VOLUME 30

TOLEDO, LINCOLN COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, APRIL 28th, 1922.

NUMBER 10

SILETZ

The lecture of Prof. J. B. Horner of the Department of History in the O. A. C., Friday evening was listened to by a full house composed of the people of the community, the pupils of the public school, and the teachers. The lecture was illustrated by slides showing the conditions of the people in the land where there are no free schools, churches or community clubs.

The professor was accompanied by W. F. Gaskins, director of music in the O. A. C., and County Agent Cooter, a graduate of the O. A. C. C. W. Pogue, president of the Community Club acted as chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers. Mr. Gaskins was first introduced and asked to sing a song, but instead he gave an interesting talk on the charms of music and the wonders of the radio. Next came Mr. Cooter with some humorous remarks that pleased the audience and put them just right to listen to the lecture. Mr. Cooter by request had brought his own acetylene tank with which to run the machine for Prof. Horner. The professor was then introduced amid a round of applause. Prof. Horner seems to have the hearts of the young people. He at once launched into his subject. As the slides came on he explained the meaning of each one. He had taken these pictures himself and he knew they were correct, when visiting the Holy Land some years ago. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Horner, their two daughters, Rev. J. R. N. Bell and two other ministers. They traveled for weeks in Egypt, the cradle of the human race. They saw and photographed the great pyramids—one of which covers more than thirteen acres of ground, the sphinx, obelisks, sepulchers and other objects of interest. He said the pyramids were built to commemorate the name of some great kings. In the sepulchers where the dead were placed had now become the home of bats and moles and the catacombs had been abandoned and used now as dwelling places for the poor. The great university that once occupied 40 acres of land, had fallen into decay and passed away. Here at this university it is believed St. Paul, Moses and other great men of ancient times received their education. The people of Egypt at one time were highly educated and civilized but fell because they forgot God, excluded themselves from the rest of the world and went into materialism like Germany and passed out of existence as a government. Prof. Horner said the lights of the home, the free schools and the church must be kept burning brightly or we as a nation would go the same way. The professor is not an evolutionist. He believes that Christianity as taught by Christ is the greatest civilizer in the world. One of the sad things in the lecture was where a native girl was sold to a man to become his wife. She was examined as you would a horse, and then led away to eke out a miserable existence with no more say in the matter than a calf. Where you have no schools, no churches and no civilization, women are held as slaves. America is great because she is free and has free institutions and Egypt is dark because she has no free schools, no churches and no free institutions. The brain must work in order to direct the hands. You must put brains into your business or you cannot succeed says Mr. Horner. The address was greatly appreciated and a rising vote of thanks was extended to him at its close.

The Siletz Schools have a fine corps of teachers from the principal to the Primary grade. They not only take great interest in their school work but are willing to help in anything that will advance the interest and welfare of the community. Some people are under the impression that the Siletz steel bridge is not to be built as it does not appear on the election notices, that are being posted. But this is a mistake. As I understand it, the Market Road Fund and the fund from the Budget that was set aside last fall will build the Siletz bridge and that is why it is not mentioned on the Bonding Election Notices.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE BREAKS ALL RECORDS

The annual teachers' institute for Lincoln county, which is in session here this week has broken all records for attendance. Out of 98 teachers teaching in the county, 95 are attending the institute. The best previous attendance was 77 teachers.

The Institute has been a success in more ways than from point of attendance however. The programs as mapped out and arranged by Superintendent Goin, have been splendid, the weather has been good, and the townspeople have provided an entertainment for the teachers in their spare moments.

Tuesday evening the grammar school held an entertainment at the gymnasium building. Wednesday evening a reception was held at the Commercial Club rooms, yesterday afternoon the teachers were taken thru the big mill of the Pacific Spruce Corporation, and last evening a dance was held at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Mr. Simon has resided near Waldport the past nine years, prior to which he was in the real estate business at Portland for ten years. While living in the East he served some little time as deputy sheriff and special police.

Mr. Simon is a booster for good roads, and his hobby is to see the north and south parts of the county connected up with roads.

Mr. Simon's announcement will be found elsewhere in this issue.

SMILING CHARLIE MILLER WINS FROM ANDERSON

The wrestling bout between Charlie Miller of Lincoln County and Jimmie Anderson of Portland held at Toledo last Saturday evening proved to be the best and most interesting event ever held in the county. Ted Thye said it all when he remarked that: "It was a prettier match than big cities pay big money for, and anyone who says Miller is not fast or a clever wrestler, tell them they are wrong." Rolland Hart was the official time-keeper, Bert Geer referee of the boxing bouts as usual pleased the crowd very much with his humorous remarks when introducing the various contestants. W. K. Patterson was referee of the wrestling.

The preliminaries between Wids and Allen of Toledo was very good and rather a surprise to the audience so far as the ability of these boys was concerned. The bout between Hunter of Newport and Rhode of Toledo proved very exciting, the crowd yelling to each in an entirely impartial manner whenever the opportunity offered, while Hunter had a shade the better of the bout, at the same time he so far outweighed Rhode that the decision of the referee was a draw.

The exhibition of wrestling by Thye was worth seeing, his movements and action with Sanders on the mat, reminding one of a cat playing with a mouse, the easy quick action of his arms and legs in getting and demonstrating the various holds along with his seeming ability to be everywhere at once proved him to be the invincible wrestler we have read so much about. All interest of course was centered (Continued on Page Two)
