Wayland (N. Y.) News there is a fine photograph of Private Geo. J. Grien and a large tree and two of the long eared animals that are politely called donkeys. The article states that Priv. Grien is seeing service with the 80th Squadron Production Engineers. The article states that the figure with the hat on is Private Grien.

Private Jarrett is reported to be in the market for a nice brass cuspidor. Acting Corporal Johnson has installed a patent light extingisher which is guaranteed to douse the glim at 9:15 sharp.

Morechin Hahn and Chinless Fuls are contemplating going on the stage after the war.

Louis Holmes reports that the folks back to home in Alabama have sold their farm and he states that he is now homeless. He was heard to say that he was going to stay in the SPD and has been out hunting spruce seed so as to start a division of his own.

CAMP 3-I

Acting Private Boyd was stepping out Sunday with a girl on each arm and a pair of new specs on his face. It surely improves his appearance and he is fast becoming the Beau Brummell of the 101st.

Third assistant acting lance corporal Bedney is now out of the Warren Spruce Company offices and has been proposed for the position of "Advertising Manager" of the "Evening Wheeze."

Among the latest arrivals in the Soup Strainer Society are Privates Moxon and Wilson who are trying to raise one apiece on their upper lips.

Serg't. Higgins was seen in a local Ice Cream parlor with his arms around one of the Toledo Belles and was bidding her good bye. She presented him with a nice pie as a parting gift.

Private C. E. Johnson reports an armed party who forced its way into his tent and chopped up his furniture for firewood. If we must have hot cakes we must sacrifice something Charles.

The Man in the Tobacco Store Says

—it does beat all how men are taking to Real Gravely, now that they know it costs nothing extra to chew this class of tobacco. All you have to do is to get a man to take his first plug of Gravely. Let him get the pure, satisfying Gravely taste, and learn for himself how much longer the small Gravely chew stays with him than a big chew of ordinary plug.

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.
