

THE ASHLAND TIDINGS.

FRIDAY..... JULY 26, 1878

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Look out for the total eclipse of the sun, on next Monday.

ATTENTION TOOTHBROERS—Read the "ad." of band instruments for sale.

Elder Martin Peterson will preach in Ashland, one week from next Sunday.

There has been a Rush of Willits in town this week, but they will leave think, soon.

Prof. J. Q. Willits last week took a spin over into Lake county and returned with a whole scalp.

Prof. R. H. Long and favorably known in this county passed through Ashland one day last week.

Elder M. Peterson held a basket meeting at Haber's grove last week, which was well attended.

Messrs L. S. P. Marsh and J. P. Parker have dissolved firm relation in the saw mill business, on Battle creek.

Alia Vinson left Missouri for this county, in 1852. Now Lafayette Vinson, of Fort Gay W. V., wants to know his whereabouts.

BUILDING—Charley Adams is having a building erected on the corner east of B. F. Reeser's and will soon occupy it as a residence.

We are indebted to Mrs. Willits for a basket of large delicious blackberries, the like of which can be found no where, here in Ashland.

Drs. Danforth and Robinson have formed a co-partnership for the practice of their profession in Jacksonville. See their card in to-day's issue.

We learn that efforts are being made to start a newspaper at Lake View. Such an institution is much needed there, and we wish them success.

We learn that G. W. Wimmer's flouring mills, on Murphy creek, Josephine county, are turning out a vast quantity of material for the "staff of life."

The Treasurer of Lake county is prepared to pay all outstanding indebtedness, up to June 1st, 1878. Happy county. Read Treasurer's notice.

W. A. McPherson has recovered from his late attack of pneumonia and has gone to Lake county, on business. He expects to be back in two weeks.

Oregon is ahead of every other State in the Union, she being the only State that has a separate exhibit in the Agricultural Department, at the Paris exhibition.

Gove & Merrill, who have been stopping in Ashland with their Photo Tent, have gone to Jacksonville. They do good work in their line, and are worthy of patronage.

FIRE—All persons interested in the suppression of fire, are requested to meet at Miller's Hall, on Monday evening next, to organize a Fire Company. Don't forget it.

Our old pioneer friend, Uncle Lindsay Applegate, presented us with some delicious apples, being the first ripe apples of the season. They were duly appreciated and eagerly devoured.

See that familiar old pioneer "phiz," in our professional column to day. Mr. Dowell is a newspaper man himself, and knows the benefit of an ad.; besides, he wants to patronize the papers.

A row between a male and female Chinaman, occurred in Jacksonville recently, which was investigated by Recorder Hayden, and the latter was called on to pay the judicial expenses.

FINE LAMBS.—Jas. McCully arrived in Ashland, on last Wednesday, from the Lake county via the De-Ind Indian trail, with twenty five head of full blood Leicester buck lambs from his flocks.

A juvenile singing class, under the direction of Prof. J. Q. Willits, will be organized at the Ashland Academy, on Monday, July 23rd, at 9:30 A. M. Terms, $1.50 for twenty four lessons.

One Frank Owens has been published as a piano tuning bill, some where in Oregon. Taint any of our Owens; we know 'em all, and there's not one of them got music enough in them to tune a Jew's harp.

Capt. O. C. Applegate writes us, under date of the 15th inst., that he would proceed, at once, from Linkville to Swan Lake and then commence the manipulation of a pitch fork. He has a large herd of cattle in that vicinity.

HURRAH FOR LAKE!—In late circular received from the Superintendent of Public Instruction, we learn that Lake county contains 3,837 children above the age of four years, and Lane, only 507. This must be correct; it's official.

WM. TALLEY, son-in-law of D. P. Walrat, and family, are paying their friend- and relatives in Ashland, a visit. Mr. Talley is an old time Jackson county man, but has resided for a number of years in Linn county.

CAMP MEETING.—The U. B. Church, will hold a camp meeting at the grove near Brother Root's residence, commencing on the W-does lay before the first Sabbath in August. Members of this and other churches are invited to attend.

SINCE WHEN?—We see from a report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, under date of June 23rd, that E. H. Anderson, of Jacksonville, is County Superintendent of schools until 1880. What's become of J. D. Fountain, of Ashland?

RETURNED.—J. W. Rogers, our photo artist, who has been doing the Lake country for some weeks past, returned last week, after a successful picture making trip to Linkville, Fort Klamath and the Agency. He is now ready to take that picture for you.

Hon. Jas. A. Crain was in town this week. His house had a narrow escape from burning recently, and was only saved by the most strenuous efforts of his wife and daughter, both of whom were considerably burned in their encounter with the fire fiend.

