

THE ASHLAND TIDINGS

FRIDAY.....MAY 10, 1878.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

All the world's a stage, And all the men and women merely players; They have their exits, and their entrances; And one man in his time plays many parts.

Miss Hattie Ferree, of Lake, is visiting Ashland friends.

Wagner, Anderson & Co. want 150 head of hogs. See their ad.

Drugs, chemicals and toilet goods, in great variety at the City Drug Store.

George Pyatt, manufacturer of Rockingham and yellow-ware, Zanesville, Ohio.

Why don't somebody suggest that we have a 4th of July Celebration in Ashland?

Cannot publish the Tale Lake correspondence until we know the name of the writer.

Andrew J. Walls, of Sam's Valley, made Ashland a "flying visit" with an ox cart this week.

A well-selected stock of jewelry and watches received by Watters & Myer at the City Drug Store.

We are glad to learn that the rumored separation of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walls is without foundation.

Elegant ladies' hats and a handsome variety of other spring goods, just received at J. M. McCall & Co's.

Montgomery Ward & Co., original Grange supply house, 227 and 229 Wash Avenue, Chicago. See the ad.

WANTED—A poor but honest young man, with a family, to go onto a ranch in the Lake country. Call at this office.

Mrs. Victor, the well known authoress, has returned from Walla Walla and will sojourn in Portland for a while.

J. D. Fountain, Esq., has been commissioned by Grand Chief Dunbar, Deputy G. W. C. T., for Ashland Lodge.

Handy & Roberts have closed out their store at Merzanser and have concentrated their mercantile business at Bonanza.

Mose Alford, the suave and genial "altruistarian," will always be found ready to wait on customers at the Pioneer Store.

H. M. Thatcher, of the firm of Thatcher & Worden, came in on Saturday's stage and returned to Linkville on Wednesday.

See the ad. of W. C. Myer, in this issue. Gen. Fleury is undoubtedly one of the finest Percherons ever brought to this coast.

W. Wells, of the firm of Wimer & Wells, Milwrights, is to superintend the reconstruction of the flouring mills. He has already commenced work.

Do not forget that Grand Worthy Chief Dunbar will lecture on the temperance question, at the Ashland Academy, on Sunday evening next.

We are informed, that William Mayfield has rented the Ashland Bakery and restaurant and that the building will be completed at an early date.

It is reported that the new saw mill of Marshall & Chandler, has distinguished itself lately by turning out over 7,000 feet of lumber in a day.

I. D. Applegate of Lake county, came in on Tuesday's stage and will remain until Monday next. He reports things tranquil in the sage brush land.

It is said that a young lady, having been shown a great variety of lavender gloves at a store, inquired of the clerk if these were the "lavenderest" he had.

Thatcher & Worden are preparing to put up a brick store building at Linkville. The brick will be burned within a few hundred yards of the building site.

Thanks for that beautiful bouquet from Mrs. B. F. Myer's, conveyed to our sanctum on Friday last by Miss Eddie Jones and Miss Elsie May McCall.

Brown & Barlingham, the enterprising butchers, have purchased the building and lot now occupied by their shop on Main street, and are now fixed to stay.

B. F. Reester is receiving a large and carefully selected stock of general merchandise for the spring trade. Call and see for yourself. See his new ad. in this week.

The furniture store building of L. S. P. Marsh, one door south of Mr. Klum's saddle and harness shop, is fast approaching completion. It will be finished in handsome style.

Miss M. A. Swingle has removed her excellent stock of millinery goods from Dr. Inlow's building to the stand lately occupied by R. P. Neil's market, a few doors south of the post office. See her ad.

By Sunday morning's stage from the south, Mr Baum and lady returned to their home in Ashland, having enjoyed the long trip across the continent extremely well.

Thanks to Giles Wells, sr., for an occasional call. Uncle Giles is an octogenarian, but seems as young and enthusiastic as he did when we first knew him in the early days.

Our old friend John Q. Latta, for some time past book keeper and sales man for Mr. Karewski, at Dardanelles, is again in Ashland; and the Dardanelles store having been closed out.

