

Lincoln County Leader.

VOLUME 28

TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 7th, 1921.

NUMBER 45

SILETZ

The holidays are past and the people will take up their work where they left off a week ago...

The Siletz river is up but not out of its banks. This is due to the lack of snow in the mountains...

WALDPORT

The ringing of bells and usual ceremonies announced the arrival of the newly born 1921...

On the night of the 31st the local basketball team met the Albany high school team...

School opened again Monday excepting the high school, the teacher did not return so we are without any high school at present...

January third was one of the worst days ever seen here. There was a high wind all day blowing down many trees...

HARLAN

Everyone is sympathizing with N. L. Grant and wife in the loss of their infant daughter, Maggie May...

Mrs. B. F. Grant is improving now we are delighted to say.

Charles Godney of Newport attended the funeral of N. L. Grant's daughter, Miss Dorothy Owenby...

More high water and everybody is driving logs as a result.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Grant and daughter, N. W. Grant and family, Roy Moore, Mrs. Moore and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler spent New Year's day with A. B. Moore and wife...

L. W. Lang, Dorothy Owenby and G. W. Calkins spent Sunday with Miss Francis Waylett of Salado.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Grant were Toledo visitors last week.

G. W. Calkins has just returned from a weeks stay in Portland.

Mrs. May C. Grant has been laid up the past week owing to a bad fall on horseback.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allison entertained a number of friends and relatives for dinner New Year's day.

W. W. Grant and wife were in Toledo last Monday. Mr. Grant went down to prove up on his homestead.

Miss Dorothy Owenby, Leigh Lang, Gerald Calkins, also visited Toledo last Monday.

SILETZ SCHOOLS

Several of the teachers arrived late Monday evening, returning from vacations spent in the Willamette Valley. Two of them, at least, were as far as Portland where they attended the State Teachers' Association, last week.

On Tuesday morning school opened again but with somewhat less than average attendance owing to the very severe rain and wind storm. Thru the day the buildings were rocked and the south end of the gymnasium nearly became a victim of the high wind velocity.

SOUTH BEACH

The hard wind and rain is doing considerable damage in the way of up setting out buildings and flooding the garden spots.

Our school teacher, went to Portland as Miss Haley and returned on New Year's Day as Mrs. F. L. Moore while Frank went away on Friday a batch and returned a benedict.

The High School basketball team is planning to play a game with the team of the Newport High School on Friday evening and all are looking forward with considerable interest to this game.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will make their home in Florida.

A POINT OVERLOOKED

BIG TIMBER TRACT SOLD

Negotiations have been closed whereby the Pacific Spruce company takes over a lumber mill site and buildings at Toledo, 24 miles of railroad and 12,500 acres of timber land...

The mill which was 90 per cent completed when operations were discontinued is located on the headwaters of Yaquina bay...

Fentris Hill of San Francisco, and his associates are incorporators of the Pacific Spruce company and they announced that they plan to begin logging and mill operations early in the spring.

WIND AND RAIN STORMS BREAK ALL RECORDS

The wind and rain storms of the past few months have broken all records according to old residents of this section. They say that they have seen just as hard storms but for duration of time the present spell of weather takes the prize...

LEGION PLANNING CALICO DANCE FOR JAN. 22

The entertainment committee of the local Legion Post is making preparations for a "Calico" dance to be given the night of January 22nd, 1921.

ROGERS-HARDING

The wedding of Charles Rogers and Miss Clara Harding was solemnized at Orlando, Florida, on Sunday, December 19th, 1920.

Mr. Rogers is a resident of Orlando, Florida, and the wedding is the culmination of a romance which began two years ago when Mr. Rogers was stationed here at Toledo as a soldier in the Spruce Division.

Mrs. Harding, known by all her friends as "Teenie," is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harding of this city, and was a very popular young lady.

NELS W. MILLER, JR., SCALDED TO DEATH

The little two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Nels W. Miller of Pioneer died Wednesday of burns received Sunday when it pulled a boiler of hot water over on itself.

It seems, as near as we can learn, that Mrs. Miller carried a boiler containing some hot water out and set it on the porch. She then placed tubes in front of it to keep the baby from getting at it and went across the porch to a faucet for some cold water.

J. D. MICKLE TO TALK TO LOCAL DAIRYMEN

J. D. Mickle, ex-food and dairy commissioner, will be in Toledo Monday, January 10th, and will address the dairy farmers on the vital questions of the industry.

As the stock holders of the local creamery meet at 10:30 it has been decided to serve a free lunch at noon so that all may be present during the afternoon.

Mr. Mickle will address the Siletz dairymen at Siletz in the evening.

WHAT NEXT

A carload of cedar poles was received here the first of the week by the Pacific Telephone Co. for use on their lines here.

TOLEDO HIGH SCHOOL

A 1920 High School romance ended Tuesday when Thomas Harding and Jessie Taylor were united in marriage.

Among the many New Year's resolutions that were made in T. H. S., the one concerning punctuality to classes seems the hardest to observe.

Santa Claus was very kind to the H. S. pupils, Xmas, sending our needs he presented us with a pretty framed mirror that now hangs in the main hall to advantage of those who wish to adjust pompadours, fix stray locks and powder noses.

FROM PORTLAND JOURNAL

W. W. Patterson, well known timberman of Toledo and president of the Chamber of Commerce, is in Portland as a delegate to the State Chamber of Commerce.

BUYS BLOODED CATTLE

Fred Romtvedt this week received a fine registered Geurnsey bull and heifer from the famous Looney herd at Jefferson.

TREES ACROSS ROAD

The high wind of Tuesday blew several trees across the Siletz road, and the heavy rain washed in several slides, which made it very hard for Graham's stage to get thru with the mail.

WIND DESTROYS VALUABLE PROPERTY

We are informed that the high wind of Tuesday blew over Maurice Andersen's hen house, at Siletz, breaking six eggs.

JONES-BALL

Mr. Vernon B. Jones of Newport and Miss Esley J. Ball of this city were united in marriage Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ball, the Rev. H. E. Bush officiating.

The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jones of Newport and has lived in this county nearly all his life. He is an industrious young man and at present is employed as engineer on a tug boat at Portland.
