Toledo Defeats
Siletz Team in
July 4th GameLocal Boys Hammer Indian
Twirlers for Total of 18 Hits,
Including 3 Homers, a Three-
Bagger and Four Doubles.

Before a crowd of about 400 people the Toledo baseball team swamped the Siletz Indians Tuesday afternoon at Newport by the one-sided score of 14 to 5 in one of the most loosely played contests of the season. The heavy hitting of the Toledo players was the main feature of the game, connecting for four homers, one tripple, four two-baggers and nine singles. This coupled with the several errors made by the Indians was responsible for the heavy scoring of the county seat men.

The Toledo team started early to put the game on ice and in the first inning made four runs. Service, the first man to bat for Toledo, connected for a three-bagger. Gaither and VanDeovering fanned but Louie Bain who, by the way made a record for himself for home runs, connected squarely and sent the ball soaring over the tree tops in the left garden for a home run. Hammond singled and scored when Weeks landed for a two bagger. Center struck out.

Toledo put one across in the second inning when Weaver got on through an error and scored when Gaither connected for a single. The first two men in the fourth inning, Service and Gaither, could not connect and struck out. VanDeovering singled and then Bain came up again and duplicated his home run stunt of the first inning. Toledo scored another in the fifth when Center doubled and scored when Weaver hit for two bases. In the sixth Louie Bain hit for his third circuit smash after Gaither had singled adding two more scores to the ever-increasing total of the County seat team.

Toledo scored another in the seventh, went out in one-two-three fashion in the eighth and in the ninth initiated another batting rally that seemed to take the heart out of the "Savage" tribe. Weaver singled, Hall ditto. Service doubled, scoring Hall and Weaver; Gaither drove Service home ahead of him by losing the ball in the outer gardens for the fourth homer of the day. The Indians shut the locals off from further scoring by pulling a snappy double and Hammond struck out.

The Indians managed to put a man across in the first inning following several bobbles by the Toledo team, two more in the fourth when Coquelle singled and scored when Downey connected for a three-bagger; Downey scored when Adams singled. Hall pitched himself out of a bad hole in the second inning when Bellinger got to first through an error, Coquelle singled and Adams walked, filling the bags with none out. Hall immediately became stingy and struck out the next two men up and caused Washington to ground out. The Indians staged a batting rally in the seventh inning, landing for two singles and a double, but were able to put only two men across the home base. In the last two innings only six men faced Hall and they went to their doom in order.

Adams, pitching for the Indians has perfect control and struck out 15 men but was hit hard at critical times.

Thye Defeats
Geo. Barnes In
Newport MatchBefore Decidedly Small Crowd
Portland Man Pins Nebraska
"Whirlwind" to the Mat in
One Hour and 3 Minutes.

Before a crowd that only partly filled the large Army and Navy Club house at Newport Monday evening, July 3d, Ted Thye, middle-weight champion of the world, of Portland, Ore., pinned the shoulders of George Barnes, of Lincoln, Nebr., to the mat in just one hour and three minutes in one of the fastest and most scientific matches ever witnessed in Oregon.

From the call of "time" until Thye conquered his opponent the fans were treated with thrill after thrill as the wrestlers demonstrated their abilities in the mat art. Barnes was the aggressor practically all the way up to the last few minutes, Thye keeping himself "in the clear" by speedy foot work and cleverness in breaking holds that to any other would have spelled defeat. Thye used his famous wrist lock continually and had his opponent in dangerous positions on many instances, but Barnes has wonderful speed and science both in breaking and clamping on holds and Thye was compelled to go his best to beat the Nebraska whirlwind.

Those who know Thye realized it was "curtains" for Barnes when the Portland man gained the head scissors and wrist lock at the end of one hour's wrestling.

Two fast boxing preliminaries preceded the main go.

Chas. Miller of Toledo issued a challenge to Thye but the Portland man refused to accept, stating that he was not interested unless Miller could produce "the coin."

THYE DEFEATS SWEDE

According to a report from Albany Ted Thye of Portland decisively defeated Chas. Olson, (The Terrible Swede) at that place on Tuesday, July 4th. Thye is reported to have gained the first fall in 52 minutes and the second fall in 3 minutes.

Upriver Beats Kernville

(Contributed.)

Kernville, June 26th.—Under the captaincy of Miss Beulah Ballard (locally famous submarine fish-charters) the Up-River boys took the starch out of Kernville Sunday. Miss Lolita Wheeler chaperoned the millmen; but her team was powerless against the inspired Ballard-ites. In the first frame, Red Glasier, pitching for the Fish, took a hot one off Wesloe's bat, and doubled to Toberer, catching Dixon off 3d. In the second inning Carl Toberer grabbed one out of the air at third, doubling to Strome before Fitzpatrick could recover from his lead. Tommy Chatterton pitched good ball for Kernville for two innings. He retired at the beginning of the third with a strained arm, and was succeeded by Joe Wesloe. Joe was maltreated by the Fishermen who put 4 runs across in his first innin. He stiffened up, however, and struck out 7 men altogether in the three innings that he pitched. Following the heavy scoring in the third, Miss Ballard took Glasier from the mound in favor of Al Toberer, a promising recruit. Al started wild, allowed a run to cross, and three men on bases, with no outs, when Glasier was recalled. Red caught one of the runners off first, and proceeded to strike out the next two batters in 1, 2, 3 order. Toberer went back to pitch in the 4th, and managed very creditably. The game started late, and was called off at the end of the 5th inning to allow the Up-River people to milk their fish.

The score by innings:
Kernville 1 0 1 1 3—6
Up-River 2 0 4 0 2—8

ROOSTER INTRUDES ON
GRANT DAY CEREMONY;
CROW HEARD 30 MILES

The geese whose cackling saved Rome, will please move over and make room in the zoological hall of fame for a rooster which has established a claim to historical recognition by sharing a program with the President of the United States—and breaking the long distance record, into the bargain.

Shortly before the exercises in commemoration of the anniversary of the birth of Ulysses S. Grant were begun at Point Pleasant, Ohio, on April 27, the chanticleer in question, no doubt unable to master the feeling of local pride which the other four score inhabitants of the little village were more successful in expressing, made ed to the rostrum and crowed lustily. The feathered orator's tribute to his honored fellow townsman was heard distinctly in Cincinnati, thirty miles away. It happened that the bird had selected for his unsolicited addition to the program a point directly in front of the transmitter connected by telephone wires with the Bell loud speaking apparatus which enabled a crowd of 20,000 people gathered in Lytle Park to hear the entire program at Point Pleasant.

Alsea Grange furnished the music. The picnic was followed by a big dance in the evening and the regular meeting of the grange was held Saturday when Mr. Whitney Lane's efficient county agent addressed them taking for his subject, "The Dairy Cow."
