GEN. GRANT CHIEF IN LONDON.

On Saturday last, at Guildhall, London, among about 800 English ladies and gentlemen, Gen. Grant was presented with the freedom of the city, in the following hearty speech by the Lord Mayor:

I as chief magistrate of the City of London, and on the part of the corporation offer you as hearty a welcome as the sincerity of language can convey. Your presence here as late President of the United States is especially gratifying to all classes of the community, and we feel that although this is your first visit to England it is not a stranger we greet but a true and honored friend. Twice occupying as you did the exalted position of President of the United States, and therefore one of the foremost representatives of that country, we confer an honor upon ourselves by honoring you. Let me express both the hope and belief that when you take your departure you will feel that many true friends of yours personally, and also of your countrymen have been left behind. I have the distinguished honor to propose your health. "May you long live to enjoy the best health and unqualified happiness."

THE MAILS.

The following order has been issued from Washington, upon which the contractors are now acting. Third class matter includes newspapers as well as magazines etc. In consequence of this subscribers to eastern papers will hereafter receive them just about one month later than usual, which will render them almost worthless:

Washington, D. C., May 29th, 1877. T. N. VALE, Esq., Gen. Sup't. U. S. MAIL. In order to lighten the mail on route 4623, between Redding and Roseburg Oregon, you will please direct Assistant Superintendent McBride to send, from and after this date, all through third class matter, such as magazines etc. for Oregon and Washington Territory, by the steamer from San Francisco to Portland, and all matter of the first class via C. & O. Railroad as at present.

THOS. J. BRADY, Second As't P. M. General.

OREGON DAY.

On the 15th of June, 1846, the plenipotentiaries of the United States and Great Britain signed, at Washington City, the treaty that gave to the United States Government, all the northwest coast now known as Oregon, Washington and Idaho. The Statesman says the Oregon Pioneer Association have selected this day to be Oregon's 4th of July—to be observed as an annual holiday, and to be known as "Oregon Day." The Annual Reunion of the Association was held this year at the State Fair grounds, and was the occasion by the "old timers" for relaxation and merry-making. Early in the morning the road to the Fair Grounds was lined with wagons carrying merry loads of people to the shady grove. By 11 o'clock people were everywhere, numbering perhaps 2,500 or 3,000 souls.

THE MORMON CURSE.

The United States Government has at last awakened to the necessity of taking steps to bring the arant lawlessness of Mormonism into subjection. So atrocious in their crimes, and so concealed in their idiotic blindness, have these people become, that they have thought to set at defiance both the laws of God and man. Murder and its attendant hideous crimes have for so many years been so frequent as to be daily looked for. The promulgation of their pernicious dogmas, and perpetration of grave misdeeds is a foul stigma and a blot upon the American character, and should at once be obliterated and the leaders meet the punishment so justly due for their violation of law and morality. Those who have not been among them can have no adequate idea of the beastliness of some of the acts of those who stand highest in the Mormon church. We hope there will be no let up on the part of the authorities until full retribution has been awarded the wicked members of this miscreant race; and from the power given the U. S. Attorney at Salt Lake, by the Government, we may reasonably expect some wholesome purging in the near future.

ANOTHER INDIAN WAR!

Reported Uprising of the Indians near Mt. Idaho!

Settlers Murdered, Troops on Their way to the Scene!!

WALLULA, June 16th, 9 A. M. CAPT. AINSWORTH—Indians murdering settlers about Mount Idaho. Steamer necessary for safety of life, to convey troops from Wallula to-morrow. Please give necessary instructions immediately. [Signed] M. C. WILKINSON, Aide-de-Camp to O. O. Howard Gen. Com'g Dept.

A steamer with troops was immediately dispatched and later in the day a dispatch was received from Walla Walla to the effect that a man named Ben Norton, living on Cottonwood Creek near Camas Swale had been murdered by the Indians, and that his wife had been maltreated—having both of her legs broken. A report has also been received at Fort Lapwai that there was a general uprising of the Indians near Mount Idaho, and they were massacring the settlers in that region. The messenger who brought the news to Fort Lapwai had been entrapped by the Indians and wounded. Great excitement prevails in that part of the country over these startling reports. Norton who is reported to have been murdered, was formerly employed by Hill Beachy of Lewiston.

LATER.—June 17th, 4 o'clock P. M.—Rumors are and have been for the last 36 hours very conflicting in relation to where the Indians are and what they have done. Many of them are very exaggerated. The truth is had enough to alarm the whole country. The following is the substance from Mt. Idaho: That a part of the Indians had gone to attack the settlers on Salmon River, and a part had gone to a fortified place on Cottonwood creek below Chapman's; that Capt. James Baker, Samuel Benedict, wife and four children, Harry Mason, Henry Elfriz and the Warrens expressman had been killed on Salmon River. That a pack train of forty mules had been attacked near Cold Spring and the two white men, Davenport and Ousley killed, and two half-breed Indians escaped and the cargo was captured; that the Indians and settlers were fighting below Chapman's.

Indian runners to the agency, state that it had been ascertained that 29 whites had been killed so far as known; that the whites had killed White Bird, the chief of his band, and his family.

6:30 P. M.—The troops with 150 men from Mount Idaho encountered the Indians at the head of White Bird Canyon, troops dismounted and left a few soldiers and the 20 friendly Indians to hold their horses. The Indians opened the fire upon the troops and fighting was continued for some time. The friendly Indians became alarmed, and the soldiers guarding the horses could see that the Indians were getting the best of the fight and the soldiers retreating. The citizens' captain, Sergeant Lytle, and one soldier was known to be killed, and the whole horse guard of Indians and whites broke and ran, some for Mount Idaho and some for Lapwai, leaving the horses to run loose over the prairie. Those coming to Lapwai never stopped till they reached the post. The result of the fight is not known. Many of the houses on the prairie are burned.

8 o'clock A. M. June 18—D. Munroe arrived from the garrison at half past 2 this morning and tells us that a third soldier had arrived at the garrison last evening from the fight, and reported the troops on foot are surrounded by the Indians in the canyon and in a hand to hand fight. Col. Perry and about one-half of the command are said to be killed and the remainder surrounded in the canyon and fighting against odds when the soldier left.

J. P. Vollmer, of Lewiston telegraphed to the Mayor of Portland as follows: For humanity sake send up 50 or 100 stands of arms with ammunition. The Indians have broken out on Salmon river and Camas prairie. They have massacred 30 or 40 men, women and children, and the work is still going on. We have men but few arms.

P. S.—June 18th.—Settlers on Palouse and Paradise valley and from all the country north of us, are fleeing in here for protection. Farmers are all abandoning their farms, stock and everything.
