LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Jacksonville Items.

The Court House is having a new floor put in and is in process of general renovation.

A bear was seen on Jackson Creek last Sunday, and the circumstance is successfully used by mothers who desire to keep their urchins close at home.

Political discussion between Hon. Wm. H. Odell and Hon. H. Klippel begins at Linkville on the 19th inst. They are candidates for Presidential Electors on the Republican and Democratic tickets.

The Alden fruit factory started on Monday morning, and is turning out a splendid article of dried apples. It will be run entirely on apples this season, having been started too late to save the peach and plum crops.

A man named Hell, in the employ of Jacob Ish, was severely injured, last week, on Jackass Creek, by being thrown by a fractious mule and run over by his wagon. He had two ribs broken, but is not dangerously injured.

The citizens of this place voted last Thursday to run the District School free for the ensuing year. The tax necessary for this purpose and to raise the funds to pay for the school addition is one per cent, only one dissenting voice—a bachelor.

Jesse Thomas, an old and respected citizen of "The Meadows," on Evans Creek, had one of his legs broken in two places below the knee, on Saturday last. Mr. Thomas was hauling logs for his saw mill, when his team ran away and he unfortunately had a log to run over his leg with the above result. He was promptly attended to by Dr. Aiken.

J. W. Berry started for Oakland, Oregon, on Wednesday, with a load of rich cinnabar. The ore is from the Emerald mine and will be retorted there to supply the home market in this county, the company not having had time to put up a retort on Beaver Creek this Fall. The ore is fully fifty per cent, and it is probable that we will export quicksilver in future instead of importing it.

Social Jottings.

Ashland enjoys the social privileges to a greater extent, perhaps, than any village in the State, and we have for a long time contemplated dishing up a few social items each week; but the young folks are a little sly, so that one must be an Alfred Russell-er to get hold of any news of that character—Moses as hard as building stone fence. We have picked up a few items, however, which we give:

They say another Fountain has been discovered at the Soda Springs. It was first seen on last Sunday—walked there, you know, all the way from Ashland. The distribution of the mail was a little late that evening, and this fact may account for it.

Moses and Dan Forth have been seen together lately. Well, what of it? Our constable was caught Neiling to one of our fair ones a few evenings since. He says he couldn't help it—it was All-Fred's fault. It's all right Leander, you needn't blush so!

One of our young ladies who has been sojourning at Cottonwood for some time, came back last week. She says she don't enjoy travel by stage. By the way, it does Rock-a-fellow up considerably.

We were just about to say that our young ladies appreciate Merritt where-over found, but our devil yells for copy in a manner that Wil(l)ts us; but we will have more to say next week.

Our town is rapidly increasing in population. Every day we hear strangers making inquiry for houses, which are now scarcely to be had. Many contemplate purchasing lots and building.

It was on one of those delightful evenings of last week. He suggested a moonlight ramble. She thought it would be charming and they rambled. As they wended their way through the silent grove of alders, "lost in heavenly visions of love's first dream," a frisky little animal capered along the path before them. She thought it was her pet kitty, her dear little Tabby, and exclaimed: "Oh John Henry, catch him, do catch him!" He went for that animal. He followed it into an old shed and made a dive for it. Then he came out and remarked that he thought that was a Limburgher cheese factory. She seemed to be trying to swallow a cambric handkerchief and said in smoother accents: "Why John Henry, that wasn't my kitty." He looks thoughtful, now, and becomes unnecessarily angry when asked what kind of perfumery he uses.

MURDER IN SCOTT'S VALLEY.—Sheriff Jones, of Siskiyou County, California, was in this place last Sunday in pursuit of two young men charged with murdering a man named Gordon, near Lafayette Mill, Scott's Valley, on the 6th inst. The killing seems to have been the result of a quarrel originating in a horse race between the parties a few days previous. While here Sheriff Jones received a dispatch from one of the parties charged with the killing, from Henley, where he had given himself into the hands of an officer. He claims that he had no hand in the crime but was present and was forced to accompany the guilty party in his flight. The last heard of the other fugitive he was on the way to Linkville. He is closely pursued and cannot well escape capture.

MAGNIFICENT FRUIT.—Mr. O. Coolidge, of the Ashland Nursery, has the thanks of this office for a basket of the choicest grapes. Following are some varieties: The Black and White Hamburg, Catawba, Concord, Flaming Toka, White Muscat of Alexander, Fiharigue, Red Tremina, Rose of Peru, Muscatine, etc. Many of the clusters weighed over a pound and for flavor and size the grapes were never excelled. Mr. Coolidge also presented a sample of a new variety of apple, called the Anderson Seedling. It is a native of this county and is unexcelled among the Fall varieties.

The Cuban revolutionists are still holding their own in their struggle with the Spanish authorities. After five years' of devastating war the Spanish government finds itself powerless to establish law on an island a little larger than Jackson and Josephine Counties. Is it not time for Uncle Sam to put a stop to such matters in his immediate neighborhood?

An act has passed both Houses of the Legislature to re-locate the County Seat of Josephine County. The act provides that the people of the county shall, at the next general election, vote upon the towns of Kerbyville and Wilderville, and the one receiving the greatest number of votes cast shall be declared the County Seat.

