NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lincoln County

A. W. Morgan, Plaintiff, vs.

W. L. Edwards, et al. Defendants.

By virtue of an execution, judgment order, decree and order of sale issued out of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause to me directed and dated the 31st day of March, 1921, in favor of A. W. Morgan, plaintiff, and against W. L. Edwards, David P. Strang, and Hettie F. Strang, husband and wife, defendants, wherein it was decreed by said court that A. W. Morgan has a good, valid and subsisting lien upon the certain piece or parcel of real property, a description of which appears in said decree, and which is hereinafter in this notice described, in the principal sum of Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars, with interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the 8th day of November, 1915, and the further sum of $50.00 attorneys fees and the plaintiff's costs and disbursements in this suit taxed at $100.00; and further decreeing that said mortgaged premises be sold by me in the manner provided by law for the satisfaction of said lien, together with costs of and upon this writ, which said real property so to be sold by me is described, as follows:

The southwest quarter of the northwest quarter (SW¼ NW¼), except a right of way for road twenty (20) feet in width, running in a north and south direction across said land, deeded to Andrew Smith by A. W. and Lovicia Morgan, and the west one-half of the west one-half (W½ W½) of the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter (SE¼ NW¼) of section twenty-eight (28) in township ten (10) south, range eleven (11) west of the Willamette Meridian;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the said execution, judgment order, decree and order of sale, and in compliance with the demands of said writ, I will on the 30th day of April, 1921, at ten o'clock A. M. at the door of the court house in Lincoln County, Oregon, sell at public auction subject to redemption to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the above named defendant W. L. Edwards had on the 8th day of November, 1915, the date of the execution of the mortgage hereinbefore described, or since that date, had in and to the above described property or any part thereof to satisfy said execution, judgment order and decree, interest, costs and accruing costs.

Dated March 31st, 1921.

M. Simpson, Sheriff of Lincoln County, Oregon.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS

The annual institute for the teachers of Lincoln County will be held in the high school building at Newport, April 20, 21, and 22. A good program is being prepared and as there are more teachers now teaching in the county than ever before at one time, it is expected that a larger number will be in attendance than at former institutes.

Jimmy Ross arrived over from his studies at Eugene Saturday evening for a visit with the home folks over the Easter vacation.

C. W. Myers was a passenger for Portland last Friday returning Tuesday evening. On the return he was accompanied by his wife and family who have been visiting with Mrs. Meyers' parents at Medford for the past several weeks.

Miss Katie Waugh arrived over from Monmouth Friday evening to spend the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Waugh.

Miss Katie was accompanied by a friend, Miss Edith Scott, the two returned to their studies Tuesday.

Miss Anna Collins arrived down from Portland Saturday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Earl Marker and other relatives here. She went out to Corvallis Wednesday where she will visit with her parents for a few days before returning to her work in the city.

Peter Berg went out to the Albany Hospital Sunday to obtain treatment for stomach trouble. An x-ray indicated that he was suffering from a cancer of the stomach. The doctors gave him no hopes, for recovery. He arrived home Tuesday and has been steadily gaining since his return, being able to sit up and take a little nourishment. His many friends here are hoping that the doctor may be mistaken in his diagnosis.

M. E. CHURCH

The Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Strattan, who lives in the south part of town near the Advent Church, Tuesday, April 12th. Everybody is invited to be present. The Society has a very large attendance and the ladies are very active in their work.

Services next Sunday at eleven o'clock and evening services at eight o'clock. The monthly report of the Church will be read Sunday Morning. Come and hear it. You will be surprised.

A surprise house warming was given at the Ellsworth home Tuesday evening. I don't know how many were there, but there was a house full and everyone had a good time.

Before the sun rose Easter morning, above the hill tops the church bell rang out loud and clear to let us know that Christ arose. A large number of people were present at the sunrise prayer meeting, and the Easter Story seemed more interesting than ever before. As the sun, in all its splendor rose above the tree tops the happy gathering broke up, and the people wended their way homeward.

Epworth League Sunday evening at seven o'clock. Mrs. Hart will be the leader. The Epworth League is for the young people. Come out and the meeting is yours.

Sunday school next Sunday at ten o'clock.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO

Items of interest taken from the files of the Leader of April 1st, 1910.

There is no question but that the new boat, now running between Toledo and Portland, will mean the saving of hundreds of dollars each year to the people of Lincoln County. The freight rates will be greatly reduced, and it will now be possible for the farmers to produce potatoes and other farm produce and ship to market.

W. O. Davis the shoe and harness repair man sold his business to J. O. Smith the tanner. Mr. Davis went to Portland yesterday morning.

The Fir and Spruce Company has begun the construction of their wharf out to deep water at the sawmill. This work was started two years ago, the piling driven, then the work stopped.

I. B. McJunkin returned home Monday evening from a several months' visit at points in Oklahoma, Texas and Mexico. Mr. McJunkin reports things in a flourishing condition back there, but Oregon is good enough for him.

While enroute east he was in the great Par Car Bend wreck in Arizona, when the car he was riding in was thrown forty feet from the track. He escaped without a scratch.

Harry Lutney and children returned Monday evening from Melomora, Michigan, where they have been the past winter.

The Fir and Spruce Company have been taking the big donkey engine out to the Depot along camp this week. They are going around the country road, and it is a big job to move such a heavy engine over the dry road.

Little Elk—Our spelling school has become quite interesting and is drawing good crowds. We did not know we had so many good spellers in this vicinity. Roger and Lois Loudon being the best spellers so far.

Train was forty minutes early Saturday to accommodate Manager Stone and President Weatherford who were aboard. These gentlemen spent Sunday on the beach at Newport, by the sounding sea.

The Toledo Saw Mill will begin sawing next Monday, and will stock the yard for the Spring trade.

J. H. McNeil and family will depart early next week for Granger, in the Buffalo Hump region, where Mr. McNeil has a position offered him at $75 per month.

Mrs. Randall arrived from Oregon City last evening. Her family is here, camped near the Dundon bridge. They are reported as having leased the Gillette place east of Cape Foul weather. Newport will now have a new and accomplished family in their midst.

And get more genuine chewing satisfaction, when you use this class of tobacco.

This is because the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often.

And a small chew gives more real satisfaction than a big chew of the ordinary kind ever did.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
