

THE ASHLAND TIDINGS

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1878.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

When men's intents are wicked, their guilt haunts them; But when they are just, they're armed, and nothing daunts them.—MIDDLETON.
New sheet music at Chitwood & Atkinson's.
There are nearly a score of Millionaires in Ashland.
Thanks to Davy and Fannie Ralph for strawberries.
FOUND—On Main street, two keys. Call at Tidings office.
Only the best native wool used at the Ashland Woolen Mills.
Thanks for a call on Monday from Hon. W. F. Songer, of Barron.
Harness of various styles for sale at bedrock prices at C. K. Klum's.
If the Tidings is exceedingly dull this week, blame the politicians.
DEAD.—S. C. Taylor's fine thoroughbred horse Young Prince, is dead.
Elder Martin Peterson will preach at the school house on Sunday, June 23d.
A wise man says: Kindness is the golden chain which binds society together.
A rare opportunity at the Mammoth Brick. Read the "Notice" in to-days issue.
Call on Dr. Jackson, over the City Drug Store, and get your teeth repaired.
A great number of families are passing through Ashland on their way to and from California.
Mr. H. E. Spencer of Molokai, on the road to Linkville, is just completing a new residence.
Milo A. Walker has Deadwood on the stock business. This ranch is in the Dead Indian country.
Hon. L. S. Dyar, of Lone Star Ranch, Lake Co., made a flying visit to Ashland this week.
The Woolen Mills are now running almost up to their full capacity and are turning out some splendid fabrics.
Celia Brown, a light breed girl, is giving good satisfaction as a teacher in the school house near Lost River Gap.
Thanks for a pleasant call on Monday last, from Rufus Cole, who resides at the foot of the Siskiyou on the south side.
Mr. Geo. Nickerson, of Klamath Agency, and Mr. Elmore, of Lost river, were in town a few days ago with their teams.
We spent a pleasant hour examining those fine pictures at Chitwood & Atkinson's through their new stereoscopes.
See the splendid farming machinery just received by B. F. Reeser, and ruminate on the wonderful progress of the age.
Whether elected School Superintendent or not, J. D. Fountain will always be found ready for his at the Post Office Store.
About 1,300 head of cattle, belonging to S. Marks & Co., of Roseburg, passed through town last week, en route to Warner Lake.
Mr. Tyler is building a residence on Strychnine Gulch, two or three miles above the Soda Springs, on the road to the Lake country.
We wish to call attention to the interesting sketch of Pioneer history, from the graphic pen of Wm. M. Turner Esq. of this county.
Geo. T. Baldwin is our duly authorized agent at Linkville and will collect subscriptions due the Tidings, attend to advertising business etc.
Handy & Roberts have concentrated their mercantile business at Bonanza, but another merchant will hold forth at Merganser. Ad next week.
Mr. Baldwin is now doing a good business in the saddlery and harness line at Merganser. He is a good workman and well deserving of patronage.
We have a weakness for strawberries and we shall gratefully remember Mrs. Bertha Baum, who was the first to appreciate this peculiarity of the editorial appetite.
Miss Alena Weber designs leaving for Chicago, within a short time, perhaps not to return. During her sojourn at some three years in Ashland she has made a multitude of friends whose good wishes will accompany her to her eastern home.
LOST.—The editor of this paper slipped his halter last Friday, and got away. He is supposed to have gone back to his old range in Lake county. Any information leading to his recovery, will be thankfully received at the Tidings office.
(We think we can detect the aroma of SAGE—Sanctus Sage—in the above item.—Ed.)

