Regular passenger wagon leaves Ashland for Linkville every Monday morning, and returns every Saturday. A. D. HELMAN, P. M.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Everybody is now concerned about the latest titles. BUTTE CREEK AHEAD.—We learn that grain of this years crop was taken to the mill as early as the 11th inst.

"Come out here and I'll lick the whole of ye" as the bold urchin said to the big sticks of candy in the window.

The fourth Quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church for Jacksonville Circuit, will be held at Ashland, July the 28 and 29. W. HULLBERT.

Books.—We call attention to the card of Mr. Yocum in this issue. He has some books for you. Call and see him or he will have to call on you.

Thanks to our friend Hargadine for the soda water and cigars; excited us more than the news that Michael was crossing the Danube.

Dr. J. H. Chitwood's new advertisement appears to-day. The Dr. has a fine stock of drugs, medicines etc., and is always on hand to attend to the wants of customers.

Subcribe for the TIDINGS—only $2 50 per year.

GLOVES.—We are informed that Mr. Hutchins, late of Roseburg, is preparing to open a glove factory in Ashland. This will be a useful institution. Success to him.

Rev. J. B. Donaldson, late from the East, is at present sojourning in Ashland. He seems much pleased with our place and people and we hope to see him locate permanently in our village.

SCIENTIFIC HAIR PRODUCER.—We call attention to the advertisement of Mrs. H. A. Moore relative to her celebrated Hair Restorer. Those who have grown too threadbare on the top of the head will please take notice.

THE ARTIST.—We are pleased to know that Mr. J. W. Riggs the new photographer has decided to east his lot with us in the Granite city, and that he believes in Advertising. See his ad.

The deliberations of the Old Bachelor Club, were brought to a sudden and ignominious conclusion the other night, in consequence of the discovery of a hair pin clinging confidingly to the coat collar of the president.

STILL ANOTHER.—We are informed that Mr. Starkey, lately from Missouri, is preparing to manufacture Washing Machines on an improved plan in Ashland. It is gratifying to learn that the advantage of Ashland, as a manufacturing point, are becoming better understood every day.

SOAP FACTORY.—We understand Hathaway & Rigdon have lately sent some forty boxes of soap to Yreka and still there is a call for more. They have a large amount of material on hand and are ready to fill all orders. Patronize them.

THE CHAMPIONS B. B. CLUB.—We are requested by the Ashland base-ballists to say that they want the prize club won by the Jacksonville Champions at Roseburg. Put up the club and the Ashland boys will play you for it on the First Saturday in August. Come to time champions.

NOT YET.—We hasten to inform our readers that the world did not come to an end last Tuesday, as was predicted by the new adventists. In fact not the slightest phenomenon occurred to indicate that such an affair has taken place any where on the coast. Since this failure we think the world likely to "wag on" as before for another "day" of half a million years or so.

About forty children of the San Francisco... through town yesterday for Applegate, where they are to be employed on the big ditch.

The Eagle Mills, now under the management of Mr. E. F. Billings, is doing a good business. See the new ad. in this issue and profit thereby.

ELK AND BEAR BEWARE.—HOB. W. A. McPherson, Ed. Farlow, Esq., and Mr. B. F. Reeser started yesterday for Fish Lake at the base of Mt. Pitt to gather up the few elk and bear still left in that vicinity.

FINE BARLEY FROM LAKE.—We have just received from a friend at Linkville a fine specimen of barley from the ranch of George Nurse. We are very sure we have never seen a finer specimen than this and are stronger than ever of the opinion that, before many years, a large acreage of grain will be raised every year in Lake.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY.—The planet Jupiter is now our near neighbor, being as the astronomers say, "in opposition." When he is in "superior conjunction" he will be 180,000,000 miles farther away. An exchange says now is the rare opportunity for tourists, but as he is still some 400,000,000 miles away they should not set out on their journey without careful preparation.

COTTAGE GROVE, July 4, 1877. ED. FARMER: I left Ashland on the 23d of last month, and heavier crops are not to be found on the coast than there is in the Rogue River Valley, and there were a great many fields of grain, all ready for the header; and with a railroad to transport crops, Southern Oregon would be one the finest places on the Coast. The labor and money expended on roads is a credit to the people. J. H. SHORTIDGE.

