SILETZ HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The sun is shining again and the pupils all feel like studying.

Last Friday afternoon an interesting ball game was played between two teams chosen from the high school and grade school. The score was nine to nine. Also tennis was played. According to the games played Thelma Niemi and Helen King are the champion tennis players and Alma Ojala and Margaret Miller are the second best players.

Last Wednesday some of the students were absent from school, and the remaining students and teacher, Miss Farnham, went to the woods in the afternoon to study their lessons.

A business meeting was held in the school room Monday morning. Claud Calvert was elected Class Historian; Alma Ojala, Class Will; Thelma Niemi, Class Prophetess and Gail Slocum, Class Poet.

Ex-Sergeant or ex-Acting Lieut. Lester Wiswell visited the high school Monday, and we were all very glad to see him again.

Two new pupils have entered our high school. They are Miss S. Niemi and Mr. B. Barzee. They were fortunate in passing thru the eighth grade.