The Ashland public school, for some time past conducted by Misses Frances Myer and Ella Anderson, closed for the summer vacation on Friday, May, 31st.
Mr. John Laey, of Corral Creek, is putting up new buildings, in the pretty little cove near where the stage road crosses the creek, within a couple of miles of Pioneer P. O.
Lately, two prominent stock men of Lake took nice head of horses before the purchasing board of officers at Fort Klamath, and succeeded in disposing of all but eight.
Uncle Geo. Nurse, of Linkville, has a splendid garden. His pea vines are already in bloom, and green peas will doubtless appear on the tables of the Pioneer Hotel in a few days.
Do not fail to call at C. K. Klum's saddlery and harness establishment, next door to the brick store, and examine his large and well-selected stock of goods, lately received from San Francisco.
FIRM.—On the morning of the 23th ult., the American Exchange Hotel, in Portland, was nearly destroyed by fire. Many buildings along the wharf was destroyed and the Oregonian narrowly escaped.
We are requested to return the thanks of Miss Weber and her music scholars to the gentlemen, Mr. W. W. Watson and others, who so kindly assisted in decorating the Academy for the concert.
Thatcher & Worden, of Linkville, are now doing a very extensive business in the mercantile line. They are genial, enterprising and liberal men and are sure to receive a generous patronage from the people of Lake.
J. M. Sutton is canvassing for a number of valuable and elegant books, among them Frances Fuller Victor's New Penelope, which contains a choice selection of her poems and short stories first published in the Overland Monthly.
At a regular meeting of Ashland Lodge, No. 45, I. O. O. F., held on May 25, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: E. D. Peatt, N. G.; M. B. B. V. G.; C. O. Applegate, R. S.; J. W. Riggs, P. S.; E. J. Farlow, Treasurer.
The furniture factory of Dancy, Tozer & Emery is now in full and successful operation. The proprietors are all skilled workmen and will be able to place their furniture into the market at very reasonable rates. We expect to publish their ad. next week.
We learn that Mr. Arant, who resides at the Pine Grove, about five miles east of Linkville, has a promising crop of rye on a dry sage brush ridge. If Mr. A.'s experiment proves successful, it will appear that almost any tract of sage brush land in the Lake country will produce rye without irrigation.
E. J. Farlow, Barney Miller and G. W. Ford, after spending several years among enlightened people, have returned to the mountains to indulge their old time passion for taking life. They are now supposed to be living on Keene creek, in the most primitive style, and making sad work among the poor mountaineers.
Mr. Fehely, the younger, is at Linkville, making brick for the store building of Thatcher & Worden. The brick yard is within a few hundred yards of the building site, so that the expense of hauling will be slight. The kiln is almost completed, it is to contain a hundred thousand bricks and will be ready for the torch by Monday next.
Since the report of the egg laying achievement of Mr. Kentour's Brahma, a little black, old fashioned hen at Mr. Rockefeller's, not to be outdone by the new fangled gant, went straightway to her nest and deposited two eggs also, one a common sized one, and the other about an inch and a half long and pear-shaped. These Asiatic fowls will have to rise pretty early in the morning if they are going to outdo the old pioneers. Next!
SCHONCHIN.—Among the Indians who came in from the Reservation, a short time ago, after supplies, was old Schonchina, the legal and hereditary Chief of all the Modocs. The old man was a terror to the whites in the early Modoc wars, but since the time he made his mark to the treaty of 1864, he has been an unwavering friend to the whites and has lived up to the stipulations of the treaty with the most unbending firmness. Had Capt. Jack listened to his advice, the succeeding band would have been quietly located on the Reservation years ago, and we would have been spared the dread tragedy of the Lava Beds. Although the old man is of the doomed and fading race, he has shown a degree of firmness in the fulfillment of his promises which many of his pale faced brethren would do well to emulate.

H. C. HILL.
Rev. J. B. Donaldson, G. F. Billings, Wm. Myer and H. McBride left Ashland, on Wednesday, for the Lake country, to be absent perhaps ten days. They go to interest themselves by landscape seeing and for the invigoration which is likely to come from breathing the pure atmosphere of the Lake basin.

Fatal Accident.
A sad affair occurred at Davison's steam saw mill, on Anderson creek, on last Thursday. Thomas Moreland a young man, 18 years of age, while oiling the machinery was caught on a shaft by a projecting key, and so badly injured that he died in two hours. The young man was universally esteemed by a large circle of friends, and the parents and family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

John B. R. Hutchings, of the Ashland Glove Factory, left for Lake county on Wednesday morning. He takes Mrs. Hutchings with him, hoping that his health may be improved by a trip through the country east of the mountains. If not materially benefited by the climate of the Lake country, they may go from that section to California. Mr. Hutchings requests us to return thanks to the Ashland people who have so kindly assisted, in every way practicable, during Mrs. Hutchings' long protracted illness. Mr. H. designs returning after a while, to continue his business at the glove factory.

NEW PATENTS.—THE MINING AND SCIENTIFIC PRESS Patent Department has received official notice of the issue of the following patents to May 14th, viz: Robert Charles Brown, Portland, Ogo, construction of hulls of steam vessels; Francis C. Bryant, Seattle, Washington Ter., fire escapes; Benjamin F. Mull, Marred, Cal., earth augers; Truman Austin, Virginia City, Nev., washing machines; Adam Rutherford, Walla Walla, Washington Ter., improved brass fastenings; Tractenmarks—J. Saxon Taylor, San Francisco, Cal., cream tartar; Labels—The Western Manufacturing Company, San Francisco, Cal., "Edward's Superior Laundry Blanket."