GOOD TIME.—Rev. J. R. N. Bell had the misfortune to get left off the stage yesterday morning, he not being at hand when Bob. Garrett started on his tearing drive to Linkville. On arriving at the hotel a few moments after, he heard the loud racket of the retreating train in the dim distance. It was a moment for prompt and decisive action—for uniting and unretreating speed. Seizing his blankets he followed with such rapidity that he overhauled the stage within a mile from town, and went on his way towards the land of Lakes rejoicing.

THE WEST SHORE.—Mr. L. Samuel publisher of Oregon's pioneer illustrated paper spent a day or two in our village during the week. He is a pleasant gentleman, the very embodiment of enterprise and deserves much credit for conducting the West Shore on so liberal a basis. Every issue is filled with fresh original matter and illustrations by the best artists, calculated to interest us at home and advertise our west-foot land abroad. Mr. Samuel has been to no little expense to bringing the West Shore up to its present popularity, but a rapidly increasing subscription list shows that his money has been placed "where it will do the most good."

A LIGHTNING STROKE.—FROM MR. E. F. Walker of Marzincta, we learn that Mrs. Roots' residence, a short distance from his own, was struck by lightning on Sunday evening last. Mrs. Root and her son were in the house at the time and were both considerably stunned by the shock. They were both unconscious for some time, Mrs. Root being considerably hurt. We are glad to learn, however, that they have both recovered from the shock. The lightning seemed to follow the chimney down, tearing out a part of the chimney just above the fire place, throwing the mantel piece forward onto the floor and hopelessly mangling the old family clock. No other damage done. This is the first circumstance of the kind ever known in Rogue river valley we believe, and makes us think a lightning stroke not such an impossible thing in this country after all.

AN OLD PIONEER.—We have had with us a few days in Ashland Capt. Solomon Tetherow one of the old Rocky Mountain men. He first went with Gen. Ashley and Maj. Henry (who was with Lewis and Clarke) to the mountains in 1823, he and James Bridger being the youngest members of the company we believe. Mr. Tetherow is now the sole survivor. Since his youth he has been one of the leading spirits on the frontiers and his stories of adventure in the early days are as thrilling as Ned Buntline's border tales. In 1845 he led an emigrant train across the plains to Oregon, and settled in the Willamette valley, where he still resides. He is now in his seventy eighth year but quite strong and vigorous, and is yet able to keep pretty well up with the strongest young men on a hunt in the mountains. Mr. Tetherow is spending the summer at Mr. Parker's on the Linkville road, Mrs. Parker being his daughter.

Mr. Scott agent for Hildreth, Young & Co., the original inventors of the Photochrome picture, called on us one day this week and converted our office into a fine art gallery for a while. The pictures on exhibition were enlarged from photographs, copied on metallic plate, finished in india ink, and were almost as elegant as oil paintings. We understand Mr. Scott intends remaining in this place for some time soliciting orders. This will give him an opportunity of meeting with many who knew him years ago as a teacher in this valley.

OUR REGULAR STAGE ROBBERY.—From Mr. Learned, a nephew of our fellow townsman H. C. Hill, who arrived on the stage yesterday morning from south, we learn that the stage was robbed the day before by two masked men between the Soda Springs and Strawberry valley. The express box was taken but the registered matter was not touched, the brigands remarking that they had got enough. Our informant does not know how much the box contained. Mr. Tyndall was the driver, Mr. Learned the only passenger. Resistance was useless. Judge Roseborough who met the stage a few minutes before the robbery inquired for a couple of tramps who had robbed a cabin near Strawberry valley a short time before, taking some arms, etc. It is supposed the robbery was committed by the same men.

