VOLUME 30

TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, APRIL 7th, 1922.

NUMBER 7

SILETZ

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crawford gave a social dance in the gymnasium, March 31st, as a farewell party before leaving for Portland. The community was well represented, nearly all the neighbors being present. The Siletz people to the number of a dozen attended the dance also. All expressed themselves as having a most pleasant time. The dance was old fashioned and for that reason was more fully enjoyed. A fine old fashioned supper was served at midnight. This supper was a real feast to all who partook of it. It was prepared by the farmers wives who are up to date when it comes to cooking good wholesome food. The Crawfords will leave in a few days for Portland where they expect to make their future home.

A surprise birthday party was given Saturday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Pogue, our pastor, and his wife. The friends and neighbors to the number of twenty-five, marched to the parsonage loaded with a number of nice presents for the minister and his wife. It was a great surprise to both of them. It was called a pound party, gotten up by Mrs. Jess Daniels and Mrs. Maurice Andersen. Nothing was to weigh less than a pound. Mr. Pogue got a gold brick or two and a number of things that looked as though it might be April Fools Day. Through it all the minister kept a charming smile on his face. Dr. Carter had the honor and pleasure of making the introductory speech, expressing the sentiment that Mr. and Mrs. Pogue, by their uniform kindness and love, had won the hearts of the people of Siletz and it was only proper and right that we should show our appreciation in a small way with these gifts and presents. May our friendship for each other grow stronger and stronger as the days go by. Mr. Pogue in his reply, said he certainly appreciated the nice presents and the kindness and good will of the people of Siletz. The gold bricks would come handy in building a brick flue to the parsonage. It was April Fools Day and all enjoyed it. The evening was spent in playing games, social chat and relating stories and reminiscences of the past.

S. T. Loudon, the truant officer, was here and rounded up the children that were out of school. He made it plain that all children of school age must go to school unless kept out by sickness. One man told Mr. Loudon that it was none of his business whether his children went to school or not, but the officer soon convinced him it was his business and Monday morning the children—three of them—were in the school and this ended the matter. Mr. Loudon is not harsh but firm with the parents. The children must be kept in school.

A. L. Porter, the engineer and superintendent of the Market Road work and bridge construction, was here during the week to inspect the new bridge just built across Cedar Creek. Mr. Porter said the bridge was alright. He also said the bridges that were washed out last winter would be rebuilt just as fast as they could get money and material with which to carry the work forward. The bond will have to be voted first.

MILLPORT

There was a dance held at the Millport store April 1st, which was attended by about 50 couples in the honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fluke who are leaving this vicinity to take up their residence in Newport.

The Schooner "E. L. Smith" sailed for Newport with a full load of lumber April First. On the next trip she will take the regular run of the "Roamer" on the Portland, Newport and Siletz schedule while the Roamer is having her annual overhauling in Portland.

Mr. Wheeler of Newport visited the Wheeler Brothers and left on the ship Smith, April First. It is assumed Mr. Wheeler had a very pleasant trip down the coast as the bar was exceedingly lumpy on his departure.

The Natives have been very much puzzled over the new engine which the Siletz Bay Packing Company has purchased for the new cannery. It has neither batteries, wires, or a carburetor and consumes any fuel from water to molasses.

The Geritula Brothers, Jr.s. have established the Sanitary Shoe Shining Parlors. The parlors were opened for business at the dance held April First. The location of the parlors are moved by rowboat as the occasion demands. We trust this venture will be a financial success as the undertaking fills a long felt want on the account of the imperfect condition of the pavements of some of our roads.

The road between the Siletz River and Newport is in very poor condition and we hope that the County Court will at least take some soundings and establish a regular channel soon.

Dr. Bell and C. E. Sheffield of Newport were visitors on the river last week.

Guy Nilsson, cannery foreman of the Elmore Packing Company, returned from a business trip to Astoria. It is not definitely known whether the Elmore company will pack this season, or not.

CHITWOOD

A sewing club has been organized with the following members: Emma Wilson, Lucy Wilson, Dorothy Newcomb, May Ella Udell, Dott Steinmetz, Laura Smith and Ruth Smith; Mrs. Floyd Peppin is club leader.

A few have had bad colds but there has been no serious sickness. Chitwood is a healthy place to live.