Mr. E. M. Miller is erecting a new building between his blacksmith shop and the City Drug Store, for a wagon shop. When completed, it will be occupied by W. W. Kentnor, Ashlands pioneer wagon maker.

See the ad. of J. S. Herrin & Co., in this issue. They have on hand a great variety of just such goods as the people must have, which they are prepared to dispose of at bed-rock prices. Be sure to call and examine their stock.

Daley, Tozer & Emery, are making excellent progress on their furniture factory. The building is ready for the roof, the ditch and frame are completed and the energetic proprietors will commence putting in the machinery without delay.

The significant looking and pleasant spoken individual, who flashed in upon us the other day and presented us with a 6-pound trout from Klamath, was the indefatigable Wm. Cause, who oscillates with his team so regularly between Jackson and Lake.

The Jacksonville Times is soon to be enlarged to a 28 column paper, and Bro. Nickel is gathering in the sheets required to enable him to make the change. Charley makes one of the best local papers in the State and we rejoice in his prosperity.

The hoodlum who placed that big slab of wood on the sidewalk on Granite street, one dark night of this week, expecting to enjoy a hearty laugh at expense of the first unfortunate party who "chanced to pass that way," is evidently not remarkable for his brain muscle.

Charles H. Hill, now teaching in the Schiefelin school house on Rogue River, made a flying visit to his home on Friday night and returned on Sunday. We are glad to know that Charley is pleased with his school and that he is having good success with the young Rogue Rivers.

On Friday morning last, J. M. Fountain, John Deirich, Geo. Hamilton, Britzen, Stubbs and Van Horn, young men who sojourned in Ashland during the winter, started on horse-back to "seek their fortunes" in the John Day and Walla Walla country. Success to them.

Jno. B. Rigdon, returned Tuesday from Lake county. He reports business flourishing at Lake View, Linkville, Bonanza and other points in Lake, and the country rapidly settling up. J. B. has himself taken up a ranch in Summer Lake valley, where we presume he intends making himself a country seat.

John K. Helman and several other teamsters arrived from Roseburg with freight, on Monday. John brought the Bamham Turbine water wheel, for Daley, Tozer & Emery's furniture factory. The wheel is 16 1/2 inches in diameter, weighs something over 400 lbs and it is supposed will prove a perfect little giant.

School Report. Report of the Public School of Ashland, for the month ending May 31: 1st Department—Frances Myer, teacher, No. enrolled, 47; average attendance, 32. 2d Department—F. E. Anderson teacher, No. enrolled, 32; average attendance, 26. Recapitulation—No. enrolled, 79; No. in attendance, 58.

A gentleman living a block or two north of our office does not take the Tidings, and consequently cannot keep posted on the progress of the place. He rushed into a millinery store on Main street, the other day, and inquired for beef. Since his previous visit, the butcher shop had been transformed into a repository for spring hats, trimmings and some other articles which seldom appear in his lonely domicile.

INSTALLATION.—At a regular meeting of Ashland Lodge, No. 180, I. O. G. T., held on Saturday evening May 4th, the following officers were installed for the ensuing term: Thos O. Andrews, W. C. T.; Josephine Kilgore, W. R. H. S.; Hattie Reeser, W. V. T.; H. T. Chitwood, W. S.; Mary Applegate, W. A. S.; O. R. Myer, W. F. S.; Laura Thornton, W. T.; J. Clarence Entwanks, W. M.; Lizzie Hargadine, W. D. M.; J. S. Entwanks, W. Chap.; Jennie Anderson, W. I. G.; Ella Anderson, W. O. G.; F. Walter Myer, P. W. C. T.

THE CANDIDATES.—The People's Mass Convention, held at Jacksonville on Saturday last, nominated the following county ticket: State Senator, Gen. John E. Riss; Representatives, William Kahler and Matthew Fountain; Sheriff, Wm. Bybee; Clerk, E. B. Watson; Treasurer, Pat Donegan; Assessor, B. C. Goddard; County Commissioners, C. Magruder and Royal Benedict; County Surveyor, C. J. Howard; School Superintendent, J. W. Merritt; Coroner, John Cimborisky.

