WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO
Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong And Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood, healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—such as backache, nervousness, not dry skin, rheumatic pain, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, crampiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right the danger is overcome. Doan's Kidney Pills have proven an effective kidney medicine.

J. W. Ingle, retired merchant, 125 N. Fourth St., Corvallis, Or. says: "I was troubled about four years ago by pain in my left side and though I tried many different medicines, it clung to me persistently. I think it was due to my kidneys, for there was trouble with the secretions. They were generally filled with sediment and painful in passage. Nothing helped me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They were just what I required and in less than a month I was relieved of the trouble. I can now lift or stoop without any of the old results following, something I could not do before." (Statement given September 9, 1907.)

On April 5, 1916 Mr. Ingle said: "I am just as strong for Doan's Kidney Pills today as I was nine years ago when I have my first recommendation. I have never had them fall to do me good when I have had occasion to take them."

STOLEN FROM THE PEAVEY

Following are some items taken from the Soldiers' paper, The Peavey.

TO LATE FOR "HERPICIDE"

Words by A. Sap. Music by S. Hound.

'Tis four years now
Since the big "row"

Across the waters started;
We waited long

The sound of gong
Which the bold warriors parted;

And then one day
(The papers say),

The Germans signed the armistice;
Too late, my love,

Came the peace dove;
Too late—the S. P. D's got us.

'Twas but last May
We felt so gay

As we all joined the Army.
They took away

Our clothing gay
And put us into khaki;

Gone is the year;
Discharge is near;

We've never seen our O. D's.
Perhaps they'll bring

O. D's, next spring;
Too late—we'll never need them!

All winter long
We've heard a song

Entitled "THERE'S NO WOOD";
When wood was scarce

We burned our stairs,
Or anything else we could.

Now comes the word
That someone's heard

Free fuel's to be given;
We only smile

And think that while
Too late—we're glad we're livin'.

As mess call blew
Down in the "grog"

A poor sprucehound stumbled;
And as he stirred,

I barely heard
These words he softly mumbled:

"Oh, 'tis no use—
Though Warren Spruce

For grub con sure be beaten—
I would have ate,

But now I'm late;
Too late—the stew is eaten!"

The truth, I vow,
'Tis eight months now

Since I took out allotment;
Which, up to date,

I beg to state
Has cost me many a hot cent;

Back home, they say
They got the pay

In full for all months, seven;
But on my life

Twon't help my wife;
Too late—for she's in Heaven!

Full many a day
For next Sunday

We planned a vacation;
And weeks ago,

(We know they're slow)
Put in our application:

The train's at hand,
In all the land

No soldier more downhearted;
We have no pass,

And now—alas!
Too late—the train has started.

The "girlie" dear,
Who shed a tear

When we left home, (dear kitten!)
And many a line

Of "Daddy, mine"
To us these months has written.

We are afraid,
(Although we've prayed),

Has given us the "mitten";
Has married Jack

Who stayed to "slack";
Too late—we're glad he's bitten!

Some month or two
We've waded through

The ooze some three feet deep.
That, on our street

Defiles the feet
And dirties clothes a heap.

But now we find
That Fortune, kind

The "OREGON" did steer;
She's pumping sand

Upon the land;
Too late—the troop train's here.

Some day we'll die,
(Both you and I),

And onward on the ferry
Across the Styx

(To Heaven?—Nix!)
Go onward on our journey.

Down to the pit
Where devils sit

In all satanic glory;
And, when the ask

Our earthly task,
We'll tell them this sad story.

"Of all mankind,
We sprucehounds find,

We've been too late for ever;
Since we were born

It's been our thorn
To come too late, or never.

Now, here we are,
Our evil star

Has brought us to this oven.
Only to find

Dear devils, kind,
We've been too late for Heaven!

THERE ARE OTHERS

In one of the big base-hospitals of the army not long ago a new librarian was set to work by the American Library Association. She was a charming young woman, and very anxious to please all of her "customers," the some of them didn't even wish to look at a book. In her rounds she approached one of the patients and he declined to be interested in her wares. At the next cot she stopped and offered its occupant a book.

"What's it about?" the patient asked.

"Oh, this is 'Bambi,'" said the librarian. "It's about a girl who married a man without his having anything to say about it."

"Hold on there," shouted the man who had declined all books. He raised himself up on his elbow and reached out his hand. "Give me that book. It's my autobiography."—Topeka State Journal.