A box social will be given at the schoolhouse next Saturday, April the 8th. The women should bring baskets and their husbands (or someone else's husband). There will be a program and a fortune tellers booth.

The roads are so bad that several farmers have made "mud boats" to haul their feed, etc., on.

ELK CITY

Mrs. J. E. Davis and daughter, Ethel, left for the Valley last Thursday.

Mrs. McIntyre and daughter, Lois, went to Toledo Monday.

Morgan Allen was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

A calico dance is to be given at the Grange Hall Saturday night.

A. D. Kern, foreman of the quarry, was in from Portland to attend to business here.

Mrs. M. W. Small has been visiting in Albany. She returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Ed Taylor left for Newport Tuesday evening to see her new grandson.

Mrs. Bristlin and Mrs. Washburn were passengers to Toledo Monday evening.

Miss Sarah Crahan of Toledo visited her sister, Mrs. C. L. Morrison Sunday.

The Elk City Basketball Team will play the Toledo teams Friday, April 7th.

Mrs. Charles Small of Toledo was visiting at the home of Mrs. George Small Monday.

Well—this weather is a little more like spring, although it could be better.

Mrs. Lang was visiting at the home of Mrs. Coxine Tuesday afternoon.

SOUTHSIDE

We are glad to report that Mr. and Mrs. Strand, who have been suffering from the gripe during the past week have recovered.

Mrs. Odell spent a few days at South Beach visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harland.

Mrs. Mortz, Mrs. Charles Mortz, and Miss Bessie Blair, who have been visiting the Hayes family during the past week, have returned to Sheridan.

The Sunny Ridge school has just received a fine young walnut tree from O. M. Plummer, of Portland.

A number of years ago Mr. Plummer visited Washington's old home at Mt. Vernon and while there secured from one of the old trees which had had nuts when George lived there, a number of fine walnuts. On his return to Oregon, he planted them. They grew well and about two years ago began to bear. Our little tree grew from one of the latter nuts, making it the "grandchild" of George Washington's tree.

On Easter Sunday the Sunny Ridge Sunday School will give a program at the school house. A dinner will be served at noon. All residents of the district and their friends are invited to come and bring dinner. The children will have an Easter egg hunt.

The Southside Improvement Club held an interesting meeting at the school house last Saturday. A number of interesting topics were discussed and committees appointed. The Club has done considerable work, taking into account the short time since it was reorganized. Loans may be flourished and become a power for good not only for the Southside but for the whole county!

The bridge petitions will be presented to the County Clerk this week. A committee of five was appointed for that purpose.

NORTH BEAVER

William Smith was a guest at the Rhoades home Wednesday evening.

H. G. Rhoades, Clifford Phelps, A. Peterson, Earl Walkau and P. A. Miller were trading in Yaquina Thursday.

William, and family at Summit, returning Sunday.

Floyd Rhoades and James Hunsucker spent the week end in our vicinity.

H. G. Rhoades made a trip to Toledo Tuesday to move Mr. Nelson, his family and household goods down as far as the boat landing.

H. G. Rhoades went to Toledo Wednesday accompanied by C. S. Ohmart. Archie Zeek went over to Poole Slouch Tuesday.

Little Hilda Rhoades who has been quite ill the past week is again on the road to recovery.

WINANT

Mrs. Frank Sherman and family called at the Hunsucker home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Alice Hunsucker, who has been working at Southside, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. M. G. Sherman visited at the Harris home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunsucker and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Davenport.

Floyd Rhoades and James Hunsucker called at the Lewis home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunsucker were callers at Toledo Monday.

Geo. Hunsucker and Bill Bailey visited home folks Tuesday.

Mrs. Dora Emerson who has been visiting relatives at Newport, came home Tuesday.

Thomas Barker and daughters, Hazel and Bertha came in Tuesday night.

GLEN

R. E. McDonald of Philomath, agent for the Watkins Remedies passed through here Friday. He spent Thursday night at C. W. Brown's.

Elmer Watkins and T. L. Bohannon went to Toledo Saturday.

Mrs. O. F. Dickson came in from Corvallis last week for a few days visit with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wheeler spent last Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ohmart at Eddyville. They went on to Albany Monday, where they spent a couple of days with Mr. Wheeler's parents, returning home Thursday.