Among the various institutions of our town, there is none in which the people take more pride than they do in our Academy. It has been gradually developing since its institution, and now its prospects are brighter than ever. See their announcement in another column, to-day.

A company, bearing the name of the Rising Star Mining Co., has been organized to work quartz and placer diggings in the vicinity of Wolf creek. The officers for the ensuing year, are A. C. Jones, Pres.; E. D. Foundry, Sec.; S. J. Day, Treas.; L. N. Browning, Superintendent.

HAYING.—The haying season in this valley is about over. The crop is unusually large and has been saved in good condition, hence there is no special anxiety among equines and bovines of average intelligence and experience, regarding their winter's supply of provender.

NEW FILM.—William D. Corpe, late mail contractor on the Linkville and Yreka route, has gone into partnership with George Nurse in the livery stable business at the former place. Their stable is always supplied with all kinds of feed and they have room for all who favor them with a call.

The next session of the Teachers' Institute, for Jackson county, will be held at Jacksonville, August 8th, 9th, and 10th. For Lake county, it will meet at Lake View, on August 16th and 17th. The next Annual State Teachers' Institute will meet at Salem on the 21st, 22d, 23d and 24th of August.

FOR WILDER.—The family of Prof. J. H. Skidmore left this place for Wilber, Douglas county, last Saturday. The many friends of the Professor and his estimable lady regret their departure, but congratulate the people of Wilber upon so valued an accession to their social and educational circles.

FIDELITY.—Thousands of cases have been recorded of women who have refused to expose their brutal husbands, who have maltreated them. Information has just reached us, of an enraged husband biting off his wife's nose. On being arrested and brought into court, the noble woman testified that she bit it off, herself.

A man answering the description of Carson the "White Chief," who stole the gun and horse from a Klamath Indian, some time since, was seen at Canyon City, about the 13th inst. He gave his name as RATTLE SNAKE JACK. He left in company with the Boise scouts to join Howard's command. He will be remembered as the fantastic feather-headed swell that was in Ashland some weeks ago.

An "Oregon flat" who signs his name A. Hobson and gives his address, Salem Marion Co., Oregon, advertises in the San Francisco Chronicle, requesting some respectable young lady to correspond with him with a view of forming an acquaintance and ultimate marriage. If any "respectable" young lady is so unfortunate as to draw that galoot in life's lottery, she will find to her sorrow that she has drawn "Hobson's choice."

WHO MADE THE BLUNDER?—General Howard says he directed his secretary to have Grover come to Canyon City from the Agency, instead of going to Milheur, and that he supposes his secretary wrote Milheur in place of Canyon, through mistake. The mistake lies between Howard, Grover and the poor amanuensis, who is probably afraid to open his mouth for fear of incurring the vengeance of "red tape," and as the matter stands, must bear the burden of a wrong of which, it is more than possible, he is innocent.—Grant County Times.

PERSONAL NOTES.—Prof. T. F. Campbell is expected here soon, on a lecturing tour.

George Loosely, of Fort Klamath, gave our town a call last week.

C. H. Birkdel of Josephine county, spent some days in town last week.

Mrs. W. G. Parker, of the Half Way House, is visiting in Ashland this week.

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Lewis, of Linkville, are stopping in town this week.

Charley Prim, son of Judge Prim, a native Jacksonvillian, has again taken charge of the Applegate school.

Robt. P. Neil and G. W. Wilshire have returned this week, from the low plains of Lake, looking "lonely" sunburned.

Our old friend J. B. Farley, the pioneer teacher of Jackson county, is again to assume the female in Sterlingville district.

N. A. Jacobs has just returned from a flying visit to relatives on Applegate. His reports harvest work going on vigorously.

Mat R. Ish, our old 2x-y friend, gave us a call this week, looking so well that the wonder is he has escaped matrimony so long.

Our old friend Josiah Hannah, from Rogue river, was in this week with a load of his excellent pottery, which he disposed of to J. M. McCall & Co.

The Indian tribe called the Bannocks, One morning crawled out of their hammocks; "We are starting," they said, "On agency bread."

And they lit out, these gluttonous Bannocks, —Burlington HAWKEE.

Weather Report.—From observations taken at sunrise: July 12th, 53, clear; 13th, 60, clear; 14th, 56, clear; 15th, 49, clear; 16th, 54, rain; 17th, 52, cloudy; 18th, 47, clear; 19th, 51, clear; 20th, 56, clear; 21st, 54, clear; 22d, 52, clear; 23d, 52, clear; 24th, 54, clear; 25th, 51, clear. The figures following the date indicate the temperature.

