SPEAK AT COUNTY FAIR President Mansfield, president of the State Farm Bureau Federation, will be the principal speaker on the program Wednesday, the ninth. Mr. Mansfield will arrive on the evening train, September 8th and go into conference that evening with the executive committee of the Farm Bureau, at which time the proposition of organizing the county on the State Farm Bureau Federation plan will be discussed. Mr. Mansfield is an exceptionally good speaker, has the interest of the farmer at heart, and it will be a real treat to those who have an opportunity to hear him at fair time.

FIRE MARSHALS

COMPLETE INSPECTION James Glesson and J. R. Griffith of the State Fire Marshal's Office completed their inspection of conditions in the cities of this county the first of the week and departed Monday noon for Salem. They stated that conditions here a Toledo were not as bad as those found in many places of like size, but, they found a number of conditions existing which should be remedied. They recommended that the City appoint an inspector to look after the wiring of buildings, and to see that the state fire laws in general were observed, to see that the basements of the business houses were kept clean, and that inflammables were not stored on the premises contrary to law. They found several accumulations of ing and as one improvement and to be rubbish that were a menace to the improved in the following manner: To They found several accumulations of
