TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17th, 1920.

NUMBER 43

SILETZ

The oldest inhabitant can't account for this long spell of rainy weather. The old Indian doctors and prophets don't understand it. It has been raining for about four months. Some of the wise ones say this is a sign of an open winter and an early spring. If it is true we are alright. It was so-m-e storm. The wind blew at the rate of about seventy miles an hour playing havoc with the telephone wires and old buildings. The rain came down in torrents with an occasional heavy clap of thunder that rumbled and reverberated around the hills sounding much like the big guns of Germany during the war. The animals and birds—wild and tame—rushed to the timber for protection. This is the instinct of nature. This was the night the Siletz Valley Grange had set to have their big basket social—some of the more courageous of the Grangers came out, especially the women. It was a question to go ahead with the social or put it off until some future time. W. S. Hall arose, called the house to order and put the question by a rising vote. It was unanimous to go on and have the social there and then. What was lacking in numbers at that meeting was made up in quality. Mrs. Esther Anderson acted as master of ceremonies and had charge of the program which follows: Instrumental music, Mrs. Collins; recitation, Carol Calkins; dialogue, three High School girls; songs, Miss Isabell Larsen; recitation, Emerson Collins; Emerson was dressed up in the costume of the great chief, Massasoit, representing the Pilgrim fathers holding their first Thanksgiving dinner after landing at Plymouth Rock; dialogue, Prof. Easy and others; song, Jess Daniels (those who have heard Mr. Daniels sing want to hear him again); duet, Mary Alice Bessell and Miss Teat. This number closed the program. The same closed the sale of the baskets. W. S. Hall acted as auctioneer. He filled the bill to a T. The bidding was lively. The baskets were filled to the brim with good eats. Each basket contained enough grub for three or four persons. Ice cream and hot coffee were also served. Fourteen baskets were sold bringing the neat sum of $22.50, besides the cream. Then came the games and other sports that were kept up till a late hour. The wind kept blowing and the rain pattering on the roof made it appear a little lonesome but every one seemed to believe in the old proverb "Eat and be merry for tomorrow you may die." Each one yied with the other in trying to make things pleasant. No one had a grouch or complaint, if they had they kept it to himself.

Edgar Parmele has milked his 26 cows all summer with a Hinman Milk-er and is still milking them, the cows will give more milk and longer than milked by hand. The machine will pay for itself in one season, he said. The teachers are nearly all hiking off to Toledo this week. Now that it's winter and we like breakfast food; take some clean wheat, put it in a bread pan and bake it until it quits steaming, then the starch is cooked and is easily digested—take some of the cooked wheat and grind it in a coffee mill or some other mill and make some mush. It is easily digested and my, it's fine eaten with cream.

HARLAN

More Rain?—I'D SAY SO! Ivan Crawford was down to the store for a load of supplies to start batching in his brand new house—all he lacks now is the cook. Miss Francis Waylett of Salado, Leigh Lang of Portland, G. W. Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Grant and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Norwood and family, were dinner guests of R. E. Grants Sunday. I. R. Payne was grinding grain for I. Jones, Sam Grant and Leo Howard Sunday. I. R. says the Galloway engine is "jake." Lots of legs going down big Elk these days—fortune has surely smiled on the loggers this year—also Guy Roberts of Toledo as he has a lot of money invested up here and no doubt is glad to see returns coming in. G. O. Adams returned to his work in Portland after visiting with his family several days. Mrs. H. W. Allison visited her daughter, Mrs. Huston Grant last week end. Mrs. B. F. Grant is expected home any day now. W. W. January of Corvallis was looking around the old ranch on Big Elk recently. I. R. Payne and Frank Grant were repairing some bad mud holes on Upper Big Elk so Uncle Sam wont hang up on the road some of these fine(?) nights. We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Sam Grant was very sick last Wednesday night. She is reported better now. It was quite a shock to all to hear of W. E. Simpson's death. In fact it seems hardly true. He is mourned by all in this community—and we all feel we have lost a fine sheriff and most of all a good, true friend. It is to be hoped the Court will appoint Mrs. Simpson sheriff. It seems the right thing to do. Surely we owe that tribute to him.

Therefore be it resolved by this Pomona Grange in regular session at Elk City this 15th day of December, 1920, that our deepest sympathy be extended to the bereaved family; that our charter be draped in mourning; and that a copy of this resolution be spread on our minutes and a copy given the State Grange Bulletin and the Lincoln County Leader. (Signed.) J. E. Cooter, Conrad Christiansen, S. W. Scoville, Committee.