H. C. HILL.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.—Sergt. Askins of Fort Klamath, arrived in Ashland one day last week. During the evening he visited his brethren of the "mystic tie," and studied their mysteries for a season, after which he invited the members to partake of a collation he had prepared by Mr. Houch, of the Ashland House, and all proceeded to enjoy one of the most pleasant affairs of the season. Next morning, the Sergeant proceeded with his prospective bride to Jacksonville, and the train was prepared to start life's journey anew. May their present happiness never diminish.

OUR NEW BRIDGE.—For the last two or three months, our new bridge has been the butt of full many a joke and jest, on account of the slow progress made on it. But people were satisfied to wait in anticipation of having a span across our beautiful stream, worthy the location. To make sure of having a nice bridge, the town agreed to pay one third of the cost. The people can now begin to see for what their money has been spent. Take a look at those beautifully designed banisters, nailed on the sides of the bridge; view with admiration those carbonized stub shots, projecting so graceful y on either hand. In fact, view it from every stand point and be thankful that man is created with a love for the beautiful and endowed with the power of design.

Items From Yreka Papers

Pete Wagner, living at the Union Mills, near Etna, had his finger crushed in some cog wheels and Dr. Hill, cut it off. Mr. Evans expects to issue the first number of a newspaper at Fort Jones about the first of August. The army worm is camped around Yreka. A few of their scouts have been seen in various parts of the city. The peach crop in Shasta valley and Yreka is scant. Apples are plenty at Yreka. Five more quartz leads have been discovered in the Ori Feno hills, yielding good prospects. The Journal complains that it won't stay hot long enough to give them dog days.

Items from the Fort.

Another elopement. Delightful weather. Hay making begins to-morrow. Base ballists in A. N. 1 trim. Paymaster at the Post and music in the air. Mr. Cameron left with 3,000 mutton sheep for California. Landresses have threatened to join the hostiles, because Congress has disbanded their corps. Major Jackson, Doctor Dickson, Capt. Adams, with their ladies and guests, picnicked at Crater Lake during the week. J. C.

OUR TOWN.

Few people who pass through Ashland are not impressed with the beauty of its location and the comfortable tidy appearance of its homes, as well as the business like appearance of the people. Every where is seen the evidence of prosperity and home happiness. But a mere passer-by can have but a partial conception of the extent of the business transacted here, especially, in the mechanical line. John Chandler's new saw mill is situated the farthest up Ashland creek. It has a double circular saw, for sawing lumber, and a saw for cutting slabs into stove wood.

Next in coming down the creek, is the glove factory, belonging to Mr. J. B. Hutchings. Here several hands are employed in the production of gloves, which are meeting with a steadily increasing demand, as their merits become better known. Mr. Hutchings prepares his own glove skins, also an excellent article of lace-leather.

Alfred's saw mill and shingle machine, comes next in order, which for some cause has been lying idle.

The soap factory of Rigdon & Co., next in order, claims notice. Their soap has become widely known in this and adjoining counties, and while it saves many dollars to the country, that would otherwise be sent out, it furnishes a superior article of this staple.

L. S. P. Marsh's furniture and sash factory is one of the most extensive establishments of the kind in Oregon, south of Portland. A large quantity of furniture is every year turned out, besides doors, sash and house finishing material. An extensive dry house for lumber is also connected with the establishment.

The Ashland Foundry and Machine shop, belonging to Mr. W. J. Zimmerman, is capable of turning out any kind of work usual to such an establishment, from a steam engine to a stove hook.

The next machinery encountered on our way down the creek, is the flouring mills, belonging to Wagner, Anderson & Co. It has recently been enlarged and improved machinery added. These mills have been in operation a quarter of a century and their reputation in Oregon and California is too well known to require further comment from us.

Mr. J. S. Eubanks' blacksmith shop puts in its appearance next. Here is where those fine Sarven wheel carriages are put up, that are becoming so popular among our citizens.

At C. K. Klum's saddle and harness factory, everything in that line, (except accelerators) are either manufactured or imported. This establishment contains one of the largest stocks in Southern Oregon.

At Wm. Kentnor's wagon factory much hard work is done in hard wood—wagons built, plows stocked, wheel barrows repaired and pack saddles a specialty.

Walters & Myer, watchmakers, jewelers and engravers, have, in connection with their mechanical department, a large stock of gold and plated jewelry, silver ware, etc.

George Nutley, practical boot and shoe maker, keeps also on hand a large assortment of imported goods in his line.

E. D. Peatt and John Conway, are both extensive manufacturers of boots and shoes.

At Mayer, merchant tailor, manufactures for the trade and to order, a large amount of clothing from Ashland cloth.

