The County Board of Equalization, composed of County Judge James, County Clerk Gildersleeve and County Assessor Edw. Stoker, finished its sessions in the Court House Wednesday. According to Judge James there were fewer complaints offered this year than any year within his recollection. However, a few taxpayers saw fit to ask that the valuations on their lands be diminished.

Judge James, Commissioner J. Dunn and County Road Master Porter made a trip to the southern part of the county last week for the purpose of investigating road bridge work being done and under consideration in the Alsea and Yachats districts. Judge James stated that the party was favorably impressed with road and bridge conditions in that section. However at least one or two small bridges are necessary and these with other road construction are being taken care of as rapidly as possible.
