LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Haul in your bunting.
"Oh he couldn't—and she couldn't."
We'll soon have peaches and cream.
Honck's ice-cream was the popular beverage Wednesday.
C. B. Watson Esq., of this place orated at Brownborough.
The young folks had a lively dance, on Wednesday night.
Ashland's second nine beat the first nine in a match game, the 4th.
Mowers are mowing, reapers are reaping and thrashers are thrashing.
Nearly all of our weekly exchanges "shut up" for liberty's sake, this week.
James Clark has been appointed postmaster at Yreka, Lake county.

The weather couldn't have behaved itself better than it did at the celebration.
The Jacksonville boys say it was Ashland's blue shirts that did it to them.
The "Oldies" dresses now-a-days are like "Ladies' Grimes" coat—all buttoned down before.
Another big day is shoved out of sight, and the people are ready for business again.
A fresh supply of new material just received at the Tidings office—come on with your job work.
W. A. McPherson Esq., has returned from his trip to Portland and will remain permanently among us.
Harry Crandall, son of C. P. Crandall, left this place for San Francisco, last week, where he goes to reside.
Several more big teams from Redding have been unloading new goods at McCall & Co's. this week.
MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's parents, June 28, Mr. J. Q. Willis and Miss Amy Dunn.
Mr. Hutchins, formerly of Roseburg has located here, with the intent, we believe, of establishing a glove factory.
Teamsters report the road beyond the Siskiyou, badly worked up by the late rains. One wagon was a whole day making the distance of two miles.
The recent term of Circuit Court for Lake county had but few cases. One individual by the name of Cogswell was indicted for perjury.
About 1,000 people attended our celebration yesterday, whose baskets were loaded with enough good things to eat for as many more.
Hon. Geo. Conn, of Linkville, smiled in upon this week. George "took his Fourth" in Ashland this time, and we know he enjoyed it, from the way he circulated among the ladies.
The other day one of our enterprising blacksmiths successfully accomplished the feat of shoeing a horse with a kicking capacity of about fifty-six strokes to the second.
Attention farmers! Five hundred seamless sacks, five hundred grain sacks, and a large stock of draper duck just received by J. M. McCall & Co.

Our city marshal, Mr. Isaac Miller, has leveled up the public square, and caused the streets to be raked and swept, which causeth our flourishing little city to look as neat as a new rag carpet.
Mr. J. W. Riggs, just in from California, has erected a tent next to the Post office, and is prepared to take pictures of any style or size. Several years' acquaintance with Mr. Riggs, warrants us in saying that he is a first-class artist.

In the trial of Lowe vs. Patterson, et al, in Justice Sutton's court this week, judgement was rendered for the plaintiff in the sum of $27.50.

Our city marshal has made one or two arrests for fast riding on the streets, lately, so our boys will have to begin to look a "leedle out purty soon."

The following is a list of contracts awarded for mail service in Ogn: Goose Lake to Prineville, Alfred R. Jones, $3,275; Canyon City to Camp McDermott, S. S. Huntley $5,500; Astoria to Gray's river, rejected, the lowest, $9,000, being considered too high.

Our picnic celebration passed off as smooth as a peeled onion. The programme was carried out in full, Judge Tolman acting as generalissimo of the day. Rev. Mr. Skidmore's oration was pointed practical and not too long, and was well received. The Glee Club rendered good music, and there was more than enough to eat. Not a sign of intoxication about the grounds nor in the town, the whole day long.

The Alleghenians, Swiss bell ringers and players on glasses, gave an entertainment at this place on the evening of July 4th. The large Academy building was literally packed, and from the repeated applause given, there was no question about the audience's high appreciation of the performance of this accomplished troupe. They are all they claim to be, and none will ever regret an evening spent at one of their excellent entertainments.

MURDERED BY INDIANS.—By a private letter, received at this place, information has been received stating that D. M. Coone was murdered and thrown into the Yakima river by the Indians about two weeks ago. His body was recovered in a terribly mutilated condition. Eastern Oregon papers, also, contain an account of the murder. Mr. Coone had a family residing in Waukegan, W. T. He was a brother-in-law of W. A. McPherson of this place and an extensive stock raiser and dealer.

NEW PATENTS.—Through Dewey & Co., Patent Agents, San Francisco, we receive the following list of U. S. patents, granted to Pacific Coast inventors, viz:

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS.

