VOLUME 29 TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 30th, 1921. NUMBER 45

SILETZ

Ira Strong was drowned in the Siletz river Thursday evening, the 23d of December. He was aged and in attempting to cross the river in a row boat going to his brother's, Norman Strong, he must have fell out of the boat in a fit and drowned. He was subject to epileptic fits and one of these spells must have taken him when he fell out of the boat and drowned before regaining consciousness. There was no water in his lungs and he must have died without a struggle. The body was taken out of the water by James Brassfield about a mile below where he went in—at the old ford. Efforts were made to resuscitate the body but to no avail. The funeral was held at the M. E. Church, Saturday in the afternoon. A large number were present. The deceased was a member of the Tootoanias one of the largest tribes that was brought to reservation in 1857. He was a great grand child of Oneatta the Chief of the Tootoanias. Rev. C. W. Pogue pastor of the church conducted the services. A beautiful selection "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung by Mrs. Alec Catfish, Miss Alice Chalcraft playing the piano. Mrs. Catfish's voice seemed to be at its best. The sentiment of the song, the pathos of the singing, accompanied by the sweet soft strains of the piano made a deep impression on the audience. Ira Strong was 32 years old. His father Norman Strong was drowned in the Siletz river some 28 years ago a mile or so below where Ira drowned. Ira was a graduate of the government School at Siletz. The interment took place in the Cemetery on the hill overlooking the Siletz Valley the Indian burying ground. This Cemetery has no official name. Your correspondent would like to suggest the name Oneatta Cemetery as a suitable name to commemorate the name of the tribe as well as the name of its great Chief, who figured so largely in the Rogue River War of 1855-6.

The Sunday School program at Siletz December 25, was as follows: Song—Tell the old old story—Orchestra led by Charles Larsen; Song—Joy to the World—by the Sunday School; Prayer—Rev. C. W. Pogue; Song—Silent Night—Choir; This song seemed to be unusually impressive, thoughtful in harmony with the solemn scene that surrounded us. Recitation—Merry Christmas—William Metcalf; Vocal Duet—The Misses Hoffman; Lullaby—Mrs. W. S. Hall's Class; Recitation—Harvey Christopherson; Vocal Solo—Jess Daniels, Mrs. Maurice Anderson at piano; Announcement—W. S. Hall Supt. Vocal Duet—Lavelle King, Blanch Fring; Song—Jolly old Santa Claus—School; Distribution of presents.

Every one in the house got a present and the house was crowded to the walls. The tree was beautiful and brilliantly lighted with a number of gas lamps. Santa Claus came in at the back door looked upon the brilliant scene but never said a word. He seemed confused since being married to Mother Goose. He skipped out at the back door jumped into his sleigh which was drawn by six beautiful reindeer cracked his whip and put out for the North Pole. Mrs. Santa did not go along. He will come back again by next Christmas.

Mrs. Grant King spent Christmas with the home folks she says she is getting along fine. She is a great booster for the World Fair, said it would be the greatest thing that ever happened to Oregon and the west. Mrs. King returned to Portland Tuesday and took her daughter Helen along with her. Mrs. King believes a wave of prosperity is coming to the golden west.

Mrs. Jess Daniels also went to Portland to be with her father Mr. Calkins who is reported very sick.

The following families served Christmas dinners and invited their friends: Mr. Maurice Anderson, Mrs. E. E. Colvin, Mrs. Jess Daniels, Mrs. Fred Brown and Mrs. C. W. Pogue. The two hotels also served dinner, the Crawford and the King.

GLEN

We are having real winter weather. The snow has been on for over a week and got as deep as 9 inches.

Xmas was spent rather quietly in this neighborhood.

John Davenport, who is doing quite an extensive business of trapping, says there are lots of bear and coyotes in the county, and that they are living principally on the goats.

Evertt Brown came in from the Valley last week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brown.

Elmer Watkins was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brown for Xmas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wheeler have moved into their "back" as they call it. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler lost their house by a land slide during the high water, and have erected a little house to spend the winter in.

Mrs. John Davenport is spending the holidays with her father, Al Martin, at Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore and grand-son, Everest, and Nathan Watkins were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wheeler Xmas.

Miss Eleanor Schaefer who is teaching here, is spending the holidays at her home in Brownsville.

