AN ILLUMINATING ANECDOTE

Hon. James H. MacLafferty, a brand new republican representative from California, made his maiden speech recently, and it was on the ship and bill. He related an anecdote which was interesting and decidedly pointed to illustrate the absence of the Ameriand groan. He says of information it doesn't have a crumb, but you ought to hear him yell when the paper doesn't come.

He's always first to grab it and he reads it plumb clean through. He doesn't miss an item or a want ad this is true. He says they don't know what he wants, the darn newspaper-

HANDLING COWS.
Among my neighbors herabouts are several gruff two-fisted scouts, who handle cows with cuffs and clouts and split whacks on their ribs. They're al-high rank of Oregon cheese.

"ILLEGITIMATE PARENTS"
The world has heard much about "illegitimate children," but sentiment is growing in favor of phrasing it "illegitimate parents," which is more nearly just.

Why should any child have to bear, socially, the sin of its parents? Two people sinned; justice demands that they bear their own sin. In this case the innocent should not suffer for the guilty. To give justice to the child born out of wedlock should be the aim and end of law, and the guilty should be compelled to right the wrong as far as possible, and to make repar-

THE SPECIAL SESSION.

No excuse of belian pursued by Mr.
Harding has been more statesmanlike than his resolute resolve to uphold the shipyard of American. In calling a special session of Congress, largely to consider this problem, he brings clearly before the country the most pressing and serious issue that con-

THE LITTLE DAIRY COW" ENTITLED TO BEST HELP Oregon dairy cows have done their part better than those of any other state, but Oregon butter used to be the bunk for quality. That was not "the little mortgage holders' fault," and the better class of Oregon dairymen insist that she be given the best and wisest help possible in boosting for Oregon. So lots of improvement has been made lately in the quality of butter, and there is no good reason why it should not be brought up to

WHEN THE PAPER DON'T COME.

My father says the paper he reads ain't out up right. He finds a lot of puzzles by doing, porus at it at night. He says there ain't a single thing in it worth the while to read, and that it doesn't print the kind of stuff the people need. He tosses it aside and says its strictly on the beam—but you ought to hear him yell when the paper don't come.
He reads about the wedding and he swears like all get out; he reads the second debate and it's a most desirive sheet. He says they make the papers for the winner, lotta times; he reads about the parties and he'll fume, frot-