July 3d, 1877.
—A band of Gypsies visited this place last week telling fortunes, and one of our citizens who believed in the supernatural power of the prognosticator invested a half eagle for a horoscope of the future, and was surprised to learn that we would have a conflagration within a month.
—Sections of an old mining flume still extend through the center of town and vividly remind us of earlier days when our harvest was golden, it may be an object of great interest to travelers, should they learn that gold could be picked up under our streets.
—There are at present seven county charges in the hospital under care of Dr. Danforth who is chief engineer of that machine for one year.
—The "bottomless pit" in front of the Post Office where the horse and stage mired last week has been repaired, now the drivers can crack their whips and make a fearless dash as they draw up, it is a very important question "has the stage arrived."

—A company of volunteers are tendered Gov. Chadwick from this county for the Indian war now raging in Idaho.
—Born, on Applegate to the wife of James London a son. The old time rocker will be brought into service.
—Telegraph Office has been removed to the Sentinel building, and now we can expect the morning news by the week.

—Nine Miles of the Sterlingville ditch is now let, the last contract of one mile secured by J. W. Reynolds & Co., at 25c per cubic yard. Reames Bros. furnish supplies and a force of men have deployed on the line.

—The Prasley goblin that gobbled the provisions last week made another visitation and a beautiful young lady who was stopping there as company for the night, escaped being captured, the neighborhood are alarmed.
—A piece of alum as large as a walnut being applied to a child of Mr. Williams afflicted with the yellow thrush, slipped from the nurse's fingers and according to law of gravitation went down—if it were an india rubber child it would have been turned inside out in no time, however the casualty did not result seriously.

—At their last regular meeting, Jacksonville Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., elected the following officers for the ensuing term: S. J. Day, N. G.; Dan. Cronmiller, V. G.; Kasper Kubli, R. S.; F. Levy, T.

—Preparations are nearly completed to start an Encampment branch of the I. O. O. F. at this place.

—We will gush and enthuse with powder and patriotism to-morrow, and then gorged with music "and so forth," retire on our dignified laurels and "et cetera" next day.

—A store will be opened soon in the building formerly occupied by the Electro Galvano Magneto, thunder and lightning man, next to Dillons Saloon.

—Five new glass has been put in Miss McCully's show case, the gentlemen must feel greatly agitated when they visit her store. THEOBOLD.

LETTER FROM A RUSTICATOR.

EDITOR TIDINGS:—Tiring of the din and bustle of our busy little city, and feeling a sort of general lassitude for business, I concluded to take a trip to the rural districts, turned my course to the Soda Springs—a place of so much interest to "travelers," of late. I passed, for some distance, through a slightly broken country, unsurpassed for beauty and fertility, in which are situated, among many other pleasant habitations, the stately mansions of Messrs. Walker, Dunn, and Judge Tolman. The abundant harvest of this happy people is just ripening, and the lively clatter of farm machinery is heard on every hand. I had no more than arrived at my destination, when I spied a bevy of ladies venturing their way springwards, and of course I was invited to join the merry cavalcade, and did so. A few paces on, a slight descent, and we stand in the cool shade on the banks of this wonderful production of nature, which gushes forth in sparkling splendor, for the sons and daughters of man. Of this—nature's nectar divine—I drank "to the dregs," a goblet filled to the brim—and thanked the beautiful damsel who tendered me the cup.) Again and again we drank; the merry laugh went round, and I felt that "this is a good place to be." The dinner bell rang and we hastened to refresh the inner man with something more solid than soda water. Here I met Mr. Put Smith, wife and daughter, and Mrs. Bailey, of Portland, who are for a time sojourning at this pleasant resort. Mrs. B. is, I believe, a sister to Mr. Watts, of electoral fame—upon whose "eligibility" hung "to be or not to be" ruler over forty millions of American freeman. Time speeds and hours go by unheeded—Old Sol has long since passed the meridian, and Bob with his irrepressible Linkville stage has also passed, when I find that it is time for me to say good bye—I say it and mount my ancient but faithful bonerger, and hie me homeward. The evening is delightful, the air balmy, the scenery impressive. I panned on the hill before entering our embryo city, and looked down upon it, imagined I was gazing upon some village of Italy, but I missed the mosques, the minarets, the domes, the pompous priests, the beggars, the squalid poverty, and instead I saw our academy of learning, our mills, shops and factories, and I knew that it was Ashland, and I was glad that I was a citizen thereof.

The Senatorial Investigating Committee have organized, in Portland, and commenced taking testimony. Up to this writing ex-Superintendent Watkins is the only witness examined, and he has only evidenced what he knows about legislatures in general.

There must be no more delay. I will be found at the Hargadine Store, at all times. Call and see me at once.

An old saying (and not altogether untrue one) is, "a penny saved is two earned," according to this two saved is four earned, and in purchasing an organ if you can save $50 it is as good as $100 earned, which would go a great way toward the purchase; you can do this by buying the Star Parlor Organ. See advertisement in another column, and send for circular and price list. 29:ly.
