GOOD LOGIC

A man the other day denied that John Bunyan was the author of "The Pilgrim's Progress." Being vehemently contradicted, he thus replied:

"No, I question even if he contributed to the work, for it is impossible that a bunion could contribute to any pilgrim's progress."

Dr. Kellogg, the Eye Specialist, will be in Elk City one day, Saturday, August, 20th.

(19)—FOR SALE—240 ACRES the best of river bottom soil, about 50 acres in crops, small box house and fine large barn, 60 ft., well fenced. Also 45 head best Durham cattle, all kinds of farm and hay tools. Price reasonable—come and see. Six miles below Agency. C. F. Anderson.

DADDY OF TRAINS STEAMS FOR ANOTHER RUN

In August, 1831, the DeWitt Clinton, first train of the Mohawk & Hudson Railroad, now of the New York Central lines, made its first trip from Albany to Schenectady. Times changed as man advanced and the little DeWitt Clinton gave way to its bigger and better fellows, the Pacific type locomotive which now hurls the Twentieth Century across country at 70 miles an hour.

All this time the little train has been kept intact and used as an exhibit. This month it comes to life again and will make the trip from New York to Chicago under its own power, where it will be on exhibit in the Pageant of Progress, to be held there the latter part of this month. The picture shows the DeWitt Clinton and Twentieth Century in New York terminals.