Mrs. John Davenport was called to Toledo Wednesday, by the serious illness of her father, Al Martin.

One of the many petitions that are being circulated over the county for the purpose of bonding the county in order to get money to build bridges, is in the hands of W. R. Moore, here for signers. We are all very much enthused over the prospect of getting the bridge across the bay at Toledo.

Jerry Banks, who is teaching school on Big Elk, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Elmer and Nathan Watkins.

Roy Eaton of Salado visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wheeler Saturday.

Roy Ap'tel moved his family over from Big Elk Wednesday and we all extend them a hearty welcome.

UPPER DEPOE VALLEY

The last meeting of the Sweet Briar Civic Club, held on March 5th was very successful, the largest number of Depoe residents being present that we have yet had. Dinner was first served, followed by a program, consisting of some excellent vocal and musical selections, also talks by Mrs. F. Romtvedt, V. D. Graves and J. L. Thomas.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the Sweet Briar schoolhouse on Sunday, April 16th, at 12 o'clock, noon, sharp. A good program is assured, the arranging of which is in the hands of V. D. Graves, he having been elected chairman at the last meeting.

During the past month our neighborhood has had the absence of Mrs. J. W. Rogers, who was out to Portland visiting relatives where she really enjoyed herself.

On March 24th, Charles Patton of Butte Falls, Oregon, and Miss Alvah Romtvedt of Toledo, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage, Medford. The bride is well known in Toledo and vicinity, her home having been in Depoe Valley for many years. The happy couple will make their future home in Butte Falls.

FREE PICTURE SHOW SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Jersey Cattle Club will present—"Hearts and Jerseys"—Calf Club will be organized after show.

Beginning promptly at one o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 8th, at the "Movies" theatre, the Jersey Cattle Club will present the free five reel picture show "Hearts and Jerseys." The film is both educational and interesting and points the way to profit thru the use of purebred Jerseys.

For the person not especially interested in the educational side of the show the entertaining features are equally valuable. The picture has a pretty little plot and is full of amusing scenes. The hero wins success with his Jerseys and also wins the girl he wants and thus all's well that ends well.

This picture will appeal especially to the farmers and their families and the afternoon time of presentation is selected to enable them to attend. Boys and girls who desire to get into the Jersey Calf Club should be there as the Club will be organized immediately after the show.

The Jersey Cattle Club will see that all Calf Club members are provided with purebred calves. It has already been found that the Jersey breeders will provide calves for this purpose much below market—calves having been offered at prices ranging from $25 to $100 per head.

The show is entirely free—and due to the limited seating capacity, come early if you would have a good seat.

MILLER TO MEET AMORT IN A FINISH MATCH

After months of waiting, Paul Amort has at last accepted Chas. Miller's challenge to a finish match and the same will be held at Toledo, Saturday, April 8th. This match is especially interesting for on the outcome of this match will determine whether Miller can retain the championship of Lincoln County.

Ted Thyse of Portland will be present at the match and if Miller wins and appears likely to the Portland idol, he will challenge Miller to a match with his man Anderson. If Miller then handles Anderson, Thyse will then take on our Charles. The fact that neither Amort or Sanders has been able to put Miller out seems to worry Thyse. This match should be the best yet witnessed. Charles says he is "going to win." The probability is that Amort has a like aspiration.

A VOTER WRITES:

Elk City, Or., April 1st, 1922.
Editor Leader:

I notice in the last Court proceedings, claims from several citizens on Olalla and Simpson Creek, for damages. I wonder whether these people who were so anxious to have a road and who are receiving the direct benefit from thousands of dollars of both county and state funds, who had PULLLED enough to take the road over the mountains on an old elk trail instead of a water grade and who have PULLLED out thousands of dollars of county funds for building roads, will ever be satisfied.
J. C. Dixon.

DAIRY DEMONSTRATION MEETINGS NEXT WEEK

Prof. Fitts of O. A. C. will direct meetings which will be held on the farm where breeding, feeding, and dairy herd management will be "illustrated" as well as "talked about."

