LINCOLN COUNTY LEADER, TOLEDO, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1922.

NO. 33.

BANKERS WOULD EXTEND CREDIT TO EUROPEANS

Would Reduce Portion of Allied Debts to U. S.; Loans to Coun- tries in Need Advocated Thru American Institutions.

Washington, Oct. 4.—A gigantic non-political undertaking, designed to effect economic stability in Europe, is in the making among big business and financial interests in this country.

The government has the fact support, if not actually proceeding at the informal suggestion of government spokesmen.

The initial steps are now taking place at the convention of the American Bankers' association in New York, where the views of the nation's leading financiers are being expounded on the question with a view of eventually effecting a definite basis of procedure.

While thus far the movement has not taken such tangible shape as to permit of a definite outline of the basic principles upon which the plan would be worked out are taking form.

Propose Bankers' Body.
First—It would comprehend the formation of an American commission of bankers and business men which would formulate a definite program and formally set it forth before the world as the American plan, such as Secretary Hughes advanced his program for limiting naval armament.

Second—It would comprehend the reduction of some of the allied debts to the United States, provided there was definite action by the allied powers toward adjusting their budgets and reducing the reparations claims, and reducing land armaments.

Third—It would comprehend definite assurances from the German government in the matter of meeting the adjusted reparations payments.

The plan would comprehend a complete overhauling of present systems practiced by different European countries in the matter of currency issues.

This effected, the way would be cleared for the extension of loans by the great American banks to countries needing assistance.

WORK ON HIGHWAY NEARS COMPLETION

Work on the Newport-Corvallis road is being pushed by the contractors and according to reports by tourists the road will soon be in such condition that motorists need have no fear of making the trip to the valley no matter what the weather conditions are.

The "final touches" are being given to the road between Toledo and Newport and it will be finished very shortly.

The road between here and Corvallis is rapidly nearing completion, according to state fair visitors who are returning. There only remains about six miles to be worked on his road.

SATURDAY NIGHT DANCE AT LEGION CLUB HOUSE

The American Legion hall has been leased to a private party and, according to bills that are now out, the first dance will be staged this Saturday night. The best of music has been arranged for including several musicions from Portland. The dance will start at 9 p. m.

The dances will be held regularly every Saturday evening.

FOUR MEN HURT WHILE WORKING AT PACIFIC SPURGE MILL

W. H. Logan, R. J. Fehnie, J. E. Anderson and Louis Holvarson Injured During Past 10 Days; None Serious.

Four accidents have occurred at the Pacific Spruce Mill here during the past 10 working days. However, none of them have been fatal and in no instance were the accidents caused by negligence on the part of the employees.

All four of the accidents happened in the steam generating department. On September 23 W. H. Logan fell from one of the boilers and lacerated his right hand; on September 23 R. J. Fehnie was seriously burned about the hands and face when he was cleaning a boiler with distillate, the electric extension cord he was using igniting the distillate causing an explosion; on October 2 J. E. Anderson suffered a crushed finger while doing laythe work and on Wednesday, Oct. 4, Louis Holvarson was seriously injured when an explosion occurred in the boiler room.

According to a report from the doctor's office all the accident victims are doing well and rapidly recovering.

FARM PROSPERITY HINGES ON KEEPING WORLD MARKET OPEN

Otto H. Kahn, International Banker, Back from Europe Sees our Obligations in Con- structive Measures.

Special to Lincoln County Leader.
By Robert Fuller.

New York, Sept. 4.—Otto H. Kahn, international banker and leader in world finances, is back in his New York offices at Kahn, Loeb & Co. after an extended stay in Europe for a close study of conditions there. His summary is positive when he says:

"The permanent prosperity of our American farmers depends upon establishing an even keel in world affairs and keeping world farm markets open for our surplus, because we have no other.

Of the Central European nations, Mr. Kahn says:

"It is appalling to contemplate, especially the dreadful conditions among the middle classes, their semi-starvation, and, in some cases, actual starvation."

"In a mass of animosities, jealousies and apprehensions they need and ask our co-operation, less even in a material sense than as helpful counselors and guides. It seems to me both our duty and our advantage to heed that call, in all modesty, I would venture to say, in a constructive sense, that we could do this.

