Will He Get There? Perhaps, He's in no worse fix than the U. S. Department of Agriculture at this very moment—faced with the biggest program of its history and an appropriation chopped millions short. Will the Department Survive? asks J. Clyde Marquis, in an early issue of The Country Gentleman. Every farmer needs to know the answer. In his article Mr. Marquis presents truly enlightening conclusions based on months of study of the national agricultural crisis. He shows, for example, the effect of reducing the appropriation for Farm Management and Cost of Production Work from $280,000 to $50,000, of 12,613 restitutions within the department in one year. Such a drastic influence the health of your crops, the efficiency of your dairy, the market for your grain. You need to know about them. And you'll profit by knowing all the other vital farm facts and money-making ideas which fill each of the 52 big issues of this great weekly journal. It overlooks no aspect of your farm business or of the farm home. Let me start your year of Country Gentleman service with this splendid but typical issue. You Send Me $1.00—I'll Send You 52 Issues.