A LETTER received here on last Wednesday, from Albany, brought the intelligence of the death of John Miller, brother of Elias Miller, of this place, which occurred on the 7th inst. Mr. Miller had been afflicted for a number of years with neuralgia, which defied medical skill and finally resulted in his death.

We learn that there has been a little neighborhood excitement over on Applegate. A certain minister is charged with knocking his little daughter down with his fist because he found the child at the house of a neighbor without his permission. Rather a forcible manner of impressing moral precepts, in our opinion.

CHANGE OF WEATHER.—For the past few days the weather has been cloudy, with average Oregon mist descending most of the time. We have been endeavoring to appreciate the feelings of our friends who are encamped on the State Fair Grounds, but fear we have not been able to do the subject full justice.

FIRST round of quarterly meetings: Applegate Circuit, at Morning Star—Fourth Sunday in October. Jacksonville Circuit, at Manzanita—Fifth Sunday. Table Rock Circuit, at Sam's Valley—First Sunday in November. The officary will please attend. J. W. SEARL, P. E.

SPLENDID ORGANS.—The Star Parlor Organ, which is advertised in our columns, is the best now manufactured. Persons desiring to purchase an instrument of the kind should not fail to address Alleger, Bowlby & Co., Washington, N. J.

MANY Lake County people have been in town during the past week, purchasing their winter supplies of goods and groceries of our merchants.

The Ashland Academy and district schools are rapidly filling up with bright, happy, intelligent pupils.

JACKSON COUNTY AT THE FAIR.—Jackson County has a fine array of horses at the State Fair. The stables of W. C. Myer, Judge Tolman and John Watson are centers of attraction among those who understand and value fine stock.

STILL THEY COME.—There are more pretty girls in Ashland than any other town of its size in the State. The man who disputes this is no friend of ours. And still they come, to avail themselves of our excellent school facilities.

AN Applegate correspondent informs us that some hungry brother has been stealing flour, lately, in that vicinity. We are of the opinion that the business will hardly pay with that article at only one dollar per sack.

The most beautiful display of rare flowers within our knowledge may be seen in front of the elegant residence of O. Coolidge, our enterprising nurseryman and florist, in the northern part of town.

QUITE a number of Indians, large and small, male and female, from Klamath Reservation, have been about town during the week. Externally, their appearance is decidedly fishy.

Two sanguine, and opposing, gentlemen settled a political dispute in town, last Tuesday, by betting a fine horse each on the result of the Presidential contest in the State of New York.

A YOUNG man named Dempsey, of Polk County, was mistaken for a wild animal and shot dead by a comrade while hunting in the hills near Dixie, one day last week.

EX-SATE Treasurer E. N. Cooke and lady, of Salem, passed through town on their way to California last Saturday. They go on a tour of recreation and pleasure.

The rear room of R. B. Hargadine's new brick is being painted and otherwise completed. It is an elegant structure, both in design and workmanship.

A LOCAL political economist has discovered a Cooper and Cary man in this county. He is supposed to be the only living specimen in Southern Oregon.

UNTENANTED.—Ashland has had a calaboose nearly two years and it has never yet had a tenant. What other town of its size can say as much?

The Howe Sewing Machine has been awarded the highest premium at the Centennial exhibition. Dimick & Son have lots of them.

The roads are alive with heavy freight wagons bringing supplies of goods and groceries to the merchants of the valley.

A NUMBER of persons from Ashland and vicinity are attending the Siskiyou County Fair, at Yreka, this week.

LEUCAN APPLAGATE started for Southern California with his family last Tuesday. They go to spend the Winter.

J. M. McCall & Co. are receiving great additions to their already mammoth stock of Fall goods.

A NUMBER of new residences are being erected in town notwithstanding the lateness of the season.

GEORGE COX, of the Linkville Land Office, returned from a visit to Salem last week.

We receive the West Shore only semi-occasionally. What's wrong, Brother Sarnel?

DEPUTY Sheriff Seybert was in town last Tuesday looking after official matters.

A BEAUTIFUL pattern of hand-irons can be had at the Ashland Foundry.

No frost to nip gardens in this vicinity yet.

A ticket speculator offers a visitor a ticket for Wagner's first night: "Fifty francs? That's awfully dear." "Possibly; but this is for the best seat in the house." "Where?" "Nearest the door."

"You labor over much at your composition, doctor," said a flippant clergyman to an eminent divine. "I write a sermon in three hours and make nothing of it." "So your congregation says," quoth the doctor.

The superiority of man to nature is continually illustrated in literature and in life. Nature needs an immense quantity of quills to make a goose with; but man can make a goose of himself in five minutes with one quill.

Lord Thornton's son—while traveling in New England, modestly asked to have a whole car placed entirely at his disposal. He was informed that Lord Thornton himself could not have a car on that road without paying for it.

A little boy six years old, and a little girl eight, were looking at the clouds one beautiful Summer evening watching their fantastic shapes when the boy exclaimed, "Oh, Minnie, I see a dog in the sky!" "Well, Willie," replied the sister, "it must be a sky terrier."
