

THE ASHLAND TIDINGS

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1877.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Gather your corn and save the fodder.

We noticed the familiar faces of a Roseburger or two on our streets this week.

Georgie Hargulaine has a curiosity in the shape of a kangaroo rat, with a bushy tail.

It is "nip and tuck" as to who occupies the road most, the wheat haulers or immigrants.

Notary.—E. DePeatt, of this place has been commissioned a Notary Public, by Gov. Chadwick.

The rustivating parties have nearly all gathered in from the mountains and settled down to business again.

Carrying brick and mortar to the masons on McCall's new building, is now beginning to be up-hill work.

We notice that Mr. Roerer has opened out a new front to his place of business, and added a lot more new goods.

A drove of twenty-one hundred and fifty, nice fat sheep filed through our streets one day this week. They were traveling north.

Dr. Wm. Jackson, of Jacksonville, is now on a professional visit to Ashland—performing work in his line—first-class dentistry.

The California State Fair is in full blast, but we have no report from it whatever, by telegraph or otherwise, except of the horse racing.

J. M. McCall & Co.'s new goods have commenced arriving, and per consequence the salesmen of that establishment go to bed at night tired enough.

The space between Holman & Fountain's store and Dr. Tulow's new building is "roofed over." What a delightful place that will be on rainy "lodge nights."

The first thousand feet of lumber sawed by Messrs. Marsh & Valpey's new mill, has been brought to Ashland and will be manufactured into furniture. It is a splendid lot of sugar pine.

We hear that Rev. J. R. N. Bell has been transferred from this field to the Roseburg district, and that, a Mr. Hardesten, of Roseburg, will attend to the Gospel work of the M. E. Church South at this place.

Look not upon the enchanter when it is willed, when the grocery man showeth it aright. It biteth like a corkscrew and stingeth like a bumblebee. Yea, it is full of stomach-ache, and its ways are the ways of cholera morbus.

Notice the change in Millinery ad. this week. Mrs. Jas. Ewing has become sole proprietor. She has just received an elegant assortment of new goods—we couldn't begin to tell the names of half of them, but they are just such things as delight the ladies.

SENTENCED.—Tom Brown, who was captured in this place some time ago, was last week sentenced in the County Court of Shasta California, to a term of seventeen years in the State Prison. The charge was robbing the California and Oregon Stage, to which he pleaded guilty.

At the saddle and harness shop of Mr. C. K. Klum, a large stock of splendid new saddles have just been received; also a complete assortment of harness, and any amount of collars. He can now furnish any or everything, farmers need in handling of their grain. Give him a call.

SPREADING OUT.—We understand that Dr. Chitwood has sold a half interest in his drug store to Mr. Atkinson, and that the new firm have forwarded an order for an extensive stock, which will include many things heretofore new to the Ashland market. We are glad to see that the small businesses are thus growing and spreading. It is another evidence of our increasing prosperity.

For downright, unadulterated "unbleness," ye local of the Eugene Journal we can certainly commend. He says: "Through some miscarrying we just received a complimentary ticket from the State Agricultural Society this week." Take the ticket and use it my boy! We will guarantee that the kind hearted old Secretary really intended it for you, and that it was not a miscarriage at all, at all.

Some thief entered the barn of Mr. Phillips, who lives on the road between this place and Jacksonville, the other night and stole a brand new forty-dollar saddle and bridle; he had probably secured his horse elsewhere, and thus saved Mr. Phillips the expense of furnishing him a complete outfit. Such occurrences as this are becoming so frequent that we are not certain a little shot-gun regulation would be amiss.

Mr. W. C. Myer, has been having his stock shod, this week, and will start to the State Fair next Monday. He will take with him White Prince, Pride of Perche, Seventy-Six—a compactly built colt, showing all the characteristics of the stock, weighing 1050 lbs., 15 months old—and Leon, a dark iron gray, 7-16, weighs 1,000 pounds; also Doll full-blood mare, and filly foal by Gen. Fleary; White Rose, Hortense—a 7-8 blood, with a most promising horse colt; Elsie a 2-year old filly, full sister to Hortense, weighing 1532 1/2 pounds.

From a card received from the President, T. W. Davenport, we learn that the Second Annual Convention of the North-Western Liberal Association is called to meet at Good Templars' Hall, Portland, on Friday, Oct. 26th, to elect officers for the ensuing year, etc. Liberals and Free thinkers of the North-West coast are respectfully invited to attend.

WHEN THE BLOSSOMS COVER US DARING.—This is the name of another of the popular Charlie Laker's new songs can be had from any music dealer in the United States, or from the publisher, F. W. Helmick, No. 50 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati O., by sending 35 cents.