PHOENIX.—At a regular meeting of Elen Lodge, No. 197, I O G T, held on the 6th inst., the following officers were installed for the ensuing quarter: J. F. Cooper, W. C. T.; Nettie Gore, W. R. H. S.; Martha Randall, W. L. H. S.; Mrs C Gore, W. V. T.; Laura Sergeant, W. Sec'y; H. H. Taylor, W. A. S.; Wm Taylor, W. F. S.; Emma Colman, W. Treas; Harry Mathes, W. M.; Hattie Colman, W. D. M.; Florence Donlap, W. I. G.; L. A. Rose, W. O. G.; Mrs M Colman, W. Chaplain; Maggie Sergeant, P. W. C. T.

A JOKE.—A certain modern Ben Brummel met with quite a peculiar adventure, a few evenings ago, in the old historic town of Phoenix, while escorting the schoolmaria home from the burg. Coming to a gate, the escort dismounted to open it while Miss S. drove through with the buggy, but she neglected to stop for the gentleman and drove on into town. It was a little too dark to follow up on foot, so he took up his lodging at an adjacent farm house, and the next morning sent an order to the schoolmaria for the buggy, team and driver. She reported in due time, not half so well pleased with her little joke as she thought she would be.

A certain Ashland artisan had the misfortune to swallow a carpet tack the other day. The circumstance caused quite a sensation at the City Drug Store, where it occurred, particularly on the part of the swallower, who it appears did not consider his digestive powers equal to those of an ostrich. Dr. Farlow suggested that the metal might be brought to the surface by a powerful magnet, and Dr. Watters recommended a dose of nitric acid as a certain antidote, as it would be sure to consume the tack at once. Since the doctors differed so materially, the artisan thought best to take the chances on nature and we are glad to know that the sequel has proven the correctness of his judgment.

MURDER WILL OUT.—We learn that a man named Lee, who murdered his wife four years ago at Forestville, Sonoma county, California, was lately arrested while herding sheep for J. D. Carr, at Clear Lake, Modoc Co., Cal., and that he has been taken to Lake View to await the receipt of a requisition from the Governor. It is said that Lee made his home the greater part of last winter with Harry Oviatt, at the latter's residence a few miles south of Ashland, and that he was recognized on the road between this place and Jacksonville, by a man who helped to bury the murdered woman in California. This discovery led to his arrest, which was made by Harry Oviatt and Mr. Holt, the California acquaintance.

ACCIDENT.—On last Saturday night, while Frank Rodgers was returning from the Soda Springs in a sulkey, one of the wheels ran onto a boulder, capsizing the vehicle. Mr. Rogers was thrown out, but held onto the lines until the frightened animal had dragged him some distance. Escaping from him, the horse ran about a hundred and fifty yards and fell dead. The next morning it was found that the animal's neck was broken, which, appearances indicated, had been caused by his running against the fence. The horse was a valuable one, belonging to H. E. Phillips of the Ashland Livery Stables. Although somewhat barked and bruised, Mr. Rodgers was not seriously hurt.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—On Friday afternoon, three of the Democratic State nominees, viz: Hon. W. W. Thayer, Thomas G. Reames and A. Noltner, accompanied by H. K. Hanna Esq., Hon. W. J. Plymouth, J. R. Neil, Esq., T. B. Kent, Esq., and Herman Helms, made our town a visit, and in the evening Judge Thayer addressed the people upon the issues of the day. The meeting was held at Miller's hall, Daniel Gaby Esq., presiding. The address was a happy departure from the usual style of political speeches, being courteous and argumentative and remarkably free from bitter invective and wholesale condemnation of the opposition. This political business is comparatively new to Mr. Thayer, and stump speeches are out of the line of his experience, but his style is far better calculated to attract than repel and is sure to impress his audience with a favorable idea of his intentions.