The first dairy farm demonstration meeting scheduled on the Farm Bureau program will be held on the farm of L. A. Hulbert two miles north of Toledo Tuesday, April 11th, beginning at 1 o'clock sharp. It is expected that by holding these meetings on the farm where actual practices and examples of breeding, feeding and care of animals may be observed that much more can be accomplished than by merely talking about such things in a "hall in town." Four or five meetings a year will be held on the same farm, these farms being known as the "demonstration farms" and by keeping simple records, the actual success or failure of the various practices can be studied. The second demonstration meeting will be held at Ona on Wednesday. The farm to be used will be announced at a later date.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

You are cordially invited to attend an entertainment to be given by the pupils of the Toledo Grade School, Friday evening, April 21st.

A varied program will be offered including the new Exposition Song—"Beautiful Oregon Rose"; the delightful "Yama Yama" chorus from the musical comedy, "The Three Twins"; a children's presentation of "Little Orphan Annie"; and many other interesting features.

General Admission 50 cents.
Remember the day—Friday, April 21st, 1922

NEW HARDWARE FIRM

N. H. Sherwood and Max Hayden have bought out the Peterson Hardware Co. The invoicing was concluded Wednesday and the stock moved into the brick store building just south of the garage. The new firm will be known as the Sherwood & Hayden Hardware Co., and solicits a share of your patronage.

DANCE PROVES TO BE ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The dance given at the Club House last Saturday evening by Dick & Nick proved to be an enjoyable affair and drew a big crowd. The music was good, the supper was good and the best of order was maintained.

The music was furnished by Johnson's Toledo Orchestra, and deserves more than passing mention. "Micky" Johnson, the leader, is a pianist of rare ability, then there is Elmer Myra on the banjo, H. G. Wolf and Myrna Miller on the violin, Lawrence Bollis, saxophone, and Wallace Baker, drummer, all good musicians, and they certainly make your feet itch when they get going.

TOLEDO TO HAVE TAILOR- ING ESTABLISHMENT

W. A. Lindsay of Enterprise, Oregon, will establish a tailor shop in the Masonic Building, in the room now occupied by Dr. Kellogg about the 15th of this month. He will make suits to order, do dry cleaning, alterations, dyeing and pressing and hat blocking. Mr. Lindsay has had a wide experience in the business and guarantees dependable service.

POULTRY MEETINGS PROVE POPULAR

The Farm Bureau completed another of its schedules in the demonstration poultry meeting held at Toledo last Tuesday. The morning was devoted to a tour of the poultry yards of Messrs. Gwynn, Harding, Osness, Grable and Alexander, Bateman, Waugh and Mrs. Demitt. On account of insufficient time a proposed trip to Edd Mahler's farm was cancelled. Prof. Crosby expressed surprise and admiration at the improvement of the poultry industry of Lincoln County since his last visit a year ago. Mr. Grable's exhibit was especially interesting and presents an attraction which could be viewed with interest by Toledo people wanting a little walk. Mr. Grable has 350 hens in one house and at the time of the recent visit a row of laying hens and more standing by waiting their turn. Simply gathering the eggs is quite a task in this house as Mr. Grable finds about 250 eggs per day in this one house.

Afternoon meeting at Miller's. The lecture and demonstration meeting was held at the Everett Miller farm of "Reds" and "Rocks." Here again is another interesting jaunt. "Just over the hill," and "not far away." Mr. Miller is trap nesting his hens and can tell you how many eggs each hen has laid. Do you know that a hen lays eggs in cycles? Some lay three eggs then miss a day then three more and so on. Some hens have three, some four, some five and so on.

Prof. Crosby, representing the Extension Service of O. A. C., was the principal speaker, discussing brooding, feeding and care of little chicks. The meeting was well attended. Two ladies, Mrs. Bristlin and Mrs. Washburn coming from above Elk City on the Big Elk to attend the meeting.

Mr. Crosby will return in August or early September at which time he will demonstrate proper methods of culling.

TINDALL STATES POLICIES

To the Law and Order Citizens of Lincoln County:—It has been brought to my attention that I was in sympathy with the so called, moonshiner or hip pocket saloon man.

To those of you who know me, this statement has no weight. To those who do not, be it known to you that I am for law enforcement, including the liquor law. If you are content to let the moonshiner roam at will, mixing booze and gasoline thus causing accidents on our roads, don't vote for me, for I will sure do all in my power to stop it (should I be nominated and elected) if I have to deputize half of the county to do so.