When the blossoms cover us, darling, With their blossoms of white and gold, And our faces are hid from each other In the church yard, so white and so cold, Of the many dear ones who will never see our faces or greet us again, Are there any kind hearts in that day, love, Who will think of us, care for us then?

CURIOUS.—We have just heard of a man, to whom happened a little accident, with quite a curious result. A short time ago he struck a match, when a piece of the head of it flew off and into his eye, burning, inflaming and swelling it badly, and while in this condition he asserts that he was able to see with it in the dark as well as he could in the daylight with his well eye. He says he could see bed bugs crawling about on the walls, though it was as dark as the "basement of the bottomless pit" to his well eye.

AGENCY ITEMS.

KLAMATH AGENCY, Sept. 18th, 77. Weather very fine. Haying is finished.

Old Chillicoque still occasionally brings fish to the Agency for the employees.

Prof. M. Gatecett of Washington City has been here for the past week acquiring the Klamath Idiom. He, already converses with the natives, and has recorded many of their songs.

Pomates, a noted Indian doctor, died one day last week after a few days illness. The Indians accused Dr. John of destroying him with his leaves. They immediately sentenced the Doctor to two years solitary confinement in the Williamson's River jail, where he now languishes. K.

LINKVILLE ITEMS.

Sept. 19th, 1877.

Weather unusually fine for the season.

Haying season about over; crop unusually light.

The trout are beginning to bite and the average Linkvillian is in circumstances.

Some Indians were in town during the week with a wagon load of fine venison hams.

Hon. S. B. Cranston, Register of the U. S. Land Office, at Lakeview, has been spending a few days with his family at this place.

Mr. John Pearson's family, late of the Merganser Hotel, have become residents of our town which will make a valuable addition to our society; also Dr. J. O. Allen a regular practicing physician, has decided to permanently locate here and start a drug store. Expects his family in about two weeks. Give him a call ye afflicted.

Uncle George Nurse has removed the post office into the new and commodious building fitted up for its reception, and has also put up 24 new lock boxes, which feature adds very much to the appearance as well as the convenience of the office.

Messrs. W. S. Moore & Co., have several men employed grading and preparing the foundation and digging the race for their new saw mill, on Link river; they expect to be ready by Jan. 1st, next, to commence making lumber at the rate of from 7 to 10 thousand feet per day.

H. K. Hanna and A. C. Jones of the Jacksonville bar, have been stopping in town for a couple of days looking after the interests of their respective clients in suits now pending in Circuit Court for this county, which convenes at Lakeview, next Monday, and to-day's stage brought Hon. Judge Prim and the rest of the Jackson county bar, or the greater portion of it. Several of our citizens also have to attend the coming term of court, in the respective capacity of witnesses, jurors etc., it is considerable of a hardship to say nothing of the annoyance to be compelled to make this journey of 120 miles over mountains and rough roads, every three or four months, which is the inevitable consequence of having too much territory in one county. IREMIER.

ANTI-CHEAP LABOR.

DARDANELLES, Sept. 25, 1877.

EDITOR TIDINGS:—A recent issue of your paper contained a short letter from a Salem correspondent, who seems to be working in the interest of cheap labor. The length of that epistle was the only merit we were able to perceive about it.

To us, such a course is certainly a matter of conjecture, whether he is really in sympathy with that miserable, miserly, degraded race, or whether he wishes to elicit public criticism. We are, to say the least, surprised to see an intelligent correspondent advocate a measure so detrimental to the interests of his own country. The man who possesses sufficient intellect to write an intelligent article on any subject, ought to see the ruinous effect cheap labor has already produced.

The long-tailed Celestial, main actor in the cheap labor system now fills every avenue of employment. "John" is found now in the kitchen, in the factories and on the farm in many instances compelling the white man to work at wages not equal to his necessary demands. The "tramp" as he is called, who travels the dusty road, is a living witness of this fact, ask him, and he will tell you he has lost his position somewhere, because he could not cope with the "man of little wits." Is it right, is it justice, that we should be compelled, in our own country, to compete with the being who is satisfied with a bamboo hat and a flour-sack coat of his own make? And again, do we derive any benefit socially or morally from such a race as that? Is not their influence more degrading than otherwise? Do they take any interest in the welfare of our government, or do they pay their share of taxes to support it? Few Chinamen pay other than Road tax, and they will avoid that if possible. They do not, to any extent, patronize American manufacture, most of their clothing, as well as a large portion of their provisions are imported from their own country. "Nativity" in his communication seems to look forward very anxiously to that "near future" when cheap labor will benefit the farming and manufacturing interest of the coast. A few are already benefitted, but at the expense of millions. Is it reasonable to suppose that the white man can provide for his family and school his children properly, when he must compete with the yellow skinned opium eater, who can live on an income of ten cents per day and is too miserly inclined to assist any charitable institution or support any one but himself? J. Q. L.