W. R. Moore tracked a bear most of the day Monday but failed to tree Mr. Bear. Alva Moore came over from Harlan with his dogs and they are going to continue the hunt.

FRUIT VALE

The School gave a program Friday afternoon the 23rd and of course an Xmas tree afterwards which was very much enjoyed by the children and grown up who came of course to hear the program.

Christmas dinners were served at several of the homes here while a few were away and enjoyed a trip as well.

Mike Moffit spent Xmas in Eastern Oregon with relatives.

Chas. Baker and wife had turkey at R. F. Baker's in Newport.

Paul Paulsen came in from Albany Sat. 24 on the train and as the big dinner was to be served at L. T. Stephenson's that evening Steve thought he'd go over to Toledo and meet him so he mushed over—made two trips thru the train and went home alone, Paul rode on down to Yaquina and walked over, neither had recognized the other probably owing to the fact that it had been several weeks since seeing each other, or the wonderful climate, and but three men in the smoker it surely seems peculiar but anyway the dinner commenced at 7 and continued until 1.30 a. m. after which a few games of pinochle and a good deal of complaining terminated the evening. O! Well Xmas only comes once a year anyhow.

R. L. Moffit set the big feed and all the children in Lincoln County were present. Johnsons were at Osburns and Nyes served a big family dinner. The York Young folks were home from Newport.

We have no school until after New Years so the children and Miss Ross will have a few days rest after their extra efforts.

Several attended the dance at Mr. Tindalls Monday night 26th from here and all report a most wonderful time.

Chas. Baker presented himself with a brand new Ford truck for Xmas brought it in the middle of the week.

GLEN

George E. Brown of Monroe came in Thursday to spend the holidays with the home folks at Hilltop.

Mr. S. J. Stewart visited with C. W. Brown Friday night.

Roy Eaton and John Davenport were hunting coyotes Saturday, they are getting plentiful on the range as the snow drives them down on the goat range where they find plenty to eat.

Fred Brown attended the dance at Davis Store at Harlan Friday night. He reports a big crowd and a fine time.

NEWPORT VS. TOLEDO TOMORROW NIGHT

The Newport and Toledo town teams will engage in a game of basket ball at the Fair Building in this city tomorrow evening. The teams are very evenly matched and a good game is assured. The game will start at 7:30 prompt and will be over before the dance begins. Come out and see a good game and help root for the home team. Admission two-bits.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS JANUARY 13

At the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, to be held Friday evening, January 13, 1922 the Board of Directors request a full attendance. Some matters of vital importance to the entire county will be brought up for discussion, and action taken at this meeting.

The Directors also request members to suggest and outline projects for the coming year. Every member of the Chamber is urged to give a little time and thought toward the bettering of conditions in our community. Let's all get together and get something to shoot at—then lets shoot until we hit the mark.

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF ROAD DISTRICTS

At the January Term of the County Court, the Second day thereof, January 5th the present boundaries of the Road Districts will be changed. All interested are invited to attend.

John Fogarty, County Judge.

BAKERY FOR TOLEDO

Alex Diebold arrived down from Portland the first of the week looking for a location for a bakery. Before leaving town he had leased the Toledo Hotel from P. Frederick and made all arrangements for installing a modern bakery therein.

Mr. Diebold will also open the dining room and conduct an up to date hotel.

He, accompanied by his wife and daughter will return the 15th of January to take over the management of the hotel.

The Toledo boys will play the Newport boys at the Fair building in this city Saturday evening. Game starts at 7.30. Admission 25c.

OLD FASHIONED DANCE

Some fifty neighbors gathered at W. R. Tindall's place last Monday evening for a real old fashioned dance. There was room for three sets, and those present kept the musicians going until the wee small hours, the dance breaking up about three o'clock. At midnight eats were served, after which the dancing was again resumed.

WORKS BOTH WAYS

There is an old saying about "His word as good as his bond." The Republican administration is turning the maxim around. The promise of the Republican party was given to try to bring bonds back to par. The market price of bonds is now between 98 cents and a dollar. The bonds have become as good as the Republican promise, and much sooner than anybody expected.

"THANK YOU"

Toledo, Oregon, December 28, 1921.

"Thank you" kind friends and neighbors for the Xmas gifts that made us all very happy, and thank you very much "Santa Claus" who remembered us all. Thank you for being so very much obliged to us.

Mr. J. Roth and the Children
