The Big Country Merchant

It is service to the rural community that makes the big country merchant big. That's what A. B. Macdonald discovered when he began writing the stories of their success for

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

He found that the rural merchant prospers as he helps his neighborhood and county to prosper; that his custom will grow as his ability to render prompt, efficient, thorough and fairly-priced service increases.

In next week's issue Mr. Macdonald tells of a small-town hardware store that has, by honest dealing and constant endeavor to serve, established itself in a wide and secure trade.
Clarence Eudington Holland, in the same issue, tells of a village general store that weathered mail-order and chain-store competition by making itself a vital factor in the lives of its patrons.

For every farm-community problem THE COUNTRY GEN-TLEMAN offers week by week guidance—pointing the practices that pull counties, as well as individuals, "out of the rut." This is just one aspect of a service as broad as our whole farm industry. To enjoy it for a whole year just send me, today, $1. for the next 52 issues of this big, practically helpful weekly.

It saves you time, worry and money
