

IN MEMORY.

Sadie Cook was born at Siletz, October 6, 1893, and died suddenly at her home October 8th, 1922, at the age of 29 years. She was all alone when death came. Her sister, Mable Fairchild, had gone for the doctor when Sadie passed away about 4 a. m. When the doctor and Mabel returned the young lady was found lying on the bed quiet and calm as though asleep. She leaves to mourn her untimely death two sisters, Mabel Fairchild, Mrs. Fred Hasteter and a grandfather, Baldwin Fairchild. She attended school at Siletz and also Chemawa and was very well educated. She had many good qualities. She was neat and clean in her person, generous to a fault, kind and courteous to everyone. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church, conducted by Rev. C. W. Pogue, pastor. The church was crowded. Some had to stand during the service. The sermon was eloquent, kind and pathetic, sparkling with the true spirit of Christianity as taught by the Great Master. The minister said how often people speak of the faults of others when they know but little about them. How much better it would be to speak of their good qualities and thus help them to lead better lives. He urged the congregation to accept Jesus as their personal savior and thus prepare for the great day that will soon come upon us all. A choir of young ladies sang some beautiful selections. Miss Linda Kimble presided at the piano. The casket was covered with the most beautiful flowers donated by friends in token of their love and friendship they had for the departed. DR. F. M. CARTER.

TAFT

Walter Bones is recovering from an accident at the roam camp. He was struck on the head by the handle of a Fresno. Mr. Wolfe has returned from a trip to Portland. He took his son, John out to have an x-ray examination of his fractured leg. Miss All Liswig has gone to begin her school near Dallas. This is her second year's teaching and in the same school. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bones will go to the valley this week to visit and transact business. They will bring a load of fruit on their return. It is reported that the Warren Construction Co., shut down work at the Salmon river on account of the rains being too severe. We think this is the best season we have had for some time. J. Liswig has gone to the valley. He took All to her school, and Adalene and Edwin went out to have glasses fitted to their eyes. Mr. and Mrs. Alley, stepfather and mother of F. C. Robinson, have returned to Portland. Taft's high school is progressing very well, with an attendance of fourteen. The teacher is C. E. Oliver. Messrs Wolf and Brown have moved to Taft for high school advantages. Students are attending from Devil's Lake and near Otis. When we get our new high school building we will be proud. Johnny Wolf is our latest student to enter. He was detained on account of the serious accident he met with during the summer.

President Doty of the Multnomah Box Co., and Mr. Davis inventor of the Davis Log Raft, spent Monday night at Taft. They are contemplating rafting logs out of Siletz Bay to Astoria.

WRIGHT'S CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. U. P. Myers were Toledo business visitors Wednesday of last week. Mrs. T. Huntsucker and two sons, George and Clifford, of Oysterville were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huntsucker's Sunday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman of Winant were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huntsucker last Friday. L. D. Nash of Nashville passed thru here Friday on his way to Beaver Creek and Balview. Our mail carrier, Bennie Twombly had a little hard luck on his return home to Bay View Saturday afternoon when the front spring of his car broke causing a delay of about two hours in delivering the mail.

SILETZ H. S. INDEX.

The Siletz H. S. student body held a meeting Thursday for the benefit of the athletic association. The boys are getting practiced up for basketball. They mean to get up some lively games this season and beat the "other fellows." Jack Warwick went fishing the other night and caught seven nice trout. He felt very proud of his catch. Do you blame him? Nine more pupils have started to the Siletz school and more are reported coming. Mr. Balloy and his brother-in-law, came to Siletz Sunday, to see Mr. Balloy's family. Mr. and Mrs. C. Larsen and daughter, Vivian, who returned from the hop-yard Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick of Toledo, came to Siletz Tuesday to fish. They sported good luck. Mrs. L. Tronson and son, Adolph, came home from the hop-yard Thursday evening.

LITERAL LEONARD.

They were eloping. They stopped the car and started to get out in front of the minister's house. "Wait a minute, darling," said the eloping swain. "This is not the right place, after all." "Why," purred the one and only one. "See that sign. It says—no hitching here." The railroad strike has been a good thing for some Toledo people. It has made their mail order packages late, thus calling their minds to the fact that merchants in our own locality are a necessity.

TOGETHER THEY STAND. Autolist—"Say, constable, what is that red light for?" Constable—"To keep people from falling over that pile of stones." "Well, what are the stones for?" "My, but yer dumb! They hold up the light."

THAT'S SERVICE.

"Walter!" yelled the angry customer, "these apples are not fit for a hog to eat!" "M' sorry, sir," replied the civil man with a towel on his arm. "If you will wait just a minute I will get you some that are, sir." YES, INDEED. "I could never bear to be a widow's second husband," said the young brother of a man who was marrying a widow. "Well, for my part," remarked the bridegroom, with a twinkly smile, "I'd very much rather be a widow's second husband than her first."
