No one in Toledo who suffers backache, headaches, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Corvallis man's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no resident of this locality can doubt.

Riley I. Rugg, retired farmer, 404 S. Fourth St., Corvallis, Or., says: "I would have to get up perhaps a dozen times a night, so badly was I bothered by kidney trouble. When I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, I could soon see they were acting with good effect, for my kidneys began acting regularly and I could get a good night's rest. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills made a marked improvement in my condition; all symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble disappeared." (Statement given April 2, 1913.)

On April 5, 1916, Mr. Rugg said: "What I have said in my former statement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. I take them when I feel in need of a kidney medicine and they always do me good."