How We Should Bargain With Europe.
"We should deal in a large visioned and liberal manner with the debts due us from the Allied nations, discriminating between war-making loans and those made after the Armistice. I would not relinquish any of our claims as a free gift, but only in consideration of measures leading to mitigation of conditions keeping Europe in turmoil."

Such a "bargain," the banker asserted, would be a good and profitable investment, resulting in securing not only a moral asset for America, but would be a distinct benefit to us.

The purchasing power of the European market, he holds, may not for a time be indispensable to our manufacturers, but it is to the prosperity of our farmers, because they have no other market for their surplus.

Some Things To Do at Home.
Regarding the United States, Mr. Kahn concluded:

"An era of great prosperity and beneficent progress is within our grasp. The one cloud on the horizon of our contentment and well being has been the disturbed relationship between capital and labor.

"There is no short cut to the total elimination of such distressing strife, but we must build our hope on the slow but sure remedy of growing reciprocal observance of the golden rule, spirit and practice of give and take, consideration for the rights of the public and a sincere and permanent effort at mutual forbearance and conciliation."

Mrs. L. E. Bain of Yaquina, passed through Toledo Saturday after taking in the Round-Up at Pendleton and the state fair at Salem. She was accompanied from here to Yaquina by her son, Little Bain.

PIERCE CAMPAIGN MUST BE FINANCED BY VOTERS

Indicating that the Pierce-for-Governor campaign will be carried direct to the people before the rapidly oncoming day of election, an advertisement is appearing simultaneously this week in the newspapers of the state making a plea for dollar subscriptions.

The issue seems to dwell particularly upon reduced taxes and no hint is given or claim made of party or partisan affiliations.

In the matter of campaign expenses it is pointed out that Mr. Pierce himself is not able to bear the brunt of placing his cause before the voters of Oregon, and it has been necessary to depend upon the small contributions of those who may have both a dollar and a vote.

GIANTS DRAW FIRST BLOOD IN WORLD'S BASEBALL SERIES

Defeat Yanks by Score of 3 to 2 in Wonderful Exhibition; Art Nehf Conquers Joe Bush Who is Knocked From Box in Eighth Inning.

(Special to the Leader)

New York, Oct. 4.—The New York Giants, winners of the National league pennant for 1922, upset the dope here today when they defeated the American League champions, the New York Yankees, in the first game of the world's series by the close margin of 3 to 2 before one of the largest crowds that ever attended a world's series opening day game. Thirty-five thousand people paid admissions.

Arthur Nehf, who created a world's series record in 1921 by holding the Yanks to 13 hits in three games was at his best and was the outstanding hero of Wednesday's contest. The formidable Joe Bush, pitching for the Yanks, was knocked from the box in the eighth inning and was relieved by White. Up to the fatal eighth it was "anybody's game" but in this frame McGraw's men staged a hitting rally that could not be stopped by the Yank twirlers.

The Giants made 11 safe hits and were credited with 3 errors while the Yankees had 7 safeties marked to their credit and no errors.

EXHIBIT OF SWEET BRIAR OVERLOOKED IN LEADER STORY

Compendium Takes Modest Slap at Leader for Slighting Wonderful Community Ex- hibit from That Section.

Note—We are in receipt of a de-respondent at Sweet Briar for failing to give that community mention of its wonderful exhibit displayed at the recent county fair held here. We did not intend to slight anybody but in looking back over the files we find that Sweet as we entirely overlooked them. This display was without doubt, the most wonderful of its kind ever exhibited at the local fair and was deserving of a column story by itself. It would have been a credit to Lincoln county at the state fair.

Modesty alone has kept this community out of print since the Lincoln county fair. We were a trifle disappointed that the Leader forgot to tell our friends who may not have been able to attend the fair that we really took the first prize for community exhibits. Not only that but we received considerable praise for the merits of our display. Mr. Addis writing in the Oregon Farmer said, "Sweet Briar community exhibit won first, with a wonderful variety of agricultural products, the arrangement being such as to bring the frequent remark that this exhibit ought to be taken to the state fair, to represent the county."

