

THE ASHLAND TIDINGS. FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1878.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

SEVERAL interesting communications lay over until next week.

Walter F. Sutton has been re-elected County Clerk of Curry county.

A large lot of tinware and stoves just received by J. M. McCall & Co.

Born—in Alturas, June 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Ewing, a daughter.

Born—in Goose Lake Valley, May 30th, to Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Barnes, a son.

MRS HARGADINE received, this week an eight-horse two-story wagon load of goods.

READ the land notice of C. B. Watson, since it was corrected from 40 to 640 acres.

Chitwood & Atkinson have just received a large invoice of nuts, candies, and other fourth of July things.

The citizens of Foothills and vicinity are, as usual, to celebrate the 4th in an appropriate style. They are to have a grand ball at night.

C. K. KREM, our wild-wake saddle maker and harnesser, has just received direct from New York a large invoice of goods in his line.

HENRY NORTON arrived in Ashland with the heaviest cargo of goods ever brought from Redding to this county. It weighed 10,864 pounds.

Why should the battlements of our new bridge succeed better in subduing the Bonnocks, than Gen. Howard? Because it is of heavier material.

The Tidings will be issued one day earlier next week, to give our boys a chance to buy candy and peanuts for to give to their Betsy Marriahs, etc.

Our old time friend, Binger Hermon, of Douglas county, passed through Ashland recently, on his way to Lake View, to attend Judge Poin's court, now sitting there.

We are indebted to C. A. Cogswell, of Lake View, for a tabulated statement of the vote of Lake county. Also to Mr. C. B. Watson, of the same place, for similar favors.

PATENTS—Mr. Homer C. Emery, of Union, Oregon, has recently received a patent for turning chisels, and Lyman Woodroff, of Ellensburg, for methods of curing fish.

Hon. W. R. Dabbar has again been elected G. W. C. P. This makes the fifth time he has been elected to that important position—a position he is so eminently qualified to fill.

Much Original matter will be found on the first page of the Tidings today. Read "the late stage robbery," and letters from W. C. Myer, Lost River, Bitte creek and Che-wan-on.

Young ladies who are matrimonially inclined, would do well to trade at Mrs. Hargadine's store. They are sure to get good measure, especially if they should capture the chief clerk.

Mr. L. M. Gillette, who has been an invalid for so many years in this place, and Mr. John Murphy started, on last Wednesday, for the Bartlette Springs, Cal., to try the efficacy of its water as a healing medium.

We join in jointly, with the jolly crew who jaw about Mrs. Jones' ad, being jostled out last week. But, judging from the jovial crowd that jump joyfully out of her establishment, with new hats on, this general jawing was not justifiable.

TO BE REMOVED.—From a private letter, written to a gentleman of this place, by Mr. Rook, Indian agent at the Klamath reservation, we learn that the Indians who have been stopping at Dead Indian, are to be taken back to the reservation.

ELEGANT SIGN.—Now comes J. D. Fountain of the Post Office Store, and elevates on his front, a splendid sign. While gazing on his new label, we discovered that he had just received a fine assortment of boots and shoes, fruit cans, etc. Try them on.

Our old friend Wm. Chase, came over the mountains last week, and reports the road between here and Linkville in a bad condition. The vast number of cattle that passed over the road have filled it with stones, which they have started from above and lodged on the grade.

FIRE COMPANY.—Is it not time the property holders in Ashland, were taking steps to organize a fire company? Should a fire break out at the present time, we doubt if a dozen buckets could be procured on the spur of the moment. Certainly there could be no organized effort against fire. Let those most interested, take steps to organize a hook and ladder company. Among the young men of this town, we doubt not, there are plenty "able and willing" to organize a good company.

Our muscular friend, Chas. Sperry is in the church business. He has nearly completed the foundation for the new Presbyterian church. But Charley aint very swift of foot in hot weather.

The Faber and Packard Organs are celebrated for the strength, and melody of their tones. Messrs. Levison & Arrington, agents for these instruments, are now in our vicinity ready to procure orders.

Weather Report From observations taken at sunrise: June 21st, 51, clear; 22d, 53, clear; 23d, 57, clear; 24th, 45, clear; 25th, 47, clear; 26th, 54, clear; 27th, 57, cloudy. The figures following the date indicate the temperature. H. C. HILL.

Card of Thanks. Mr. L. M. Gillette desires to return his warmest thanks to the kind and charitable people of this community, for so liberally subscribing finesses to enable him to visit the Bartlette Springs, in California.

DECIDEDLY COOL.—While our Post Master was engaged in concealing a cane which he had become in possession of, some individual stole the shutter from his office door, and was just returning to get the door, and a lot of pigeon-holes, when the robbery was discovered, and the shutter recovered.

Put on your new collar, comb your hair a la mode, borrow a coin, go to her father's house and say to her in a bland like way, Ahem—Miss—can I have the exercising pleasure of your company to the ball given on the evening of the fourth? Then show them the notice in the Tidings. Then, if she doesn't say yes, you have our sympathy.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.—From a private letter, written to a gentleman of this place, we learn that on election day, at Prineville, a fight occurred between Van Allen, and Jim Chamberlain, in which the former was killed. Allen received two shots, and Chamberlain one. They fought on horseback, and Chamberlain's horse was killed.

We call attention to the card of Prof. J. Q. Willits in today's issue. We have been shown a number of very complimentary certificates from eminent musicians, among whom are Prof. J. W. Root, Prof. Antonio de Arguera, head tuner to the firm of W. W. Kimball & Co., Chicago, and others, all speaking in high terms of Prof. Willits' proficiency as a music teacher, and tuner.