There are three men in the county who have known me from boyhood and whose politics I do not know. They are Mr. P. G. Gilmore, Newport, Mr. Lee M. Commons, Harlan formerly Ona, and Mr. Richardson of Toledo. Talk to them.
W. R. Tindall.

DIES ON BIRTHDAY; AGED 95 YEARS

Henry W. Vincent passed away Saturday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Georgia Wade, in this city, aged 95 years.

Mr. Vincent's life history reads like a story, and he certainly enjoyed life to the full. He was honored and respected by all who knew him.

He was born in Columbia county, New York, April 1st, 1827. He received his education in a log school house, and lived on a farm. When he came of age he moved to Watertown, N. Y., and engaged in the mercantile business with his brother. After two years the store burned, so they built a brick store. They cut out and made their own clothing and shoes which they sold in the store. At the age of 28 he went to Fon du Lac, Wis., where he engaged in the clothing business for ten or twelve years. Then he went on the road, traveling from place to place, carrying with him a stock of clothing. He followed this vocation for about three years, and saw all there was to see in the country at that time.

He next went to Pikea Peak to mine, but after about two months he concluded there was not enough gold there so went on to Salt Lake. It was not a very large town, and after a few months there the lure of the gold rush took him to California. He spent two years in Red Bluff, California, as a barber. Leaving there he went to San Francisco and Los Angeles. Few white people lived in Los Angeles when Mr. Vincent was there. One little brick saloon was the only building, and a few dug-outs, dug in a dirt bank and covered with limbs and dirt, comprised the houses. While here the Civil War broke out.

In 1861 he went back to Wisconsin on horseback, making the trip in four months. This was considered very fast time in those days. When he reached Wisconsin they would not accept him for the army because his eyes were weak, but he served as a recruiting officer. While here he met Judith T. Stevens, who later became his wife.

After he was married they moved to Chillicothe, Mo., where he was in the hotel business for about six years. He also worked at dentistry here for two years and the title of "Doctor" was given him. He also worked as a jeweler for two years. While in Missouri a daughter was born, Georgia Vincent.

From Chillicothe, Mo., he came to Portland, Oregon, by railroad. Deciding to go farther west, the family went to Corvallis by boat, at Corvallis they changed to team and came to Elk City, and from Elk City to Toledo by row boat. There was no town here and but one house, which was occupied by John Graham, and which was situated about the present site of the Toledo Hotel. The family returned to Corvallis and established the "Vincent House." Corvallis was a very small place in 1874.

After ten years he moved back to Toledo which had increased in population since his first trip. He took up the mercantile business, the first store being near where T. P. Fish's store now stands. Later he moved the goods to Caledonia (near the mouth of Olalla slough) and where he and others built a mill and a big house which was used for a store and a home.

At this time they were grading for the railroad. There was a sidetrack leading to the mill where cars were loaded with lumber. Later he sold the mill and store, moving back down the track about a half mile to a place which is now known as the "Vincent Ranch." Here his wife died in 1903, and he went to live with his daughter who had married Lee Wade.

In 1904 he attended the World's Fair at St. Louis, and in 1905 he took the Lincoln County exhibits to the Lewis & Clark Fair at Portland.

In 1907 he married a Mrs. Loomis and they went to New York where he remained two years, his wife dying there.

Mr. Vincent passed the remaining years of his life in Toledo with very little change.

Mr. Vincent never made a practice of drinking or smoking, and never lost his temper, believing it to be a form of insanity.

He served several times as councilman and twice as mayor of Toledo.

SILVER CUP TO BE GIVEN AS PRIZE

The Standard Oil Co., is offering a silver loving cup as a prize to the station in this district which shows the biggest percentage of gain in business during the year. There are 63 stations competing and each month the percentages are figured and the one having the highest gets to keep the cup for that month. The Marshfield station won it for January, Bandon won it for February and Yaquina, with a 43 per cent gain over last March, won it for March.

E. A. Harvey, local agent, says if we can win it one more month during the year he feels confident that it will be awarded to this district. Anyhow he is going to strive hard to secure it.

APPRAISING BOARD APPOINTED

J. W. Parrish of this city, L. C. Smith of Newport and Chris Larsen of Siletz have been appointed appraisers to pass on the bonus loans to ex-serve men. They were over to the Siletz making some appraisals the first of the week.