THE CONCERT.—A large and appreciative audience was in attendance at the Academy, on the evening of the 4th, on the occasion of the Concert given by Miss Alena Weber's music pupils. The entertainment was interesting throughout, and gave evidence of no mean talent on the part of the pupils, and of much skillful training by the accomplished teacher. In an attempt to review each exercise separately, we might unjustly discriminate against some really meritorious performances, hence, we shall only say that all acquitted themselves creditably, many exceedingly well, and that the entertainment was just such an one as lovers of good music could not help enjoying. Such entertainments are calculated to develop the finer sensibilities of a people, and are far more worthy of patronage than the traveling exhibitions which so often appeal to the coarser tastes, and we hope to see many such exhibitions of home talent in the future. Towards the close of the entertainment, Miss Frances Myer appeared on the stage, and, in a well worn and very appropriate address, presented Miss Weber with the joint donation of the pupils, consisting of a drinking goblet, fruit knife and napkin ring, the knife and ring of pure silver and the goblet heavily silver plated on the outside, lined with gold, and engraved with Miss Weber's monogram. The proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $53.75.

Shavings From Phoenix.
Our correspondent sends us the following items from Phoenix.
In the immediate vicinity of our town, the health of the people is remarkably good. On Wagner creek however, the whooping cough is raging very severely, keeping children from school; but as yet I have heard of no deaths resulting from it.
The election passed off very quietly. No effect of strong drink was visible.
I must say to the honor of many of our citizens who occasionally indulge in the social bowl, that they labored on the side of law and order.
The Lodge of Good Templars, at this place, has started out with new life, since the visit of Chief Danbar and many have renewed their membership.
The total number of votes cast in this precinct last Monday, was 152. Democrat, 70; Republican, 60; Greenback, 25. Welton Besson's majority for Justice of the Peace, was 25. You will therefore, in the future, please address him as "Squire."

The denizens of this part of the world would be very thankful to the parties carrying the mails between here and Ashland, if they would bring our legitimate matter, and if any must be left let it be the Senatorial grandiloquence.

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS.
JACKSONVILLE, June 4th, 1878.
E. L. TIDINGS.—Last week several pagistic encounters occurred in town and vicinity, occasioned by political fever or perhaps spiritual fanaticism.

A gentleman, having occasion to dine out in the country, was surprised to see the host break a piece of lump sugar in two, before passing it, thinking it too large for one cup of coffee, and also remarked it was not healthy to eat too much.

At a regular meeting of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., last Saturday, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing term, viz: N. G. J. H. Penn; V. G., F. Luy; R. S., S. J. Day; T., Wm. Bybee.
Yesterday, Stephen Halbert was bringing an old man 60 years of age, by the name of Joseph Rath, into town to vote and while descending a steep hill on the Sterlingville road, part of the harness broke and the team ran away. Mr. Rath was thrown out upon his head, cutting a fearful gash. His right foot caught in the wheel, and the bone was broken off just above the ankle and the flesh cut entirely through, leaving the foot hanging by the tendons, the leg was amputated below the knee this morning by Dr. Danforth, assisted by Drs. Vrooman and Aiken.

Miss Florence Mace resides 10 miles from Jacksonville. She has been attending school in town and for a period of eight weeks she rode, going and returning, 100 miles per week, and in eight weeks 800 miles, and all with the same horse. This is not much for an Oregon girl to perform, but how would it suit ladies in the Eastern States?

Mr. T. T. McKenzie has had his mill on Bear creek whitewashed, a new race dug, and everything put in good order.
Wild fruit, such as plums cherries and berries, will be very abundant this season.
Haying has commenced.
The heavy storm last week knocked down considerable hay and grain, but added many thousand bushels to our harvest.
A poor marksman, or one very nervous, who possibly may have been snooting at a dog, Sunday night, about 11 o'clock, fired into the dwelling of one of our citizens. The ball entered through a bed-room window, shivering the glass; passed through a partition and another room and lodged in the wall above a clock, which stood upon the mantle. It is known almost for a certainty who the persons is, and it is also known that the Town Marshal was in the immediate vicinity but no arrest was made, although we have a Town ordinance which strictly prohibits shooting within the corporation.

On Monday, while in Linkville, we inspected the ditch, just completed, which conveys water from the cascades near the lake into the town, and found it substantially constructed. The enterprise will add materially to the well-being of the old pioneer town of the Lake country, and the citizens who have so successfully carried it out, have shown a commendable degree of public spirit. It is now proven that the expense of conveying water from Link River, around the ridges near the town, to the vast sag plain between that place and Lost River, would not be as great as many have thought, and, before many years, we expect to see vast grain fields where now the sage brush "blooms and blossoms" and the festive squirrel makes his home.