We should like to recognize the ones responsible for this successful exhibit through these columns but realize that it would necessitate mentioning everyone in our little community. Perhaps special thanks are due J. L. Thomas who furnished the plan and did much of the actual work of carrying it out, Kyniston Brothers, who manufactured and donated the very superior lumber used in making the booth, and Willard Graves who lent his skill in woodworking in constructing the booth and also assisted in placing the exhibits. The delightful spirit of cooperation that existed among all who helped in any way was a valuable asset and points the way to further successes in any line which we may undertake as a community.

Sweet Briar regrets the removal of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thomas from our neighborhood. They have always taken a leading part in community activities and have cheerfully used their talents in our behalf. Our loss is another's gain however.

Mrs. J. W. Rodgers is visiting her daughter in Portland. Mrs. Rodgers has been in very poor health this summer but we trust that she will soon return much benefitted by her trip.

School started on Monday with Miss Beattie Brigham as teacher. V. D. Grave, Fred Romtvedt and J. L. Thomas were visitors at the state fair at Salem last week.

Laurence and Elmer Erickson are attending high school in Toledo. Willard Graves took his tractor and the engine cutter to Ocala last week to fill the silos of Messrs. Peterson and Brash.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas of Corvallis are at the J. W. Rodgers home. Mrs. Lucas is a sister of Mrs. Rodgers'.

Harry Johnson is now school clerk.

LEGAL REASONS MAKE NECESSARY STATE VOTE ON 1925 WORLD'S FAIR

Technical legal reasons make it necessary for the people of the state to vote on the question of the 1925 exposition, according to an explanation issued by the exposition committee. While the measure authorizing a tax of $3,000,000 will be on the ballot in Portland, the measure on the ballot in the rest of the state will be on to authorize Portland to overcome the state tax limitation law which otherwise would prohibit Portland from levying the tax. No tax is provided outside of Portland.

"Before Portland can levy a tax within Portland it is necessary to have the approval of the voters of the entire state," says the committee report. "This is due to the six percent tax limitation act which reads in part as follows: 'Unless specifically authorized by a majority of the legal voters voting upon the question, neither the state nor any municipal, district or body to which the power to levy a tax shall have been delegated, shall in any year so exercise that power to raise a greater amount of revenue for purposes other than the payment of bonded indebtedness of interest thereon than the total amount levied by it in the year immediately preceding for purposes other than the payment of bonded indebtedness of interest thereon, plus six percentum thereof.'"

The six per cent limit applies in the proposal by Portland for the city to exceed that limit, which the $3,000,000 tax would do, the constitution must be amended and this cannot be done except at a state wide election and with the approval of the voters at large.

NEWCOMERS MUST REGISTER TO VOTE NOVEMBER ELECTION

Registration Places at Toledo, Newport and Waldport; Sat- urday, October 7, Last Day.

County Fight to Be Centered Around Sheriff's Office; State Politics Seem to Be in a Mess.

If you are a newcomer and haven't registered you will have to do so before next Saturday evening in order that you may exercise your right of suffrage at the polls next month. There are three registration places in the county, according to County Clerk Carl Gilderlove—The county clerk's office in Toledo; the home of Mrs. Clara May at Waldport and the Yaquina Bay News at Newport.

Any American citizen who has been a resident of Oregon for six months, and a resident of the county for 30 days prior to the date of election is entitled to a vote and as there are hundreds of new people in this vicinity there should be a grand rush for the places or registration.

The clerk's office will hold open until 6 o'clock Friday evening to accommodate those who wish to register after a week.

The political pot in the county has not started to boil as yet but it is understood that the "big fight" will be centered on the sheriff's office. Mrs. M. Simpson, the present incumbent, on the Republican ticket and G. H. Horsfall on the Democratic ticket.

Mrs. Simpson's friends claim that her administration has been one of the most efficient in the history of the county and deny the claim that the office is "a man's job," the plea being circulated by her opponents. It is pointed out that no matter who happens to be sheriff, either the official or a deputy must take care of the tax receipts and Mrs. Simpson has proven very efficient in this department, while she is compelled to turn the outside work to a deputy. Mr. Horsfall's friends are backing him on a "law enforcement" issue and it is claimed for him that he is a man of ability.