PREMIUM CHECKS BEING MAILED OUT

E. S. Lister was down from Nashville recently finishing up the details of the County Fair. The premium lists were figured out and checks are being mailed out from the Secretary's office this week to pay same. They will come in handy for Christmas. The Fair Board announces that in spite of the bad weather during the fair, that they will just about break even as regards finances.

LADIES' ENTERTAINING CARDS

The ladies of the Whist Club entertained their husbands and a few invited guests with a whist party at the I. O. O. F. Hall last Saturday evening. About forty persons were present, and enjoyed a social evening. N. H. Sherwood and Mrs. Ira Wade won the first prizes and R. A. Arnold and Mrs. L. M. Starr were winners of the booby prizes.

SILETZ SCHOOL

School work closes on Friday, instead of on the following Wednesday, Dec. 22nd, as formerly planned. This change was deemed advisable owing to the shortage of attendance on account of illness. The epidemic of measles however, seems to be subsiding for attendance is now slightly increased and it is expected that the percentage should be well up to normal again after the holiday vacation. Owing to this interruption of attendance, the original plans for Christmas celebration have to be very much changed, but all are looking forward to the general assembly and special exercises on Friday. A Christmas tree and part of the decorations have already arrived.

YOUNG MEN! PARENTS!

Those of you who still retain the spirit of youth. Here is a magazine for which you have been waiting a long while! A happy combination of clean, stirring fiction and exceedingly helpful, straight-from-the-shoulder articles by men of broad experience and exceptional ability. Some recent contributors: Herbert Hoover, Donald MacMillan, Fred Stone, Charles Boardman Hawes, and Holman Day. Calvin Coolidge, the law and order Governor of Massachusetts, in a letter to us says in part, "The Open Road is clean, animated, and of genuine inspiration for courageous living. It seeks to convey a sense of the nobility of honest effort and the joy of achievement without pedantry." In these days of high prices it is difficult to get your "money's worth." The Open Road gives you not only a full measure but throws in a few extras for good will. There is action on every page, with a liberal number of photographs and illustrative drawings by able artists. There is plenty of humor, too; you will enjoy a series of "story cartoons" now running. The Vocational Department is performing a valuable service all over the country to young men who are in doubt as to what to make their life work. Find out about it! Three dollars for a year of pleasure and profit in monthly installments. Your subscription will be accepted at the office of this paper and forwarded to The Open Road, 248 Boylston Street, Boston 17, Massachusetts.

INDIAN OPERETTA DRAWS FULL HOUSE

The Indian Operetta, "The Feast of the Red Corn," staged by the girls of the Toledo high school at the Movies Wednesday evening drew a capacity house. The stage was beautifully decorated with evergreens, and the twenty girls who took part made a most attractive picture in the dark green setting. As an entertainment it was something unusual, nothing of the kind ever having been attempted here before. Mrs. Barber and Mrs. Carson had charge of the training of the performers, and it was carried thru to completion without a hitch.

MORE JOB HUNTERS THAN THERE ARE JOBS

The Portland papers are carrying notices warning would be job seekers not to come there as there are thousands in the city now out of work. During the war a great many people rushed to the city to get in on the big wages. Now times have changed and the back to the farm movement will soon be on in earnest.

GOVERNMENT TO TAKE OVER JETTY WORK

Col. Cavanaugh and Major Polhemus were down from Portland this week to meet with the joint ports of Toledo and Newport at Newport Wednesday evening with regard to the government taking over the jetty work at the mouth of the Yaquina. The Ports have everything in shape to turn over and the government will probably take charge by the first of the year. They expect to commence work at once on the north jetty. The south jetty will probably be completed during the coming summer. During the big storm of last week twenty-five bents of trestle were washed out at the outer end of the south jetty.

RIFLE BY DEAD MAN

Salem, Ore., Dec. 4.—Within a period of six months, three deaths have occurred in a home near Eola, three miles west of Salem. George A. Mitty, a farmer, was found dead on the floor, Friday with a rifle beside him and a bullet wound in his head. It is believed the man committed suicide after brooding over the death of his parents. Mitty's mother died June 9, and his father, August 20. Mr. Mitty was quite well known here at Toledo, having homesteaded in this county, and also spent a year in town.

NEARSIGHTEDNESS

Nearsightedness (Myopia) is a defect in vision where the eyeball is elongated. There is good near vision, but distant vision is defective, although in this defect as in most defects of vision the person does not fully realize that they do not see as well as others. Efforts at accommodation do not help the vision in Myopia as in Hypermetropia (Farsightedness) and Astigmatism so that Eyestrain and its effects are not common in Myopia as in other defects of vision. Tests for determining the presence of eye defects will be furnished by Dr. Minthorn, Newport, Oregon, by sending address. Adv.
