

THE ASHLAND TIDINGS

FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1877

THE WHITE CHIEF WITH YELLOW HAIR.

It is now stated on what is considered reliable information that Sitting Bull has taken his seat over at Frenchman's creek on Canadian soil, where he proposes to remain if he can gain a livelihood there and is not too much annoyed by the pale-face people.

FROM JOSEPHINE.

WILLIAMS CREEK, July 18, 1877.

EDITOR TIDINGS:—Although we get tidings from you once a week, it is rarely the case that you have any tidings from this vicinity.

As a news item, I think I am fully warranted in announcing that those immigrants the people of Oregon have been so long hoping for, and the Portland Board of Trade lobbying for, have arrived, and the inquisitiveness which some of them are not slow to manifest, as to the validity of certain questionable claims to land in this vicinity, is evidence that they meditate remaining.

Harvesting goes bravely on except when it is raining. We have had two or three heavy showers this week, crops will yield well this season and gardens notwithstanding the late frosts, are flourishing finely.

In the way of mining I have little to chronicle. Jack Layton is engaged in cleaning up after a lengthy run with his giant Good results may be reasonably looked for, of which I will advise you again.

By THE SEA.—The beautiful little poem "By the Sea" which appeared, without any name attached, in the last issue of the Plaindealer, was written for the TIDINGS, by Mrs. F. F. Victor, and appeared in our issue of the 13th inst., over her name.

THE STRIKE.

GREAT RIOT AT PITTSBURG, Pennsylvania.

MOST EXTENSIVE UPRISING EVER KNOWN IN THE UNITED STATES.

Following account of the great strike of railroad employes at Pittsburg we condense from dispatches to the Sacramento Daily Record-Union:

July 22—11 A. M.—The outer depot yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad have been abandoned by all the troops. The Philadelphians went out Pennsylvania avenue, and the Pittsburg battery boys spiked their guns and came down to the Union depot and the mob had things their own way.

A private dispatch received at New York states that the mob destroyed 70 engines and 250 loaded cars. The destruction is complete. Thirty persons are reported killed and a large number wounded. The loss is over $3,000,000.

A Chicago dispatch says the hope that the worst of the riot was over was fallacious. Car burning has recommenced and a dense cloud of smoke hangs over the city.

Dispatches from Pittsburg after 4 o'clock P. M., 22d, say cannon shots were fired at the 600 military cooped up in the round house by 20,000 persons, including women and children, who were urging on the strikers.

At 4:45 eight men were killed by the soldiers, and their comrades swore vengeance over their dead bodies, declaring that not one of the military should escape. At that hour 200 or 300 cars were burned and the mob threatening to burn every car between Pittsburg and the East Liberty stock yards, five miles distant.

At 7:15 many thousand infuriated men surrounded the round house and the soldiers had taken refuge in the pits. Nobody was allowed to pass the dead line at the peril of his life.

The troops left the house and fired on the crowd, but were driven back. They afterwards formed a solid column and made for the Alleghany Arsenal where fighting soon commenced.

Engines were allowed to play upon and put out other houses in flames, but not upon railroad property, under penalty of death.

As yet all is quiet at Columbia, the round house is closed and no engineers are allowed to leave.

Troops are ordered to Hornellsville to quell the strikers on the Erie road. Cheyenne July 23.—The employes of the Union Pacific road received notice last evening from Supt. Clark that the order of the President reducing wages, to take effect July 1st, is rescinded which gives general satisfaction and avoids all danger of a strike.

Strikers at East Buffalo will not allow stock to move east on the N. Y. Central.

The Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company have acceded to the demands of the strikers.

THE IDAHO WAR. DRAWN INTO AMBUSH AND SAVED BY THE SCOUTS.

The war not over.

(Condensed from dispatches to the OREGONIAN.)

The regular cavalry and Lewiston volunteers overhauled the Indians, on Tuesday. Jim, Reuben, Levi and some other Indians acted as scouts. They came up with the Indians near the Weipe Camas ground amid very much undergrowth of pine. The Indians fired upon the scouts killing two and wounding two. McConville with 18 men was in the advance, in a position of great danger. The Indian scouts, through their tactics, drew the attention of the hostiles, so as to let McConville and his men out of the trap. Seeing that the whole force of the regulars had taken to flight, he found it necessary to follow them rather than suffer his handful of men to be cut off. The whole pursuing force returned to Kamia, leaving Joseph's men master of the situation. All the command had recrossed to the south side of Clearwater, and were to move to Lapwai, except a hundred men under Throckmorton, who, with artillery, are to hold position till Col. Green's force unites with him from Boise.

The above statement was made by Capt. Hunter of the Dayton volunteers and appeared in a Lewiston Teller extra of July 20.

In a later dispatch it is stated that Joseph's warriors had recrossed Clearwater and were at Lawyers canon. Gen. Howard is at Lapwai. He has ordered troops just arrived on the steamer Almoda to proceed forthwith to said point. He has also sent for Gen. Sully to meet him at Lapwai at 7 A. M.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The Second Regiment of Infantry which left Georgia last week for the seat of war in Idaho, will arrive in Oakland on Saturday evening. The troops will be transferred from Oakland wharf to the steamer City of Chester, which vessel will leave at once for Portland.

ELKO, July 20.—A special train containing about 500 troops and 34 officers under command of General Wheaton passed through here this evening on their way to Idaho, by way of steamer from San Francisco to Lewiston. They are fine looking regulars.

HELENA (Montana), July 23d.—Advices from Missoula to 1 A. M., of the 21st report eighteen lodges of hostiles in the valley, having come over the Lolo trail. The Indians are coming in fast. All the settlers are moving into the stockades. The Indians appear to be trying to escape through the upper end of Bitter Root into the Big Hole country. There is no doubt that they belong to Joseph's band. The mail rider says it is reported that quite a number of Indians are wounded. A company of soldiers left Fort Ellis for Missoula yesterday. Others will follow from other points as speedily as possible.