Nor would we pass our efficient tonorial artist, Wm. Mayfield, who does an extensive business in making up Sunday faces, and smoothing up the locks tangled by a week's labor.

Mrs. Martha Schumpf, milliner and dealer in millinery goods, adds a very important industry to the country.

Next week we will continue our directory of mechanics, manufacturers and artisans, and may perhaps reach our merchants and dealers.

EDITOR TIDINGS.—We have a number of cases of cholera morbus, here among the children, caused by eating green fruit.

Most of the cigars here don't hurt the boys much.

The public crib is causing some yearning of the bowels. Whose ox is getting now?

Many experts have decided that there is a mountain of gold in this vicinity. Um! um!

A bottle planted in the ground, bottom up, will make a good socket for a gate to swing upon, when hinges are not obtainable.

Mr. McDonald, a stock man from Surprise valley, Cal., has been sojourning among us. He has a half brother to Booth's Seampowerdown, with him.

"Gibson's lasses is darn good! Golly, look at the lasses! You can get some on your taters, if you go down there, Mister." It was the first time he had ever eaten the article, and struck it rich.

Chief Justice Huffer is now ready for splicing the main brace. Gals, bring on your blushing beaux and the Squire will see to you, and then you can see him.

New officers of Jacksonville Lodge, No. 10, I. O. O. F., are: J. H. Penn, N. G.; F. Lay, V. S.; S. J. Day, R. S.; Wm. E. B. a, Treasurer; J. Haden, W.; Ed. Smith, C.; Chris. Ulrich, R. S. N. G.; P. Rouschey, I. G.

Mr. Johnson, the tanner, has missed several bids from his tannery. They are either strayed or stolen.

A man and his wife had a scalp lock stitch dance recently. Both were frothy with wrath. Peas and hominy have been restored.

Our two fathers, Bechard and Blanchet, were upset from a back seat of a hack, caused by a sudden start of the horses, while near Hanley's place last week. Rather an ungraceful fall of grace, but nothing serious.

Two of our city belles are visiting at Mr. McDonough's, near Willow Springs. A very pleasant party was given there, last Saturday night, in their honor, and of course was highly enjoyable and appreciated. I did not remain to check the picken bones and appearances, but know they were par excellence. Mrs. M. leads in the enlivening viands. B. B. Bazzar's feast, or the carrying of noted Delmonica, is hardly comparable.

Mr. Wm. Kahler has been troubled with hogs, which got into his wheat field and destroyed a great quantity. A grand hunt was organized, with McDonough as pasha. A picked scout was deployed from the line on the flank of the enemy, who reported them about fifteen strong and posted on the skirt of dense timber, well masked, with a heavy force, slightly advanced. The pasha immediately ordered a council of war, while the engineer prepared a map of the field. The field and staff proposed an instant retreat, under the route step, but pasha, being a man of sterling stern and indomitable will, indignantly thundered out the command to prepare for an instant death struggle. He proposed to fight it out on this line if it took him all summer. At this juncture, the scout thrillingly reported the enemy maneuvering, undoubtedly effecting a change of base. Kahler's corps was ordered to advance by echelon to the left and move well on the enemies flank and rear. The cavalry on the right, was ordered to sweep entirely around and cut communications and line of retreat, while the centre under the eye and direct command of the pasha, would move forward with a heavy line of skirmishers and endeavor to carry the works by assault. The enemy were like the Arabs of the desert—wild and uncivilized and did not wait for the development of our plan, but came charging down upon us, ready and eager for the fray. An instant of time was lost in amazement, when the whole line broke in confusion, and the efforts of the pasha to render order and confidence, were unavailing. Scattering shots were fired, but alas, the centre was demoralized and could not be brought into action again during the battle. Kahler performed a very difficult and hazardous maneuver, during the engagement, and one seldom attempted in the face of an enemy. He threw a hollow square around two corps of the enemy and captured them, and they now languish in prison awaiting their death sentence. A pet dog of the regiment, while jumping out of danger and looking back to see if he was pursued, jumped off of a high bank, and, as he was launched into space, he gave one long howl of dismay and sank beneath the murky waters of Bear river, and was never seen again for ever so long. Our scattered forces were finally gathered on a mass and retired from the field, under cover of the night and dim light of the moon.

DON'T FORGET IT.

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid this season of the year, as poisons arising from stagnant water or decaying vegetation, are more numerous, and are, through inhalations, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms are sure to follow, and if not heeded, may end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the Great Liver Panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by CHITWOOD & ATKINSON. (No 53tf)