GENERAL NEWS. (Condensed from dispatches to the Oregonian.) Yellow fever is taking quite a disastrous run in the East—one case reaching as far North as Maine. The delegation of Indian chiefs left Omaha on the 20th, for a visit to Father Hayes. The late great cyclone in Texas did damage to the amount of about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. U. S. Senator Bogg, of Missouri died at his residence in St. Louis Sept. 20. Gen. McClellan has been nominated by the Democrats for Governor of New Jersey. The Republicans of Maryland endorse Mr. Hayes as president, soldier and man. The Pope grows weaker, and is unable to stand while saying mass. More troops for Montana started from Pennsylvania on the 21st. They had a furious snow storm at Mount Washington, New Hampshire, on the 21st inst. A fire in Lawler, Chickasaw county Iowa, on the 21st, destroyed twenty-six business houses. The Red Cloud and Spotted Tail Indian commission were at Chicago on the 21st, on their way to Washington to protest against their removal from the agencies of the Missouri river, and to secure a government guarantee for their transfer to farms. The party consists of 21 chiefs, in charge of Lieut. W. P. Clark. Gen. McClellan will take time to consider his nomination and answer next week. The Grand Lodge of Old Fellows selected Austin, Texas, for the next annual meeting. The general theory of the cattle disease is that a fever of some kind is communicated to native cattle by Texas steers brought here for market and that have been pastured in the surrounding country. Newspapers announce that Fox, the actor and clown, is dying, having been stricken by paralysis. The Secretary of the Interior decides that Ohio voters in the department who have not exhausted their yearly leave may go home to vote, but cannot receive pay during their absence. The Pacific coast delegation will urge upon congress at the coming session the great necessity of some legislation on the Chinese question.

THE INDIAN WAR.

LATEST FROM THE FRONT—STURGIS PUTTING IN SOME GOOD LICKS—GEN. HOWARD VIGOROUSLY ON THE ADVANCE—THE END ANTICIPATED.

Sturgis writes under date of 16th that in the fight on the 13th, and pursuit on the 14th and 15th, twenty dead warriors were found, and he believes more were killed, and estimates the loss in wounded at 60. His own loss is four killed and 15 wounded. His command had been living five days on mule meat. Gen. Howard telegraphs Sturgis' last report as follows: We kept close on the heels of the enemy yesterday, making 38 miles, killing 5 Indians, probably wounding many more than they carry along, compelled them to drop over 300 of their horses, making 600 in 3 days. Am going ahead and propose to pursue them until they drop their whole herd or we drop. Think they will abandon nearly their last horse to-day.

Howard says: I think the remnant of the Nez Perces will be absorbed by hostile Sioux; then my own campaign must end. Command in good health and cheered by Sturgis' success. A DISASTROUS FLOOD. A telegraphic dispatch from Chattanooga, of September 21st, conveys the intelligence that the entire abundant crops of cotton, corn and fodder in the valley of the Black Warrior, Alabama, were swept away by the river's sudden rise of 63 feet, which is within two feet of the freshet of June, 1872. Planters had just commenced picking cotton, and had not hauled their corn and fodder from the fields. The cotton crop destroyed is estimated at 30,000 bales. Most planters are ruined. It is doubtful if enough for actual necessities can now be secured. Tuscaloosa is about the head of the devastated section. Merchants had advanced heavily on these growing crops.

Gov. Irwin has issued the following proclamation in regard to the brutal murder committed by Chinamen, an account of which will be found on the first page of this issue: WHEREAS, On the 15th of September, near Roskin, in the county of Placer, H. N. Sargent, Oler and his wife, were brutally murdered and it is suspected that persons, other than those already arrested therefor, were concerned, a reward for the arrest and conviction of said offenders, to be paid after their conviction, as follows: $600 for the first and $300 for each subsequent arrest and conviction. The offer does not apply to those who are now under arrest and charged with said murder.

A disastrous fire in the Patent office at Washington occurred on the 14th. The damage to the building is variously estimated at from $300,000 to $500,000, while that from destruction of models and valuables belonging to the office is almost incalculable.

SHEEP FOUND. Found by me on the Dead Indian road, near the Lake of the Woods, on the 15th inst, about 70 or 75 head of sheep; some of them marked with a crop of the right ear, with a hole in the same ear, some branded with a circle on the back. They are now at the Rockfellow ranch two or three miles below Ashland. The owner will please pay charges and take them away. L. B. BRYNER.

An old saying (and not altogether an untrue one) is, "A penny saved is two earned;" according to this two saved is four earned, and in purchasing an organ if you can save $50 it is as good as $100 earned, which would go a great way toward the purchase; you can do this by buying the Star Parlor Organ. See advertisement in another column, and send for circular and price list. 29.1y.