We would not be surprised if a man some twenty-five or thirty years younger, should have been engaged in the business, but we were not prepared to expect that father Walrod was still engaged in sowing wild oats. But we can say, that the old gentleman sent in our office this week, a stock of wild oats of his own sowing that measured six feet eight inches in length.

LATER.—We have received from our regular correspondent at Linkville further particulars of the late suicide at that place, as follows: LINKVILLE, OR., June 21st, 1878. A girl by the name of Mary E. Musfield, who was living with Mrs. Baldwin of this place, committed suicide on Tuesday morning, the 18th inst., by shooting herself through the heart with a pistol, which she had secretly taken from Mr. Baldwin's trunk. It is thought she attempted to destroy herself with laudanum the day before, and, failing in this, contrived by some means to get possession of the pistol, and started out from Mrs. B's house, saying she was going to pick flowers. She went up on the hill, a short distance from the house, and, concealing herself behind some bushes, so as to be partially screened from the road, used the weapon with the most deadly effect. Justice Hamaker being notified, summoned the following named gentlemen to serve on Coroner's Jury, to-wit: George Norse, John Pearson, H. B. Stafford, S. B. Cranston, G. T. Baldwin and J. T. Forbes, who, after making a thorough investigation into all the circumstances return a verdict in accordance with the above facts. No cause whatever is known for the rash act. H.

From New Pine Creek. June 17, 1878. Sailing on the Lake is fine. Garden sassa is becoming abundant. Mr. James Applegate has bought the farm of Horace Merrill, near Willow Ranch in Modoc Co., Cal.

Parties from Jacksonville, are in Lake View, having in view the opening of a hardware store.

Uncle Joe Robinet and family intend to start in a few days to visit their friends in the Willamette valley.

The saw mill of Robinet & Snelling is cutting about 8 000 feet daily.

The 4th of July will be duly celebrated at the State line grounds on Pine Creek, under the auspices of the Good Templars. "Come everybody."

The Pute Indians are on the war path, near Steins mountain and settlers are reported fleeing for safety, leaving their stock behind. The troops at Camp Bidwell started for the seat of war this morning. Proprietary.

Root, Mr. B. R. Willis, Mrs. H. F. Barron, Mr. E. J. Farlow, Mrs. J. R. Tozer, Mr. E. K. Anderson, Mr. P. L. Fountain.

Coffee will be prepared on the ground. Parties bringing provisions, will please provide themselves with cups. The "Plag ugies" will have a separate choir and orator of their own. Marshal of the day, Prof. W. T. Leeke; Assistant Marshals, Eugene Walrod and W. C. Daley.

Laying the Corner Stone

On last Monday evening, at 7 o'clock the very interesting ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the new Presbyterian Church, at this place, were performed. The exercises consisted of music, devotional exercises, addresses, etc.

A very able address, appropriate to the occasion, was prepared by Rev. H. W. Stratton.

Rev. J. B. Donaldson, read a paper giving some interesting reminiscences of the churches in Ashland, and the upper part of the valley. Capt. O. C. Applegate read a poem written especially for the occasion by W. A. McPherson.

Next, the basket prepared as a receptacle of the mementoes, to be deposited in the corner stone, was produced, and the following articles placed therein and the basket sealed up: 1st a copy of the New York Evangelist, of May 30th, containing an account of the meeting of the last General Assembly, and also an address of Rev. Dr. Kimball, on the subject of home missions; and one copy of the Interior, containing the same data. 2d a present by H. W. Stratton; one copy of the Ashland Tidings of June 21st; one copy of the Uster Co. (N. Y.) Gazette, published June 4th 1890, containing proceedings of Congress on the death of Washington; presented by Mrs. Ralph; the address of the occasion delivered by H. W. Stratton; the poem written for the occasion by W. A. McPherson; reminiscences of the Ashland church read by Rev. J. B. Donaldson; one coin, current date, by H. W. Stratton; one coin of 1857, bearing the date of Rev. M. A. Willits' first sermon in the valley, by Wm. Mathis; one coin of 1875 date of the organization of this church by J. B. Donaldson. The ceremonies closed by an earnest and elaborate invocation by Rev. Geo. Nutley.

FROM LAKE VIEW.

We extract the following items from a private letter written at Lake View, under date of June 20th: There is considerable excitement here over prospective Indian troubles. People are moving from Warner valley, to this valley. D. R. Jones and family, with a number of others came in the day before yesterday considerably excited and report depredations, as having already commenced there, which, however seems more of imagination than reality. Yet, from reports well authenticated, there is no doubt that the Indians—Stokes and Pintos—are making hostile demonstrations in the neighborhood of Steins mountain and Ft. Harney. About four hundred Indians having gathered at Juniper Lake, a squad of soldiers went out to see what they were doing, a skirmish followed which resulted in the death of six or seven soldiers and one Indian. It is reported that they have captured several thousand head of cattle and are butchering and drying beef. Some suspicions are entertained that the Klamath and Yainax Indians anticipate joining them, or furnishing recruits and supplies. Some of them have been here for several days, selling ponies, and in one or two instances trading Henry rifles for ponies. This it seems to me is a most unthoughtless need, or willful crime. The signs are good for another general war, and the settlers are well armed. Trouble in this valley does not seem to be anticipated, and could be feared only in the event of a Klamath outbreak.

The case of Willson, for the murder of Dodge in Warner valley last winter, went to trial at Canyon City last week. The jury's finding to acquit, a change was taken for this place, and the case will probably come up for trial at the coming term of court. I learn that the Grand Jury find a true bill of murder in the first degree—nine of the trial jurors were for acquittal and three for manslaughter. Judge Stearns from Bor City and Mr. Parish from Canyon City, attorneys for the defense came in today by way of Harney. There report considerable excitement about Harney, settlers forcing on and all the confusion incident to an Indian outbreak.
