THE SENSE OF TIME. The more we live, more brief appear Our life's succeeding stages; A day to childbool se maa year, And years like passing ages. The glads me current of our youth, Ere passion yet disorders, Steals like a ling ring river sm oth Al ng its grassy borders. But as the cure-worn check goo vs wan, And sorrow's sha'ts fly thicker, Ye stars that measure life to man. Why seem your courses quicker ?

When joys have lost their bloom and brea And life itself grows vapil. Why, as we near the fails of death, Feel we its tide more rapid ?
