AUSTIN BISH, the pioneer vegetable man, makes his regular calls on the Ashland people, loaded to the guards, with the good things of his garden. Green corn, watermelons, snap beans, and all other vegetables of the season, are what he sells.

We are in receipt of reliable information, that one day last week, the particular day we will not speak, our friend Daley, arose very early, and set out without delay, a-fishing. This much, no one will dispute, we're sure. But what is strange about it, he return. ed with trout, just sixty four.

J. M. McCall & Co. have been so busy this week "taking stock," that they "never found out once" that their ad. was squelched last week. We overheard the fattest one of the firm say that they had a thousand and one remnants that they would sell at cost, to the first person who came in.

CORRECTION .- We were in error last week, in stating that the camp meeting, to be held in the grove near Brother Root's residence, would " commence on the Wednesday before the first Sabbath in August." The time of its commencement will be August 21st, or the Wed-