I O G T.—At the last regular meeting of Linkville Lodge, I O G T, the following officers were installed for the ensuing term, viz: C S Moore, W C T; Mrs M E Lewis, W V T; Wm Taylor, W F S; Mrs W S Moore, W Treas; Nat Williams, W Chap; Collie Stough, W M; Miss N A Hazen, W I G; Eddie Brooks, W O G; Miss Bartha Moore, W A S; Miss Ettie Moore, W D M; Miss Mollie Brooks, W R S; Miss Frankie Corpe, L H S; C H Dyar, P W C T. C H Dyar, Mrs M E Lewis and Mrs W S Moore were chosen as Grand Lodge representatives; Dr E J Boyd and Miss Ettie Moore, as alternates. Lodge decided to recommend C H Dyar to the Grand Lodge for the appointment of Lodge Deputy.

I. O. O. D. S.—And now comes the versatile and humorous Redington, whom we knew as a typo and localist in the capital city, in the days when the Independent Order of Ditche Slaves flourished like a green bay tree. He writes from Heppner, Umatilla county. Let us make an extract: "It is reported around in private circles that you want to hear from me. Well, Cap., as we have no telephone up this way, I swear I can't 'holloer' so you can hear my gentle whisper. I have nothing to say, and I guess you or any of the boys can say it for me. I have traveled around some since we used to train in your Ditche Slaves outfit, and never fully realized what big feet the Lord must have, until I saw the extent of country he uses for a football. No matter where I roam, or what part of our extensive country I picket my capsize in, I shall remember you and hope for your present and future welfare. Yours in dirt, REDINGTON.

Willow Springs Items. May 8, 1878. Weather warm, and politics too. Miss Sherrie Dean, of this place, is visiting friends at Grant's Pass. Quite a number of our young folks attended the dance, at Fook's Creek, May 1st. They report having had a nice time. Mr. Karewski has closed his store, at Dardanelles. If you want to see gentlemen of all trades, you will find them in front of C. Starb's blacksmith shop, pitching horse shoes. Married.—On Gall's Creek, May 1st, 1878, by Willis Hayes, J. P., Dillard Ham and Miss Barbara Satterfield. The Dardanelles House was burned to ashes, yesterday. A. E. R.

Bonanza Items. April 28, 1878. Ed. Tidings:—Bonanza is the refuge for old bachelors, since there are no old maids here to set traps for them. Every thing looks lovely here. Cattie are getting fat. The base ball game still rolls on. Bro. Rigdon has been here again. Come again J. B., we may yet find out what brings you here so often. G. W. C. T., Dunbar, was here and gave us a call. I hope he will come often. The following is the list of officers elected by Bonanza Lodge, No. 308, for the ensuing quarter: J. Backmaster, W. C. T.; Fannie Van Riper, W. V. T.; Charles Butler, W. S.; W. A. Lockie, W. F. S.; Amy Lewis, W. L. G.; Elmer Walter, W. O. G.; Mrs. Keegel, Chaplain; S. A. Lewis, Treasurer; J. West, W. M.; Rev. Orson Lewis, P. W. C. T.; J. M. Walter, R. H. S.; Della Walter, L. H. S. Long may the banner of temperance wave over this land! Always remember J. BACKMASTER.

Butte Creek Items. Ed. Tidings:—Chas. Hughes has cut his hand badly with an axe. Logging has been commenced with vigor at the mill of Marsh & Co. School will open on May 6th, with Wm. H. Parker as teacher. Our Supervisors are dilatory. Obstructions have not been removed from our roads. One man on Big Butte has obstructed the highway, which action is receiving some comment. Cattle buyers are plentiful, and offer liberal prices for beef cattle. Mr. A. C. Howlet informs me that he lost 350 head of sheep, during the in clement weather. James and John are the captors of a live badger, of huge size and as old as the hills. Some refreshing showers have instilled new life into vegetation. Squire Dunlap's oldest son is a perfect dwarf—14 years of age, weighs about 200 pounds, and wears a No. 12 shoe. Robert Gray, while hunting in the mountains, got into a nest of panthers. They poured forth some vehement growls. After a moment's meditation with his optics performing a double duty, he at once decided not to court a combat—not even a flank movement—but to make an unceremonious retreat. Robert was once a brave soldier—has for many years met young America face to face in the school room—but never before was in such torrid prejudices. W. H. P.
