

STOLEN FROM THE PEAVEY

Following are some items taken from the Soldiers' paper, The Peavey.

Toledo Camp Personels

Speaking of Musicians, Pvt. Hartfield of the 101st has got the world beat. He can snore in seven keys at the same time, and when it comes to volume, Caruso's tenor isn't in it with Hartfield's snoring.

The brains of the Spruce Production Division are certainly centered in this Camp. The other day we observed a light duty man carrying a piano from the Y. M. C. A. to the Club House in a wheel barrow. Can you beat it?

The roasting of Turkey in Greece on Thanksgiving Day must have been most gratifying to the Greek-American soldiers.

A certain group of Officers will be under cover when Lieut. Schaff returns from Portland. The other day as Lieut. Schaff was boarding the train the said group of Officers pelted him with rice, much to the Lieutenant's embarrassment. A strange coincidence was that act that a young lady accompanied by a preacher boarded the train just ahead of Lieut. Schaff. However the rice was just a josh.

The dance which was held as a benefit for the Band in our handsome new Club House on Thanksgiving Night was a splendid success and a neat sum was realized for the Band fund. The music was the best yet presented and the Club House lent color to the affair. The second of a series of "Farewell" dances will be held in the Clubhouse this Saturday Nite for the benefit of the Band.

The Club House was the scene of a pretty affair held by the Officers last Saturday evening as a compliment to the Ladies of Toledo. Dancing was the diversion, and light refreshment was served.

Thanksgiving dinner for the men of course the big attraction on Turkey the Fourth Prov. Regiment was of Day. The dinner was a most splendid one and Lieutenant Patrick, Mess Officer received many congratulations on his success.

The Ladies of Toledo are to be thanked for the great kindness in furnishing the many extras for our Thanksgiving table. And home made jam and jelly certainly does taste good.

Chas. E. Johnson was seen to spend five cents in the Exchange last Sunday. Getting careless with your money in your late years, Charley?

Sergt. Higgins and Pvt. Scott journeyed to Portland to purchase some things but reported they were not successful.

Pvt. R. D. Froom is the daddy of a bouncing baby boy and is now wearing a big smile. Froom may now cancel his contract to go over the Pantages Circuit and beat it in the direction of Denver, Colorado, to see the wife and baby.

Pvt. Seth Johnson: (with cigar in mouth passing Lt. Simpson without saluting.)

Lieut. Simpson: "Why didn't you salute me?"

Pvt. Johnson: "Sir, Military regulations say, never salute an officer with a cigar in your mouth."

Pvt. Cotton is now a contributor to the Peavey. He however has the mistaken idea that the Peavey is about the size of the Oregonian and therefore uses entirely too much Y.M.C.A. paper.

A suggestion to the band master—Make sergeant Balcom's Gob stick 4 feet longer and then put a wheel on the end. It would be much easier for the Sergeant.

One of the best compliments of the season is the one paid Oscar Sipple by our friend Holmeis. He says, "as a Cook he would make a good carpenter."

It is remarkable the influence some people have. Private Boyd was much in evidence at the Leatherlegging Ball at the Clubhouse the other night.

Saw Sergt. Lohr with one hand inside his blouse last Sunday. We thought he was posing as Napoleon but upon questioning we found that Hives were responsible for the heroic Pose.

Talk about your army life—How about Camp 3-1? Ocean Breeze, Mountain Air, Music With Your Meals, and Society Girls to wait on you. When you can't get enough ocean air they even pump the ocean up over our camp for our benefit. Fishing parties in the Company Streets are a common sight.

Private Scott says they are neither hives or fleas, but he wishes he did know what they are.

Private Montgomery denies that he has withdrawn from the fritter contest on account of Sergt. Hicks weight. He says that the real reason was that Sergt. Hicks wanted a five minute start. We stand corrected.

The Mayor of Toledo protests the proposed annexing of Toledo to the United States. He states that under the International Laws small nations have a right to exist as well as the large ones and insists on Home Rule for Toledo and the Tidelands.

That hilarious racket heard in Toledo the other evening was the members of the Hi Twelve Club holding their farewell banquet. Turkey and all the trimmings together with a musical program by Schnell and Kelsey and several impromptu songs by various members and some fine speeches Democratic and Political and otherwise made up an evenings entertainment which will never be forgotten by the members present.

Private Cotton ordered a suit case by mail and got a large pocket book with handles. They must have thought he was a ballet dancer judging from the article sent him.

"Pep" is all right in its place, but we think Sgt. Higgins overdoes it a bit in this brief little address that follows reverts every morning in the 80th: "Don't get sick-call; p'leece-up-around-you' tents-smised!"

Last week the regular program of the Y. M. C. A. was resumed. On Sunday evening Dr. McAfee of Berkeley, Calif. and the Vancouver Y. M. C. A. addressed a large body of Officers and men. Mr. Earl Raser of the District came up from Newport to help with the singing. Sgt. Macey sang an especially suitable solo.

Tuesday evening was the only night this last week given over to general school classes. However, the short-hand class has put in some hard licks catching up with the game. Since the illness of Pvt. Wilson, Pvt. Stubbins has given his services as instructor in shorthand. On Wednesday Sergt. Marsh and Pvt. O'Keefe put on a boxing bout of four rounds. Several other two minute bouts were staged from the crowd.

Thursday was the big day. Starting with a very appropriate Thanksgiving service conducted by Chaplain Ross. The big feed came at noon. Young lady waitresses, with Y. M. C. A. caps, and the famous 4th Prov. Orchestra gave an air of festivity to the occasion. The real home made jelly donated by the ladies was greatly appreciated by all.

After dinner a social gathering was held in the new Club House with a musical program at two o'clock. This was one of the best programs the Y. has put on in Toledo.

Thru the courtesy of the management of the two theatres, a special program for soldiers only was arranged.

Friday evening was a mixed program. Mrs. O'Donnell, Miss McGinnis and Mr. Porter, all of Corvallis, rendered a fine musical program. Prof. E. T. Reed of O. A. C. gave a lecture on "The spoils of Victory," which was both instructive and entertaining. The Wednesday and Saturday night movies are becoming very popular in the camp.

It is the intention of the Y to bring in more outside talent as long as the camp remains.

CAMP 3-A

We have been delegated by the Toledo Athletic Association to reprimand the football team from your Camp so here goes. Pat Baker played too rough with the little town boys and it was real naughty of him to hurt the little fellows shoulder by bumping into him that way. Red Doyle should be ashamed of himself to take the ball away from these children and run away with it and he should have stopped when four of our boys got on his back. He don't play nice at all. And Society Slim and Army Hawkins were real rude to sit on our Boy druggists neck in such an ungentlemanly manner. Hereafter if you can't play nice we won't let you come and wade in our lake any more.

Acting Corporal Hahn was in Toledo Sunday, chin and all.

Private Jarret was reported to be in town last Sunday. We did not see him but we heard him.

It is recommended that Jack Wells join the Fourth Regt. Band at the earliest moment. It was his inspiring music which played our boys to victory last week.

Brick Faulkner was in town with three eyeballs last Saturday.

The Camp 3-A boys are so busy that it takes three Lieutenants to keep track of them. Keep the good work up and we will be in H. U. Heaven or Hoboken by the Fourth of July.

Mike laughed at the Judge for chewing Gravely.

The Judge came right back at Mike with a friendly chew—just a couple of little squares off his plug of Real Gravely.

Mike found that the chew stayed with him for a long while, and the more he chewed the better it tasted.

"There's the real tobacco satisfaction," says the Judge: "and it costs nothing extra to chew this class of plug."

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.
