Always a chance for a square meal at Houck's.

Lost by C. C. Webb, 500 head of sheep. See his ad.

A wolf is never more dangerous than when he feels sheepish.

BORN.—On Wagner Creek Nov. 23d, to the wife of Mr. Adams, a boy.

Render thanks for friends, country and the manifold favors of Heaven.

Those who don't like turkey on Thanksgiving day had better go to Guineo.

Wagner creek school is in full operation with Miss Lizzie Moreland as teacher.

The Russian bear maketh it warm for Turkey. So do we—on Thanksgiving day.

The school on Neil Creek is now in charge of P. L. Fountain, an accomplished teacher.

H. B. Mace, while butchering, the other day, wounded himself quite severely in the wrist.

Call at Chitwood & Atkinson's and take a look at their elegant assortment of stereoscopic views.

Union Thanksgiving services at the Academy at 11 A. M., to-day, (Thursday) also at 6.30 P. M.

Whoever calls on George Nutley for substantial work in his line, never goes on a bootless mission. See his ad.

Capt. D. J. Ferree informs us that Capt. Jackson and Company arrived at Ft. Klamath a week ago last Sunday.

Mrs. L. D. Applegate returned to her home in Lake county last week, after a brief visit to her friends in Ashland.

Mr. J. N. Terwilliger returned to Ashland a short time ago, after a sojourn of about three months in California.

White Hill post office in Summer Lake valley, Lake county, has been re-established with William T. Hill as post master.

Beware of John Conway, the boot-maker. If you do not patronize him he don't like it, and if you do he gives you fits.

J. M. McCall & Co. will begin moving their goods into their elegant and commodious room in the new brick on Monday next.

The custom of setting apart the last Thursday in November as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer originated in New England.

Bennett Million had two dozen fine chickens stolen a short time ago. Better keep an eye on your chickens until after the holidays.

Dr. Inlow will be found in his new building next door south of the post-office, where he always keeps a well selected stock of drugs.

Ass't Surgeon John M. Dickson, U. S. Army, is assigned to duty at Fort Klamath in place of acting Ass't Surgeon Stacy Hemmway, resigned.

Our genial friend, Capt. D. J. Ferree of Lake Co., and his daughter Hattie, came in by stage on Tuesday last, and remained several days with their friends.

We call attention to the new ad. of G. W. Smith, watchmaker and jeweler. He means business. Call and examine his handsome assortment of jewelry and try him.

Prof. W. T. Leek and L. F. Willis Esq., of Ashland, have returned from Butte Creek where they spent some days last week looking after their pastoral interests.

The road across the Siskiyou and Cascades to Linkville is getting extremely bad, but notwithstanding this Bob Garrett continues to make time with his stage.

We understand that Gov. Thompson expects to have his ditch on Applegate completed, and all the necessary arrangements made to commence mining, by the 20th of December.

Brown & Burlingham have opened a new butcher shop on Main Street, where they propose to keep on hand constantly the best of beef, mutton, veal and pork. Success to them.

No one can be regarded as fashionable without some experience in foreign travel. This will account for our haste to get out the TIDINGS to-day (Thursday) in time to go to Turkey.

We acknowledge a pleasant call from Mr. Ford and are pleased to know that he intends to "hyemate" with us. As he is reported to be a first class mechanic he will no doubt find plenty to do.

We are informed that some persons are in the habit of placing in the P. O. newspapers insufficiently stamped and the consequence is an accumulation of them in the office. A one cent stamp is only sufficient for a single newspaper.

D. H. Stearns, formerly of the B. has opened an advertising agency in Portland, thus supplying a long-felt want. We know Mr. Stearns personally as an active and expert business man and we consider him just the man for this new enterprise. Success to him.

The four-spring Sarven-wheel wagons manufactured by J. S. Eubanks at Ashland are getting deservedly popular, because they are just what is wanted, being light, strong and elegant. Mr. Eubanks has plenty of material on hand and is prepared to put up these wagons to order, either with or without tops.

AN OLD PIONEER GONE.—Rev. Ekanah Walker, one of the oldest of old time leaders, died at his home near Forest Grove, Washington Co, on the 21st inst., after a protracted illness. He came to Oregon in 1838, remained 19 years east of the mountains and removed to Forest Grove about the year 1849.

A NEW IMPROVEMENT.—Still the good work goes on. Scarcely a day passes but we observe some new achievement in the way of internal improvements. The community is now placed under obligations to our enterprising townsman R. P. Neil Esq., for a stone walk across Main Street near the bridge.

