We tarried awhile at their establishment, a few days ago, and found them well prepared to carry on their business. Several of the labor-saving appliances in use by them, and which enable them to fill orders on short notice and at very reasonable prices, are of their own invention.

-Although not to be regarded as which we visited one day this week, decided success. It was pleasing to see the great water wheel move around with so much calmness and ease, the facility with which John Chandler governed the operations of such a great park of machinery by playing upon wilderness of levers and pulleys, seemed little short of marvelons. We learn that the capacity of the mill is from 5000 to 6000 feet per day. Considering that the demand for lumber in Ashland has long been greater than the old mills could meet, we doubt not this will prove both a substantial benefit to the country and a very profitable enterprise
