STOLEN FROM THE PEAVEY

Following are some items taken from the Soldiers' paper, The Peavey.

Toledo Camp Personals

Capt. Lam and Capt. King of the Fourth Provisional Regiment are seeing California on a leave of absence. Capt. King has been suffering from a severe cold and we hope he will be entirely well on his return from the sunny south.

Members of this Regiment who are quartered at or near the lower end of 3rd Avenue are leading a dog's life these days. Between the musicians and accordion players there is no rest for the weary, and when the ukelele sharps get into full action, shortly after feeding times, this camp is no place for a lover of music.

Pvt. John J. Crowley, 80th Spruce, would like to send the straw in his tick back to the Q. M. Dept. He claims that quite a number of the straws have become broken and should be mended at once.

Pvt. Cotton received a letter from a young lady in Seattle in regard to the cross between a suit case and a pocket book he got. Be careful, Cotton, you're married.

Pvt. C. E. Johnson denies that he spent five cents at the exchange. He says it was only three cents and that was for a stamp. The contributor who said he spent five cents begs to be excused.

Lieut. Schaff is hereby informed that the chair for which he has been conducting an unfruitful search is in daily use by the Lieut. who occupies the desk opposite him.

Pvt. Dahlquist says he knows now where the straw came from that broke the camel's back. He has the mate to it in his bed.

Suggested ideas of examples for the men to follow:

Soldierly bearing—Sgt. Ball
Soldierly Courtesy—Sgt. Balcom
Soldierly neatness—Sgt. Higgins
Soldierly marching—Sgt. Adamson

Follow these brave souls and you can't go wrong.

Pvt. Sipple denies that he is either a carpenter or a cook. He says that his profession is Detecting. Pvt. Cotton suggests that he detect the time we are scheduled to leave here. Sipple claims to be a second Dead Eye Dick.

A Christmas tree party on Christmas Eve and a big dance on Christmas Night are two of the feature events planned for the men of this Regiment for the Christmas Holiday. At the Christmas tree party, presents will be distributed to all and candy and cake will be furnished for the inner man.

The dance on Christmas Night will be free to all and many stunts, including candy dances, will be presented.

THREE SAN FRANCISCANS GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

MISS GEARY, MISS DENNY, MR. McAULEY ENTERTAIN SPRUCE HOUNDS AT "Y"

"Now please don't holler 'Look at the feet on 'em'" was about the first remark Miss Gendy Geary of San Francisco made as she and her rubber boots mounted to the platform in the Y. M. C. A. tent last Monday night. Miss Geary, Miss Denny, and Mr. McAuley, all from the Golden State, are making a tour of the camps in the Spruce Division, giving entertainments for the soldiers. They have covered practically all the state of Washington in the last couple of weeks, and this time almost like a dream that we should have such good fortune, finally landed on our little island.

Miss Geary, accompanied by Miss Denny, sang us some genuine snappy songs in a genuine snappy way, and the boys who were present at the entertainment forgot for once that they were Spruce Hounds and imagined they were in dreamland or some other really nice place of which they did not know the name. It might be expected that Miss Geary was disappointed in the bunch when she tried to get them to sing and show a little life, as she did not have much success in the undertaking, and had to do most of the singing herself; but she did not show any disappointment, and seemed to be in as good a humor when she left us as she was upon her arrival.

However, the boys have a very legitimate excuse for keeping their mouths shut and their eyes open because they are very much unaccustomed to having a lady lead them in singing, and besides this lot of us Sprucers are bashful.

After the ladies were tired out, Mr. McAuley gave us a little talk (which could easily have been made longer without getting monotonous). He seemed to think, however, that he was to be allowed only a limited time, and that mainly for the purpose of giving Miss Geary a chance to recover her wind. She evidently did recover it, too, for she came back the second time with more life and pep than ever.

The program of the evening ended with a movie "Seven Keys to Baldpate," which in the unanimous opinion of all present, is the best picture yet put on here. Considering this from a psychological standpoint, however, the first part of the program might have had considerable to do with their opinion of the movie.

Pvt. Bourne and Pvt. Piper of the 101st both say they liked the program at the Y. last Monday "just rate." Ask them why?

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln County
Caroline Carey, Plaintiff vs.
Walter Cramer and Nellie Cramer, his wife, Defendants.

To Walter Cramer and Nellie Cramer, and to each of you the above named defendants:

In The Name Of The State Of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 31st day of January, 1919, that being the last day for the appearance and answer by you fixed by the order of the County Judge for Lincoln County, state of Oregon, for the publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear or answer the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint herein, to-wit:

That the plaintiff have judgement against the said defendants, Walter Cramer and Nellie Cramer, and each of them, in the sum of Six Hundred seventy five dollars, with interest upon said sum at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the 24th day of July, 1917 until paid and for the further sum of Seventy five dollars special attorney's fees and for her costs and disbursements of this suit;

And that a judgement may be given and a decree had against all of the defendants for the sale of the said premises by the sheriff of said county according to the law and practice of this court; that the proceeds of said sale may be applied to the payment of the amount due the plaintiff and that said defendants and all persons claiming under them subsequent to the execution of said mortgage upon said premises, either as purchasers, incumbrancers, or judgment creditors, or otherwise, may be barred and foreclosed of all rights, claim, or equity of redemption in said premises and every part thereof, and that the said plaintiff may have judgement against the defendants, Walter Cramer and Nellie Cramer for any deficiency which may remain after applying all the proceeds of the sale of said premises properly applicable to the satisfaction of said judgment;

That the plaintiff or any other party to the suit may become a purchaser at said sale; that the purchaser may be let into possession of the premises; and that the plaintiff may have such other and further relief in the premises as to this court may seem meet and equitable.

This summons is published in the Lincoln County Leader, a weekly newspaper of general circulation published in Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, by an order of the Hon. R. R. Miller, County Judge for Lincoln County, State of Oregon, which order was made and entered of record on the 15th day of December, 1918, and the defendants being required to answer on or before the 31st day of January, being the last day of publication.

Andy used to buy the biggest plug for the money

"till one day Barney gave him a chew of Real Gravely."

It was an hour or more before Andy said anything. "How much longer does this Gravely hold its good taste?" he says. "Two or three little squares last me all morning," answers Barney. "This class of tobacco lasts so much longer it costs no more to chew it than ordinary plug costs."

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.