State politics well, the following paragraphs, are the views expressed by one Oregon (democratic) editor:

POLITICS NOW A REAL MESS

Pierce Deserts Party Standards; Republicans Are Split.

Engene Guard (Dem.)
The unexpected flop of Walter M. Pierce from a democratic platform featuring reduction of taxes to advocacy of the measures sponsored by the Ku Klux Klan and the more or less unexpected entrance of Chas. Hall into the race for governor as an independent Klan-republican candidate has made a real mess of politics in Oregon. It seems, however, the logical outcome of a wideopen primary where anybody may run for office on any kind of a platform.

What the result at the polls will be only a guess may be safely ventured. Probably, following the example of men like Olesby Young, the Portland democratic warhorse, most of the regular democrats, taught since Jefferson's time to oppose the injection of religion and race issues into politics and just as positively set against restrictions by law upon personal liberty, will vote for Governor Olescott, while the thousands of republican members of secret political organizations who supported Mr. Hall in the primaries will probably vote for Mr. Pierce in November.

The independent candidacy of Hall would indicate a split in these ranks, but there is a general feeling that either Hall or Pierce will be pulled out of the race, probably the former. So we'll all haul down our old party colors and run up the black flag of religious and racial feud and attempt to force the other fellow to think the way we do or lock him up in jail.

The Bourbon ship comes round the bend—
All loaded down with Ku Klux men—
Good-bye, old party, good-bye!

K. P. LODGE WILL ORGANIZE HERE

Roy Hammersley, assistant superintendent of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias, is a Toledo business visitor this week. He is attempting to organize a "odge" in this city. He has found several members of the order here and Newport.

Arrangements have been made to hold a meeting in the Odd Fellows hall on Monday evening, Oct. 16, and all knights of Pythias, whether in good standing or not, are earnestly requested to be present. It is thought that at least one of the Supreme lodge officers will be present.

YANKS AND GIANTS BATTLE TO A TIE IN SECOND GAME

J. Barnes for Nationals and Schawkey for the Americans Engage in Great Pitchers' Bat- tle With Honors Even.

(Special to the Leader by Courtesy of the Corvallis-Gazette Times)

The New York Giants and the New York Yankees battled to a tie of 3 to 3 at the Polo grounds Thursday afternoon in the second game of the world's series. It was one of the greatest pitchers' battles every witnessed in the metropolitan city, the opposing twirlers being Barnes for the Giants and Schawkey for the Yanks. The game was called at the end of the 10th inning because of darkness and one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a world's series contest was compelled to leave the park "in the air" as to what the final outcome would be.

Snyder was behind the bat for the Giants and Schang for the Yanks.

HENRY CAMPBELL, Observer.

of district No. 10 and Mrs. Robertson has been elected to serve in place of Mrs. Rodgers on the board of directors.

The October meeting of our community club was confined largely to a consideration of local problems. It was voted to use the proceeds of our exhibit prize towards the erection of a suitable fence around our school grounds. With so much loose stock roaming the highways it seems imperative to protect the grounds and buildings from these marauders. W. A. Kyniston generously offered the use of his sawmill and also the timber to saw boards and posts for this fence. Now if all the men and boys will respond in the same spirit when the call comes to help in the work, we shall have our fence as well as a fine feeling of satisfaction in having accomplished another good work. V. D. Grave is chairman of this project.

Our next program, first Sunday in November, will be in charge of M. O. Thompson. Mrs. Willard Graves will arrange the lunch. A hint was given that a mystery may be cleared up at that time. There also seems to be afloat a scheme to bring to justice a suspected culprit. Everybody be there to see the fun. A committee of young folks was appointed to canvas the neighborhood and urge each and every individual to attend our meetings. We need you and want you there.

Your correspondent still desires and solicits contributions. Do not blame her if she fails to get all the news.

We understand that Ernest Bryant of Siletz has bought Herbert Kyniston's farm. We shall welcome the Bryants to our neighborhood. They expect to build a new house in the spring.
