KEEP BEES!

If you own an orchard you must have bees as they are the only dependable pollenizing agents.

You can keep bees anywhere that they can forage within a mile—they require but little attention and will often render you a splendid profit. We can start you right and save you unnecessary work and expense.

Our Bee Supply Catalog lists everything necessary for the successful production of honey; tells how to care for and handle bees.

Pledged to continue the efficient and businesslike administration of the Secretary of State's office, Sam A. Kozar, now Deputy Secretary of State and Republican candidate for Secretary of State, should have the support of every voter who desires efficient public service economically administered.

(Paid Adv.)

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Davis will be grieved to learn of the loss of their little girl, Bessie, age 7 years, who died at Mound City, S. Dakota, on May 8th, of measles. They were formerly of Lincoln county where Mr. Davis was school supervisor and taught school at Waldport and Chittenden.

In seeking the office of Secretary of State, Sam A. Kozar has two outstanding to the voters. In the first place, he is long qualifications which commend him qualified by experience for the position, having served for more than eight years as Deputy Secretary of State. Secondly, (Mr. Kozar is not a politician. He is thoroughly competent to give the strict business administration of the office of Secretary of State that is demanded by the people of the state.

(Paid Adv.)

With the country now in the midst of the reconstruction era his valuable experience, executive ability, and broad vision are needed more than ever before, to solve the grave problems continually arising, and the welfare of the state demands his reelection.

Fred G. Buchtel is deserving of reelection, for his administration has been honest, efficient and economical.

Among the big achievements of his administration are: The Pacific Tel. and Tel. Company case, which resulted not only in a general reduction of telephone rates and the elimination of long charged over numbers to the short distance routes, but a refund of approximately $150,000 to patrons of the company; adjustment of apple rates which netted a saving of a quarter of a million dollars to the fruit growers and the reduction of rates on road building materials saved more than $100,000 to the State.

What does he think of the farmer? Was he ever a farmer himself? Does he care more for free seeds for city folks than for county agents for farm folks? Is he for the farmers, now that he's elected, or has he forgotten them?

The COUNTRY

has been hunting up the farmers in Congress—and, let me tell you, it's like hunting for a needle in a haystack. At any rate, it is finding out who are the farmers' friends, and that's something to know.

In the issue of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN that will be out next week there's a big article called "How Congressmen Vote." I wish you'd read it—it is an eye-opener. There's an election coming, and the farmers should know who are their friends in Washington. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN will keep you posted if you read it every week and follow its Washington dispatches. . . . Best way to get them is by subscribing. Comes right to your mail box 52 times a year—a great, big farm weekly, full of fine, friendly articles.
