Subscribers who receive Ashland Foundry notices will please post them conspicuously.

An elegant assortment of autograph albums expected at Chitwood & Atkinson's in a few days.

The Sentinel informs us that Thatcher & Worden have purchased the large safe formerly used by Glenn, Drum & Martin.

Ashland Lodge No. 23, A. F. and A. M. has filed articles of incorporation in the office of Secretary of State; capital stock, $5,000.

Dr. William Jackson remains in Ashland for a few days longer. Do not neglect this opportunity to have your masticating machinery repaired.

We are informed that O. Coolidge is disposing of a great many of his shade, ornamental and fruit trees.

We learn that Tom. McKay and John Brunette of Lake county were employed in the Middle Creek mines this winter on the big ditch, a mile of which the stalwart Tom "scooped out" on contract. It is ramored that Tom has his eye on a rich quartz ledge up in the Cascades somewhere.

Music .- We learn that the examination of Miss Weber's Academy music classes, on last Saturday, was highly entertaining to the visitors, and that much progress was evinced by the pupils. Miss Weber is justly entitled to Watters & Gaby will attend to your her reputation as a first class teacher, and we are pleased to know that she is seeking homes should come over in this country. We have plenty of land to spare.

The citizens of this precinct met at Eagle Point, on Saturday the 9th inst., for the purpose of organizing an Independent Green-back club. Attendance fair and prospects flattering.

Death visited this part of the country on Sunday night, the 10th inst. The victim was a son of Mr. James Miller of Brownsborough. The young man was kicked by a mule, on Saturday night, the 9th. He was going into the baru of Mr. Burton, for his horse. The mule was standing by the door, and as the young man stepped in, kicked him on the side of the head. He was carried to his home, and at 2 o'clock, they sent for the doctor. The doctor arrived Sunday evening, but the patient was beyond the reach of medical skill, and HEARD FROM. - The Standard says: "Dr. Busby, the blind business inspector, is at Marshfield, Coos county." Wonder why he don't send for those handsome posters we printed for him?

It is rumored that Mrs. James Ew ing has disposed of her millinery business in Ashland to Miss Ida Danforth of Jacksonville, and that the latter will take charge of the establishment in a short time.

Two parties of young men who were hurrying in opposite directions collided on the side walk near the post-office on Sunday evening. Result, a broken pane of plate glass and a pain in a young man's arm.

Special State Deputy Jno. B. Rigdoninforms us that, in accordance with instructions from Chief Dunbar, he will undertake the organization of some more lodges of Good Templars in this section of the State, soon.

J. W. Riggs, the photographer, now has his rooms so arranged that he can regulate his supply of light to suit every occasion, and it is wonderful how handsome he is making the people appear. Call and give him a trial.

We learn that some very rich goldbearing quartz has been found on or prospectors, but whether there is a not.

We learn that Mrs. Modisette's resi dence on Main street came near burning on Thursday morning. The shingles on the kitchen aldition caught fire from a defective flue, but assistance arrived in time to nip the conflagration in the bud.
