A PAID CHECK IS THE BEST RECEIPT

You often pay bills to parties whose integrity you would not question by asking for a receipt. If through unintentional error, you should not be given proper credit for money paid and should be presented for the same bill the second time, you would not have any proof of having paid unless you had received a regular receipt. But if you had paid with a check you would have received a receipt without asking for it, embarrassing no one.

This is only one of the conveniences of keeping your money on deposit, and paying it out by check. Our facilities for handling these accounts are the best and they are at your disposal. You are welcome here.