REAL ESTATE AGENT.—Mr. Thomas G. Waters, a thoroughly competent gentleman has opened a real estate office in Ashland. Information seekers abroad can rely on Mr. Waters' statements relative to the country, and persons wishing to purchase or dispose of real estate will do well to call on him. See his ad.

Willie Myer's horse reared and fell with him on the bridge on Main street the other day, and he came near being seriously hurt. As the horse rose to his feet Willie's foot hung in the stirrup, but fortunately Homer Mace came to hand just at the opportune moment, and held the horse until Willie extricated himself.

I. O. O. F.—At a meeting of Ashland Lodge No. 45 held on Saturday evening the 24th inst. the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: A. D. Helman, N. G.; J. O. Miller, V. G.; R. P. Neil, R. S.; A. M. Spickelmer, P. S.; W. W. Kentner, Treasurer; Trustees; E. DePant, J. D. Fountain and O. C. Applegate.

We learn that John Chandler is doing an extensive business at his saw mill on Granite street. Since Aug. 1st he has cut 121,000 feet of lumber—mostly fir. He now has on hand 160 cords of excellent slab wood, each cord consisting of three tiers, stave wood length. Price, two dollars and a half per cord.

We acknowledge a pleasant call on Wednesday morning from Prof. Skidmore and Mr. Franklin, a gentleman whom the Professor knew many years ago in the little state of Rhode Island. The visitor, who seems a pleasant and intelligent gentleman, proposes to remain for some months with his old friend in Ashland.

STYLE.—On Monday evening we observed a moderately young couple riding in a hack, with a postillion at the helm, from the business part of the town to the Academy, a distance of a few hundred yards, while hundreds of people quite as respectable, footed it. This is putting on considerable style for Ashland we think.

A well known cattle man of Lake passed through town a few days ago with a band of infantile bovines. There were only two of them, but they were intractable fellows, and he had to secure the services of a pedagogue who long practiced the government of perverse tempers, to help him through town with the "mallet-heads."

G. W. Carey, General Agent for the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co., arrived here on Wednesday evening. He is organizing a branch office for the above named Co. in this county, and visits our town for the purpose of securing the names of some of our business men to make up the board of directors; the object being to loan the premiums for insurance in this county and facilitate the business generally.

Wm. Angus McPherson left Ashland on Tuesday morning for Applegate Creek, where he will probably be engaged to assist in the development of Gov. Thompson's mines. Mr. McP. is from being a genial and talented gentleman is understood to be an old experienced miner and we trust he will be found of no little aid in carrying forward the extensive operations inaugurated in the Applegate country by Oregon capitalists.

Ca ke and Steak.

Every soul in Ashland taken from hoodlum up to myer, Can have fresh bread both white and brown, By patronizing Sayer.

Dr. Busby, the blind phrenologist, delivered very entertaining lectures on Monday and Tuesday evenings, and displayed considerable skill in exploring the summits of some of our citizens. Call on him at the Hotel.

DANGEROUS GAME.—A short time ago Mr. Abraham Weiss of Butte Creek, went out hunting with a favorite dog. He had not gone far when the dog started a large buck. Instead of starting off as is their usual custom, he charged the dog, impaling him on one of the prongs of his antlers. The dog died in a few minutes and the deer escaped.

C. A. B. Meacham is to be editor of a new Philadelphia monthly to be called the Council Tree. In the prospectus it is announced that the new journal will be "devoted to the history, character, social life, religious traditions, government, current legends, etc. of the American Indian, including also a full discussion of our relations to him as a people and a government."

We are late in mentioning a call last week from our old friend, J. P. Roberts, of the firm of Handy & Roberts, of Lake Co. Mr. Roberts was in to attend to some business in Jacksonville and made a very brief stay. He is among the most energetic of the business men of Lake, and we are glad to know that the business of the firm is prospering both at Bonanza and Merganser.

THE PORTICO.—We always welcome with pleasure the new San Francisco paper, the Portico. In its initial number it made use of the following language: "Bound to no sect or party, but cherishing strong and earnest convictions of our own, we shall not refuse a respectful hearing to those who may dissent from our views and opinions." Success to this new candidate for public favor.

SCHOOL MEETING.—The legal voters of School District No. 5 are hereby requested to meet at the school house in Ashland, at 1 o'clock P. M., Saturday December 1st, for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed at the last school meeting to select a site for a school house, and to vote on accepting the same; to vote on the question of building a new school house, and if the voters decide to build, to appoint a committee to draft a plan for such building; and to attend to any other business which may legally come before the meeting.

