B. F. JONES FOR JOINT-REPRESENTATIVE

In this issue we have the announcement of Hon. B. F. Jones of Newport as a candidate for the office of Joint Representative for the Twelfth Representative District, comprising Lincoln and Polk Counties. Mr. Jones is a man of action, and has a record for having made good in this office which he seeks, having served one term with credit to the district and to himself. He is the father of the Roosevelt Highway Bill, and is far too well known to need an introduction as the voters of this county.

THE PASSING OF "UNCLE JOE"

Regardless of political opinion or affiliation the country generally will shake hands with a feeling of kindness if not regret when "Uncle Joe" Cannon passes into private life at the end of the present session of congress.
Eighty-six years old and serving his twenty-third term, "Uncle Joe" has stood as one of the last of the picturesque figures that mark the American Congress of a decade ago as something different in the world of legislation. Nor can it be denied he has given good service to the state as well as to his party.

Uncle Joe's saving grace lay in his sense of humor. He took events more seriously than men. Himself he never seemed to take seriously at all. When two years ago his friends gathered to honor him there was a delightful charm in his brief remarks.

"The year 1872 was a memorable one in many respects," said Uncle Joe. "Vesuvius had a violent eruption, General Isaac Sherwood and I were elected to the house and there were other happenings—the organization of the German Empire, and the French republic, the emancipation of the slaves in Porto Rico, the connection of Australia with the rest of the world by cable, the great Boston fire and the Geneva award. But these concerned the world at large while the election of my friend and colleague and myself was personal. Uncle Joe has never considered himself a world figure. Perhaps he is not, but when he shall pass to the sleepers and fre-side it will not be without having left his stamp on American life and legislation. At least he has taught us not to be too deeply impressed by the sensation of the hour, but to realize that the sudden and seeming vital things in life are but of passing moment and often unimportant in the light of time.
Some of our more blatant legislators might well read a page from the life of "Uncle Joe."

WEST WILL RULE THE WORLD

The world consumption of oil has reached 700,000,000 barrels and experts say this will go to 1,000,000,000 barrels in five years.

While other nations are struggling to corner the oil supplies of the world the fact remains that our country is producing 70 per cent of the total.
Capital by the millions each month is searching for new oil wells in all the possible producing territory from Mexico to Alaska.

The west also has ninety percent of the potential hydro-electric energy of the world and capital is beginning to turn attention to that.

The west has great riches in natural resources of timber, oil, fumes, and undeveloped agricultural lands reaching into hundreds of millions.

Who is so blind he cannot see that the west is to have the future wealth and manufacturing power not only of our country but of the world.

With lumbering, paper mills, irrigation, power development, shipping, sugar factories, precious metals, potash, fisheries, fruit growing, and agriculture going forward by leaps and bounds, who can over-estimate the resources of the country west of the Rockies?

Let us be proud of our country and not handicap its growth with unnecessary restrictive legislation and taxation—"The Manufacturer."
