Oregon Glow Jerseys at Auction Alsea, Oregon, Friday, May 27, 1921

25 head, 22 females, three bulls, rich in the blood of Vive La France, Golden Glow's Chief, Hood Farm Torono, Hood Farm Pogle, Golden Cicero, Adalade of Beechlands and other noted cows and bulls.

THE OREGON GLOW HERD

contains much of the blood of the "Marvel Cow," Vive La France and her illustrious sire, Golden Glow's Chief, whose four best daughters average 910 pounds fat each in one year.

There is also a rich infusion of the famous "Sophie Tormentor" family, from whence came the world renowned animals of the Hood Farm, Lowell, Massachusetts.

This sale includes the entire herd. The cows are profitable producers, a number of the young stock were sired by Vive Glow's Tormentor, he a grandson of the following four noted animals: Golden Glow's Chief, Vive La France, Adalade's Sultans, and Merry Miss Onette. Others sired by Chief Golden Glow of Ashford (100 per cent the common blood with Old Man's Darling 2d), he sired by Golden Glow's Chief and his dam is Chief's Evening Glow, a daughter of Golden Glow's Chief. The offering includes cows in milk, heifers, and young animals, both sexes. Catalog giving complete information will be published. Send name to owner or sale manager and one will be forwarded.

OTHER ARTICLES—I will also sell a number of high grade cows, some farm implements, household goods, etc.

SALE STARTS AT 11 O'CLOCK A. M.

TERMS—Time can be arranged with the Alsea State Bank, by responsible parties.

FREE LUNCH AT NOON

This is the first auction sale of purebred cattle in Alsea Country. We have always put the choicest of our time, energy and efforts into our herd and our community, and in the parting of our herd, we shall be gratified with the presence of those who have that sense of satisfaction, which flows only from honest hearts.
