ONA GOOD ROADS CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Ona Good Road Club held their regular monthly meeting, Monday, September the 11th, 1921, on the new road down the Creek, thirteen men and four teams being present.

A short business session was held during the noon hour, with C. S. Oberlin presiding. It was decided to meet twice a month in the future instead of once a month as in the past. Seven new members were initiated. Four Cook brothers, I. R. Payne, Earl Wallbau and Arthur Holmgren, all enthusiastic supporters of good roads, and other improvements.

The day was well spent, grading and putting in a fill on Simpson Creek.

"EVERYBODY HAPPY"

The eight annual Lincoln County Fair is now a matter of history, and proved a very successful fair.

The weather was perfect, the attendance while not as large as two years ago, was good, and the main thing, "Everybody was Happy."

G. W. Ford was right there when it came to dishing up the sports, and with the foot races, Ford races, cigar races, etc. kept the crowd in an uproar.

H. F. Briggs, of Burnt Woods, the clown, was here there and everywhere and certainly did his bit to make the fair successful.

Manager Coeter had a man's sized job looking after the business end of the fair, and as usual he made good.

The wrestling bouts were good, especially the Miller-Amort go which was staged Saturday. The first fall was won by Amort, the second by Miller, and the third by Amort. The bout Friday between McBride and Graves was easily won by McBride. The boxing contest between Carson and Swayze Saturday evening was interesting and drew a big crowd. After the boxing Wiswell and Dickson wrestled, the bout ending in a draw.

The sham battle Saturday evening was something unusual and gave the crowd an added thrill.

Next week we will publish the premium list.

A PAID CHECK IS THE BEST RECEIPT

You often pay bills to parties whose integrity you would not question by asking for a receipt. If through unintentional error, you should not be given proper credit for money paid and should be presented for the same bill the second time, you would not have any proof of having paid unless you had received a regular receipt. But if you had paid with a check you would have received a receipt without asking for it, embarrassing no one.

This is only one of the conveniences of keeping your money on deposit, and paying it out by check. Our facilities for handling these accounts are the best and they are at your disposal. You are welcome here.
