

THE ASHLAND TIDINGS

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1878

THE SITUATION IN ENGLAND.

It appears from the latest Eastern intelligence that the anti-war spirit is gaining ground in England; that peace at any price, short of national dishonor, is considered preferable to war.

NEW ERA IN BUSINESS.

One of the hopeful signs of a new era in the business of Portland is the appearance simultaneously in about forty papers of this State, of the advertisement of Messrs. Hodge, Davis & Co.

WASHINGTON.

A petition has been offered in Congress, by delegate Jacobs of Washington Territory, asking the passage of an enabling act, authorizing the formation of a State Government for that Territory.

It is doubtful if any such bill can pass, because the territory does not possess the requisite population. Yet we should be pleased to see Washington territory erected into a state.

THE ROAD QUESTION.

It will be seen by reference to a communication on the outside to-day, entitled "The Road Question Again," that our Josephine county friends are disposed to resurrect this subject, in the hope of securing the combined action of the people in reference to it.

COMITY AND RECIPROCIITY ON THE STATE LINE.

Pine Creek, in Goose Lake valley, flows into the lake exactly at the State line, so that that the fertile country on either side, lying between the Sierra Nevada ridge and the lake is perhaps about equally divided between Oregon and California.

PACIFIC COAST APPROPRIATIONS.

It is stated in late Washington dispatches that delayed estimates approved by heads of executive departments, and which have been tabulated by the Secretary of the Treasury and printed in book form, include the following expenditures for the Pacific Coast:

AMIANTHUS.

It is said that quite an interest has been awakened on the other side of the Atlantic relative to this material. It is a mineral substance somewhat resembling flax, belonging either to the species pyroxine or hornblende, usually grayish or greenish white.

ZAMACONA AGAIN.

Zamacona, the distinguished Mexican lawyer and senator, was examined before Conkling's Committee of investigation into the Mexican border trouble, at Washington on the 31st inst.

ASHLAND AND JACKSONVILLE.

We are very glad to see unmistakable signs of a coming era of good feeling and fellowship between the people of Ashland and Jacksonville.

GENERAL NEWS.

(Condensed from Oregonian and Call Dispatches.)

Washington, Jan. 2.—The public debt statement for December shows a decrease in the debt for the month, of $71,623.

Richmond, Jan. 3.—Reports from points in Louisa and Richmond counties state that the shock of earthquake was felt last evening.

Boston, Jan. 2.—At a special meeting of the Board of Trade this afternoon, a memorial to Congress was adopted protesting against the passage of the silver bill.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—The Post's Washington special says: A bill will be offered soon after the reassembling of Congress, to change the time of meeting from the first Monday in December to the first Monday in October.

New York, Jan. 4.—The first snow storm this season, in this neighborhood, began this morning.

The San says the Aldermen's Committee for the investigation of ring frauds, held a secret session yesterday and adopted a report.

Richmond, Jan. 4.—Snow fell five hours to day, followed by hail and a heavy rain.

Watertown, N. Y., Jan. 4.—In New Hampshire 8 to 12 inches of snow is reported. Cold weather in Maine; in some places 25 degrees below zero.

London, Jan. 4.—Cholera has appeared in Jeddah and Mecca.

STATE NEWS.

(Condensed from State Exchanges)

The grain product of Union county for 1877 was 500,000 bushels, and not one-tenth of its grain land in cultivation.

The Grant Co. Times says the placer mines of Elk creek, Deep creek and Middle Fork, comprising what is known as the Elk creek Mining District, yield from $18,000 to $20,000 per annum.

Many improvements will be made this spring at The Dalles.

Rayburn, of Kings valley, Benton county, disposed of a steer at Albany which netted 1695 lbs.

The Plaindealer says a petition is being extensively circulated, and generally signed, asking Congress to make an appropriation for the construction of a light house at the mouth of the Umpqua.

The Guard states that a young man named Louis Hoosier, who lives near Eugene City, while out hunting this week, slipped and fell, discharging his gun, the ball just grazing his neck, cutting a gash about three inches long.

C. B. Bellenger, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, has called a meeting of said Committee to be held at Portland, on Jan. 31st.

We expect to make a spread on the Democrat in a short time by which means we shall be able to furnish more reading matter than the U. S. Patent Office and a better quality.—State Rights Democrat.

In Marion Co. 117 marriage licenses were issued during 1877.

Prof. Collier, of the Willamette University, will spend the present winter in Topeka, Kansas, returning to Oregon in the spring.

The Statesman says a young man named Geo. Graham shot and killed Daniel Ouchtree at Coastock's station on Jan. 4th. Cause, jealousy. The matter will be investigated.

The Standard says a head of oats raised by John Miller, of Linn Co., measures two feet three inches in length and contains 621 plump kernels.

On the night of Jan 4th, Willard Herren was robbed of $87.35 and a silver watch and gold chain, valued at about $40, while sleeping in the Farmers' ware house at Sidem.

BURN HIS WAY OUT.—A jail bird by the name of Anderson, confined for "robbing a drunk," barred and cut his way out of jail in a funny manner last Tuesday night at Astoria.

SILVER KING.—The incorporators of the Silver King Mining Company have six thousand feet extension on the Tellurium ledge in Douglas county, and are making arrangements for putting men at work on the ledge.