W. W. KENTNER, Clerk.

AN APPEAL.—If we are of a generous spirit we shall find all around us opportunities to bestow our favors upon those who are in need of aid. If good fortune be ours let us do what we can to make it the lots of others; in our own success not forgetting those who have fallen behind us in the race. Think of the poor homeless boy—the tramp if you please, who trudges along the road, anxiously on the alert for the quiet and seclusion of a barn lot or haystack where he may spend a few brief hours oblivious to his troubles, or who, as he passes a corn field, covets the threshold ward robe of a scarecrow. Oh yes, think also of the poor printer, with his shabby garments, boots down at the heel; of that famished look of the eye that speaks only too plainly the poignancy of the need which modesty forbids him to speak. "A kindly word and helping hand may soothe the pain of a wounded heart and blunt the dagger of affliction," but go into your pocket, kind man, and try the virtues of the metallic elixir upon the drooping spirits of the care-worn tyro.

OUR REGULAR BEAR STORY.—Prof. Leek informs us that Mr. Sim Farlow of Butte Creek a few days ago, came near having a very serious experience with a bear. It appears that while out hunting, accompanied by his dogs, he came suddenly onto a amiable-nosed bear, an animal nearly approaching the grizzly in size and ferocity. The dogs at once gave chase and the bear went up a tree just far enough to be out of their reach. Mr. Farlow, not fully realizing the danger perhaps, came up within a few paces and fired. The bear not seriously hurt was after him in a moment and Mr. Farlow making his best time over logs and through thickets. But the bear steadily gained on him and just as he was turning around a huge bowlder the mealy-nose of the man destroyer was within a few inches of him. Just at this moment the dogs seized the bear and as it turned to beat them off, Mr. Farlow made a lucky shot and brought the "varmint" down in its tracks.

Handsome job printing, executed at this office. Call round and see.

LETTER FROM "MACK."

APPELATE, OGD., Nov. 19th. EDITOR TIDINGS:—Rain we have had in sufficient quantity to put the ground in nice order, and now the ring of the plow and the swear of the plow-man are heard along the river, while the plow, sow, harrow and sweat.

Potatoes about all dug, but the yield is not so great as last year, yet the price is some better. The corn crop was very good, well matured and in considerable abundance. Not a very large crop of apples, yet they are in sufficient abundance for home consumption with some to export to foreign countries. I would weary your readers to tell of the many and fine products this year, such as cabbage, beans, onions, squashes, (some of which weighed over a hundred pounds apiece) beets, turnips, carrots, parsnips, tomatoes, etc., all of which were very fine specimens, giving evidence of the wonderful fertility of our lovely valley; and I would further say that great quantities of such products can yet be had cheap for cash, or be given away to the poor ("mehby.")

But few hogs are being fattened for the market this fall, but your king of hogs-men passed down this way, last week, with a band of 240 head for Happy Camp, they being the largest and finest hogs I have seen in the State.

"Nothing new under the sun," said the wise man, but there is down here, for we have a bran new stove for our school house on Missouri Flat. Besides the new stove, we keep up our Sunday school and in a few days, are going to have a day school again. So the wheels of progress move. You see we stand not still, but press onward as all enterprising people do. That person, and he is "spotted," who broke into Mr. Hoxie's house and stole his axe; also into Mr. Chapman's and stole a load of onions, had better look for other quarters or he may have his hair cut close with the axe and be made to eat onions until he is sick. No late news from the new roads; in fact, news, at this writing has hid itself away. So Yours etc., MACK.

MARRIED.

CARTER-BELMAN. In Ashland, on Nov. 27th, 1877, at the residence of the bride's father, Capt. A. D. Helman, by Rev. J. B. Daniels, Mr. John A. Carter and Miss M. Julia Helman.

In the midst of the excitement created in our old friend's household by this pleasant affair, the Tribune office was not forgotten, and we join with slight in wishing the bride and groom a long and prosperous matrimonial voyage. In this voyage only place their heads in their own yokes, our young friends have done well and to set an example which we hope many of their associates may hereafter follow.

DIED.

WATTS.—At the residence of Hon. J. C. Tolman, 107 Ashland, on Sunday Nov. 24th, 1877, Samuel M. Watts, of common law.

Mr. Watt was a young man of generous heart and good talents, who was well known in this section, having formerly resided, first at Judge Tolman's and then at Ashland. A year ago last spring he went to Lake Co., and thence to Galloway, where he remained until a few months ago, when he returned to spend the brief remainder of his days in his old home. He leaves a young wife and many friends to mourn his loss.
