Scott's Field Near Kernville Is Scene of Jolly Vacation Party Sunday Afternoon; Teachers on Honeymoon Trip.

Kernville, July 28.—"The Humdingers," otherwise the pupils of Mr. Glaser's school, celebrated the beginning of their vacation with a big picnic at Scott's Field last Sunday. About sixty children, with their parents and friends, and three teachers participated in the festivities. The day was devoted to games and contests, in which the athletic powers of the "Humdingers" was fully vindicated. Not content that his pupils took first money in nearly all events, "Red," saved himself a prize in the men's ball throwing contest by heaving the sphere some twenty yards beyond the farthest flag. Miss Alma Ojala, who term, had her first lesson from them in a rowboat race, when Lloyd Combest and Venere Koski "hurmed" by her without a splash. The girls, under able captaincy of Loretta Wheeler, had the rare satisfaction of beating the boys in a game of baseball. Miss Ojala, before-mentioned, took a big-league swing, put the ball into the river, and brought in the winning run. The boys retaliated in a tug-of-war, wherein the girls, and Jimmie Muno an unweighable anchor. After the "junior" ball game, the men played six innings of baseball. The game was well played, but poorly applauded; the children's game continued to attract general attention. Boxing honors went to Harold Buckner and Evelyn Glaser, both visiting school children from Portland. Fannie Koski won the rifle shooting match. Five Koski children of the "tribus Humdingers" won first prizes in several races. Buzz Fitzpatrick, under the propulsive power of Miss Helen Ojala, made a spectacular spurt in the wheelbarrow race, but his clutch slipped, or something, and he lost to a pair of Koskis by a couple of revolutions.

The Humdingers will have a short vacation this year. Their teachers, the one who is leaving, and the one who will teach them next year, will spend part of their vacation on a honeymoon trip into Canada. Mr. Glaser will return in time to make some needed improvements in Paul Keuh's house (behind Toberer's) where the couple will live next year. Mr. Glaser is engaged to teach "Red Creek school next term: we expect some lively competition and cooperation between his school and the Humdingers.

The teaching force on the lower river will also be materially strengthened by the advent of a veteran teacher and superintendent, J. "Baldy" Worley, of Portland, who has been engaged at a generous salary to teach the Drift Creek School. Teachers' salaries in the three districts around Kernville have been raised about a thousand dollars in the past year; and results are already in evidence. Board will act on petitions from these three districts to consolidate them into one; and there is every reason to presume that its action in the matter will be favorable.

There will be a baseball game at Taft on July 30th between the River team and Devil's. Tony Reed, the chief promoter of the game, will captain and pitch for the River team. Clyde Morris and Red Glaser will be out of the line-up, the first by reason of a badly cut knee, the latter by reason of a honeymoon engagement; but the Fishermen will send a strong team without them, and everyone knows our girls are the fairest and most determined rooters in the country. Looks like curtains for the Devil's fish.

G. Frank Glaser.