THE STORM.—FROM REV. J. R. N. Bell, just returned from the Table Rock country, we learn that the thunder storm of last Sunday afternoon was terrific down that way. The thunder was like the roar of a hundred gigantic Krupp guns and a number of trees were struck by lightning—two of them near Mr. John Sizemore's residence. There was a hail storm after which there came up a heavy wind—almost a cyclone—throwing down the fences for miles, in one instance carrying rails over a hundred and twenty feet. At this time Mr. Childers, who was on the road lost his hat and after following it for some distance gave up the chase. The wind was followed by such an immense rainfall that the whole surface of the ground was covered with water several inches deep. We fear the grain has been considerably damaged in that section.

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS. July 18th, 1877. —The anniversary of the bursting of the water cloud on Jackson creek seven years ago occurs on the 27th of this month.

—In the match game of ball last Saturday the umpire F. M. Nickerson decided the game nine to nothing in favor of the first nine, the deportment of some of the players was rather marked. —General John E. Ross has been seriously ill for several days. —Sheriff Manning, Mat. Dillon and P. Phipps are subpoenaed as witnesses in counterfeit case before the U. S. District Court which convenes at Portland on the 24th inst.

—It was quite amusing to see those three young ladies who donned the spectacles, one of them is too near sighted to see that a certain young gentleman is in love with her.

—One of our barbers has taken down his pole, and is going in search of the lost cabin; a good chance now for a shearer to share.

—An evil disposed person who needs a coat of tar and feathers, drew a sketch of a donkey's head and enclosed it in a note inviting a young lady to attend a party, and then committed the crime of forgery by signing a gentleman's name thereto, should the miscreant be discovered he may as well have his measure taken for a coffin.

—A pleasant and rather impromptu dance was had at the club rooms last night in honor of Miss Mollie McCully and Prof. Merritt, whose nuptials occur on Thursday, when they will start on a tour across the continent. May their voyage of life be over a sea of bliss untroubled by the billows of adversity.

—The Alden fruit preserving Co., will entertain bids up to first of August to let the dryer for one year. A good opportunity is now presented for a person with a large capital of fruit.

ITEMS FROM LINKVILLE. July 16th, 1877. —Sikes Worden, late superintendent of farming on Klamath Reservation, has become one of the proprietors of the Linkville store.

—Money plenty. Cattle buyers left about $7,000 in the valley here.

—L. B. Applegate made us a visit from Swan Lake, and looks well.

—Indians on the Reservation peaceable.

—Ben Lewis makes his trips from Linkville to Lakeview twice a week regularly.

BLACKBERRIES.—At my residence, in Ashland—3 GALLONS FOR ONE DOLLAR. Come at once. AMOS WILLETS. [63t

Last Call. Those knowing themselves indebted to the estate of the late R. B. Hargadine either by note or book account are hereby informed that they must pay up IMMEDIATELY. All debts must be promptly settled. There must be no more delay. I will be found at the Hargadine Store, at all times. Call and see me at once. SILAS W. KILGORE, Executor.

AN old saying (and not altogether an untrue one) is, "a penny saved is two earned;" according to this saved is four earned, and in purchasing an organ if you can save $50 it is as good as $100 earned, which would go a great way toward the purchase; you can do this by buying the Star Parlor Organ. See advertisement in another column, and send for circular and price list.

THE best of flour and fresh ground graham and corn meal delivered in any part of Ashland, at mill prices, by the Eagle Mill, also Bacon and Lard.

DIED. STEVENS.—In San Francisco June 13, 1877, Newell D. Stevens, aged 31 years.

Mr. Stearns was well known in this valley, having spent most of his life here. A letter written to his wife, then in Lake county, a week before his death, informed her that he had lost all hopes of recovery, hence the sad announcement did not find his relatives and friends wholly unprepared. Newell was a young man of quiet unobtrusive habits and generous heart, always ready to do his duty as a man and citizen. He leaves many relatives and friends in this country who will sadly miss him.

MARSHALL.—At Ashland on the 14th inst., of cholera infantum, Alpha Zeta, only 4 months of age, and Mrs. Shannon Marshall, aged 1 year 1 month and 23 days. Alpha was a lovely child, a ray of sunshine in a household once bright and happy, now made dark and gloomy by the shadow of a terrible sorrow. But there is a garden on the other shore, where budding plants of earth are transplanted, to bloom in beauty forever.
