SILETZ

J. D. Mickle, ex-food and dairy commissioner, accompanied by Con Christiansen, a live dairyman of Depoe Slough, visited Siletz Monday coming from Toledo afoot. The ground was frozen and these gentlemen enjoyed the trip very much. At the King a good warm supper was awaiting them. The walk of mine miles gave them a keen appetite and of course they enjoyed their supper very much. meeting was hastily gotten up at the Grange hall to commence at 8 p. m. Grange hall to commence at 8 p. m. Some fifteen or twenty of the prom-inent dairymen met and Mr. Mickle addressed them on the subject of much importance "The Oregon Dairy-men's Co-Operative League." The speaker showed in a very conclusive way the importance of organization and showed very plainly that the League with its strong articles of instion that could be produced to proization that could be produced to pro-tect the dairymen in their rights and to assure them of the best market for their products. The farmer in the past has been imposed upon. He past has been imposed upon. He never could control the sale of his own products. The merchant and the mid-disman set the price on their own goods as well as on the product of the farm and the farmer could not help himself. Mr. Mickle showed how the bimself. Mr. Mickle showed how the terms would do away with this kind the profits to the producer. The clear logical way in which the speaker ex-plained the working of the League for the benefit of the farmer made a deep impression on the minds of his audiession on the minds of his audi-the whistle blew. RALPH PEPIN LOSES PILE DRIVER

The gas schooner L. E. Smith sailed from Siletz bay recently, with a big scow in tow, the scow being loaded with lumber and a pile driver rig belonging to Ralph Pepin. Soon after leaving the bay a storm sprang up. The schooner bucked the storm until it ran out of gasoline and was forced to abandon the scow and run for port. The boat got into Tillamook harbor safely, but the scow, lumper, and t driver was lost, going ashore on the
